ELKS SECURE $650 OUT OF BENEFIT

The Elks are more than satisfied with the outcome of the big vaudeville show in the Orpheum yesterday afternoon. Every seat in the place was taken and the Elks realized, clear of all expenses, the handsome sum of $650. This is undoubtedly more than they could have expected to realize from the presentation of the opera of Mikado which was first in contemplation.

On the early departure of the Sierra, it was impossible for C. J. Harvey to be present, he having booked for that steamer. On that account, the sketch in which he was to have taken part had to be omitted. Other than this, there was not a hitch in the whole program.

Previous to the entertainment, there was a concert by the band in front of the theater. The curtain went up at 7 o'clock sharp and then there was a continuous program with very short intermissions between each number.

During one of the intermissions, A. E. Murphy expressed the thanks of the members of the B. P. O. E. to those who had assisted in making the benefit a success. He then went on to state the aims of the order.

The Elks were greatly indebted to Manager Cohen of the Orpheum for his donation of the theater for the performance and to the following artists for their kindness in assisting at the benefit: Rose Sutherland, Mlle. Ferrand, Hope Haddon, Mlle. Adele, Madam Neillan, Prof. Powell and company, Bert Platt, Ferrand and the St. Onge Brothers, Ernest Hogan, McClain, Mme. Cordella.

ABRAMS-KEEPERS

Louis Abrams and Miss Ethel Keepers, the later of Sacramento, were married yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane in Kalia. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in a tent on the lawn. Later on the couple took the train for Waihala where the honeymoon will be spent.

The Crane home was very prettily decorated, the most noticeable part being the circular floral canopy suspended from the ceiling. It was under this mass of malle and marguerites that the ceremony was performed, the Rev. J. P. Erdman officiating.

A quintet club was in attendance and, as the favorite Hawaiian air, "Sweet Lei Lehua," was played, the bride couple entered the parlor. Miss Grace Power was maid-of-honor. The groom was attended by J. Kelly Brown Jr. The bride was given away by Charles Crane.

Those who staid the wedding souvenir of the bride and groom were: Miss Lizzie Grace, Miss Myra Angus, Mrs. Angus, Sallie Livingston, Blanche A. Lowrie, Eva Hammer, Jessie Todd, Alice Douglas, Gretchen Kopke, May E. Mordock, Lulu O'Dowda, Mr. and Mrs. Melanphy, Margaret T. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. M. Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Z. K. Myers, J. S. McCandless, J. A. Johnson, George Angus, A. Hocking, Mrs. and Mrs. Crane, Mrs. E. D. Crane, Miss Nettie Crane, James Crane, H. S. Crane, J. Kelley Brown, Miss Grace Power.

BURNS ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED

The anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns which takes place on Saturday night, will be celebrated appropriately by the Scottish Thistle Club in the Elks' hall at the corner of Beretania and Miller street, Friday night, commencing at 8 o'clock. Arrangements have been completed and a good time is in store for every one who attends. The club piper, R. McDonald Murray, will give a couple of dances. T. McCants Stewart will deliver an address on Burns; S. Beardmore will recite Burns' "Epistle to the Haggs." The haggis, the Scottish national dish, will be prepared by Mr. McIntyre of Moanalua. R. Cotton will respond to "The Immortal Memory of Burns;" United States Judge M. M. Estee to "The President of the United States;" British Commissioner W. R. Hoare to "King Edward and Queen Alexandra of Great Britain;" Dr. Sinclair to "The Land of Burns;" the Rev. Alex. Macintosh to "The Land We Live In;" Past Chief S. L. Dall to "Our Past Chiefs;" Attorney General E. P. Dole to "The Bar;" and M. D. Macfarlane to "The Lassie."

Robert Cotton will be the toastmaster. There will be instrumental music, singing and recitations. Charles Estlin and others will sing. It has not yet been decided who will respond for the press.

MEMORIAL PARK SITE

Governor Dole, C. M. Cooke and J. A. McCandless, members of the sub-committee of the McKinley Memorial committee on the choice of a site for a park, and P. S. Dodge of the Bishop Estate, went to Kalia yesterday to look over a piece of land that had been suggested. The committee spent a couple of hours on its tour of inspection and came away well pleased.

The sub-committee has asked the Bishop Estate trustees for an option of purchase of a plot of this land and also of that which lies at the end of King street. These, with the option asked on the Spreckels lot at Punahou, will form the sites from which the final selection will be made.

The piece which the committee visited yesterday is directly behind the Kamehameha Girls' School.

Members of the Undertakers' Association have begun a movement to abolish Sunday funerals in Chicago, and they hope to have the sympathy and support of the clergyman and cemetery managers. Exceptions will be made in the cases of contagious diseases as the law requires immediate burial in such cases. The undertakers object to the postponement of burials two or three days in order to hold them Sunday, and hope to compel a change in the old custom, thus securing a day of rest for themselves.
