THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION
Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rekall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant, and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rekall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and aid in producing a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea, or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons, or old folks. Two sizes, 25c, and 50c. Sold only at our stores—The Rekall Store, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Fort and Hotel streets.

RECREATIONS

BIJOU ENTERTAINERS
FILL THE HOUSE

The public is certainly appreciative of the bill that is being put on at the Bijou nightly and patrons who come in after the curtain goes up usually have to "look around" for a seat. Vaudeville of a good, wholesome order and some of the best motion pictures ever shown here is certainly the makings for a good evening's entertainment, and that is what is being given at the Bijou every evening this week.

The four colored singers, the Gillams and Williams, is a team that has made good since the minute of its arrival here, and continues to give the public the best there is in them at every performance.

Hughes and Prior, recently from Australia, are on in a new act that comprises juggling and balancing, and is a feature in itself. The "Garden of Harmony", presided over by "The Musical Reeves", is a neat act and one that holds the people. It is a good program at the Bijou and well worth seeing.

The Empire has the same features for this week but they are good and full of fun from end to end. Wise and Milton make a pair that brings the laughs every time they appear on the stage. And there are other entertainers at the Empire with amusing stunts, and the moving pictures are of the best.

There is a matinee at the Empire this afternoon.

CLARKE WARMING UP AS SEASON ADVANCES.

Harry Corson Clarke is warming up to his roles as his season advances, and with his advent as the "cook-lady" in "Why Smith Left Home" he is gradually getting into the roles he is most conspicuous in. He is in his element in a downright character role and the more make-up the greater the comedian he is. His audiences are beginning to learn that he is an adept in character roles and they are rather astonished at the way in which he obliterates his own personality and presents an entirely new one.

In his presentation of "Mr. Foster of Chicago," he assumes the character of a man wearing side whiskers and an odd-looking wig. "Mr. Foster of Chicago" is a play which will be remembered by Honoluluans of fourteen years ago. Mr. Clarke played the comedy role then and it was considered one of his best roles. The house will be much larger on the last three nights of this week, due to the fact that those who saw the comedian play this part then are rather anxious to see him play it again.

Mr. Clarke's company is well balanced and any of its members is capable of playing a character or a straight role. The season is now in its second week and has two more weeks to run.

MRS. LOCKWOOD ON MODEL HUSBANDS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 29.—Mrs. Elva A. Lockwood, 81 years old, who has survived two model husbands and is a suffragette, tonight evolved the following matrimonial philosophy:

"There is only one thing scarcer than a good wife—a good husband.

"Young folks, don't live in apartment houses. Love can't thrive on steam heat and janitor service.

"My first husband was one of four boys in a family of eleven children. Their mother made all four spend two years at kitchen work so they would make good husbands. It was easy sailing for their wives, one of whom was I.

"My second husband used to wash the dishes while I got ready to go out with him. And he never thought he was henpecked.

"A husband who doesn't make money enough to hire a servant ought to help with the housework."
