KAUAI REPORTS A MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Chinese Doctor Found Dead in Hanapepe Canefield.

BODY HAD LAIN TWO WEEKS OUT IN WEATHER

Murder Is Strongly Suspected--Victim Was Gambler and Had About $900 On His Person.

Among the arrivals in the Mikahala from Kauai Sunday was Lau Hoon, a Hanapepe Chinaman who was sent to the city to report to the High Sheriff what he knows about the mysterious death of a kinsman, Lau Kon Sam by name and the finding of the body in the Hanapepe canefields by some natives on Saturday last.

On the night of February 11, Lau Kon Sam was an inveterate gambler and a doctor practicing without a license, went to the Sun See Tick store and from there to the Sing Kee store, about a mile away.

According to witnesses, the deceased got up at about 7 o'clock, told the cook that he would be back for lunch and jumping into a wagon of the Sing Kee Co., started for Camp 4, several miles away, making the statement that he intended going to see a sick man.

From this point on, the whole affair is shrouded in mystery. At one time, the driver stated that he had taken the murdered man to Camp 4 and that he had been paid sixty cents for the work.

No suspicion seems to rest on Kum Tong, the man with whom the deceased slept after quitting the gambling game in the early morning.

On February 15, three days after the disappearance, a brother of the deceased sent Chung Chew to Camp 4 to make inquiries. Chan Wan, the camp luna, stated that he had seen the deceased on the 12th and that he had left for Honolulu.

A few days after this, a reward of $50 was offered for the recovery of the body. Some natives volunteered and the friends of the deceased offered in addition to the reward already mentioned.

The man who came to Honolulu in the Mikahala yesterday and from whom the whole story was obtained by Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth this morning, does not know if any marks of violence or marks of identification had been found on the body.

There was likewise no information forthcoming with regard to what might have been found in the clothes of the deceased, the Chinese relative who came to Honolulu being a resident of Huleia, a place some distance away from Hanapepe, and all the information having been sent over the wires which, on account of the storm, were not working well.

At all events, it is known that the deceased had between eight and nine hundred dollars on his person after the game in the Sing Kee Company's store. This may have been a motive for the murder of the Chinaman.

As to the driver of the cart now under the strict surveillance of the police, it has been stated that he was in the same gambling game with the deceased on the night of February 11, when the latter made so much money.

TREATY IS RATIFIED

London, Feb. 18.--The United States Senate has ratified the Danish West Indies treaty.

special officer to Hanapepe to investigate.

All the foregoing facts were made known at a meeting of the Leung Too society last night, and it was decided at that time to offer all the help possible. A petition was sent to Consul Yang Wei Pin and he has promised to assist in the clearing up the mystery which surrounds the death of Lau Kon Sam.

TO PORT IN DISTRESS

BRITISH SHIP ELLEN A. READ IS LEAKING

Seventy-Four Days From Manila-- Captain McQuarrie in Command --Vessel Shows Signs of Heavy Weather.

After a long and tempestuous voyage, taking water into her hold faster than was safe for the welfare of the old vessel, the British ship Ellen A. Read, from Manila in ballast, bound for Vancouver, put into port about 1 o'clock this afternoon in distress.

She was sighted about 11 o'clock this morning and was soon taken hold of by the tug, being brought safely into port and dropping her mud hooks in the stream off the Inter-Land wharf, where a small crowd of curious waterfronters quickly gathered to learn what the trouble was.

The Read is not a new ship but is touched at this port and it was supposed that the unfortunate vessel had met with disaster during the recent heavy northeast gale, so flying to this port for shelter.

As she stands in the stream off the Inter-Land wharf she clearly shows signs of having been through terrific weather and come out of it none the better off.

The Read enjoyed good weather for the first few days out of Manila and her captain expected a fine passage to Vancouver where he has many friends who would welcome him from his long voyage.

It was not long after the Philippines had been left behind, however, before it was found that the ship was leaking. The weather became squally and a gale followed that threatened to tear the worthy vessel's planks asunder.

Much of her copper sheathing has been worn away, the naked and battered planks being exposed.

The Read left Manila on December 19, so that she has been at sea, attempting to get to Vancouver, for nearly eleven weeks. She is a vessel of 150 tons and, if it were not for her battered hull, would be a handsome vessel. She stands high out of the water, being light in ballast.

The crew, some of them, have already managed to get ashore. The Read will be obliged to remain in this port for some time. When her captain decided to put in here she was leaking badly and he did not consider it safe to attempt to reach Vancouver.

Much difficulty was experienced in making Honolulu on account of the heavy northeast of the last few days.

NEW SESSION SUPREME COURT

Honolulu Plantation Co's New Trial Begins in Federal Court.

TERRITORY JURY DOING DUTY AT TERM EXTENSION

Judge Humphreys Revokes a Decree of Separation by Himself --Estate of Late Mrs Batchelor.

A new session of the Supreme Court opened at 10 o'clock this morning. Chief Justice Frear, Justice Galbraith and Justice Perry present. The Chief Justice, before calling the calendar, said the Court would sit throughout this week and perhaps part of next week, then adjourn until Monday, April 21. There was a large attendance of lawyers, including some from the country towns.

United States vs. Honolulu Plantation Company was called for a new trial by jury in the Federal Court, and the work of empanelling a jury to sit with proceeded.

Emma S. Douglas of Fruitvale, Alameda county, California, a daughter of deceased, petitioned the First Circuit Judge that she may be appointed administratrix of the estate of the late Catherine E. Hatchelor, which is valued at $9555 real estate in Honolulu being put down at $7375. Besides the petitioner the heirs at law are stated to be Mrs. Josephine A. Fink of Fruitvale, Cal., and four sons living on this island.

Judge Humphreys pronounced a decree of separation and afterward set it at naught, continuing for the term the divorce case of Elise Frobenius vs. Gus F. Frobenius.

Divorce was granted to Mauea Umanua against Stephen Umanua for adultery, and for the same cause to John Degreaves against Caroline Degreaves.

At a quarter to 12 in the Federal Court, both sides had passed a full panel for cause. Judge Estee called on Deputy District Attorney Dunne to exercise his right of challenge if desired, each side being allowed three challenges.

Charles S. Crane was challenged by the United States. The Court announced that there were no jurors to draw from, and ordered the clerk to issue a special venire for fifteen additional men. Marshal Hendry being present was directed to send his men along as soon as found, while the Court took recess till 2 o'clock this afternoon.

H. H. Hitchcock vs. Hawaiian Tramways Company, appeal of plaintiff, was set for hearing in the Supreme Court tomorrow. Following are the other cases answered ready at the calling of the calendar: Rule to show cause in the matter of M. E. Lennon, attorney at law; Nobrega vs. Nobrega, divorce, exceptions from First Circuit Court; Kau Ting Kee vs. Jon Yau, exceptions from First Circuit Court; J. M. Vyas vs. Mele Akoni, exceptions from First Circuit Court; T. R. Mossman vs. S. B. Dole et al. submission; Motino to quash; Irene H. Holloway vs. C. A. Brown; Jesse Makainai vs. Go. Wai Hoop, appeal from Honolulu District Court; Territory vs. Ah Quong, original; Defendant's motion to vacate decree; G. N. Hind et al. vs. Wilder's Steamship Company, set for 10th inst.; John Kidwell vs. Frank Godfrey, appeal from Judge, First Circuit. Other cases will be ready after tomorrow.

Thomas M. Harrison by his attorneys, Robertson & Wilder, has filed objections to the bill of exceptions of J. A. Magson and others in the Hailey Cure Company case.

An amended bill in equity to set aside and cancel a deed has been filed by Publika Malama Guerrero, minor, by J. H. Kamio, her next friend, against Frank Pabis and Loyal Guerrero. It pertains to land in Koolaulou and alleges fraudulent conduct on the part of Pabis.

Closing argument to the jury was being made in the Chinese libel case before Judge Gear at noon today. Judge Humphreys hears the petition of Fred. W. Wundenberg, receiver, for instructions as to what to do with the Kona Sugar Company, at 2 o'clock. The jury found Wong Shiu King guilty of libel in the second degree and Judge Gear announced sentence for 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Cecil Brown is appointed executor of the will of the late Arch. F. Gillilan under $8000 bond. H. M. von Holt is appointed executor without bond of the will of the late Frank Brown. John S. Azvedo is ordered discharged as administrator of the estate of Gerardo J. Rocio, deceased, on paying balance into court. Laura K. Halualani's petition that she be appointed administratrix of the estate of her late husband, L. K. Halualani, is denied. Waiance Meeting Postponed. The annual meeting of the Waiance Sugar Co. was to have been held today but the non-arrival of Geo. N. Wilcox of Kauai, one of the principal stockholders, has made a postponement necessary. Should there be a meeting any time today it will be simply set over until Mr. Wilcox does arrive.

GUNNING AT ORPHEUM

Cunning promises a show of great excellence, at the Orpheum tonight, and as this and tomorrow night's performances will be the last opportunities of seeing him, it is expected that the attendance will be very large. The sale of tickets already indicates this and it is a tribute to show that Cunning's clever work is appreciated.

Tonight's performance will be in two parts, the first consisting of prestidigitations, illusions, etc., assisted by Warren, the Mormon wizard, and a mind reading exhibition by Madame Alone. The second part will be an exhibition of hypnotism in which Cunning has been eminently successful. In this performance the subjects will be caused to act in a manner so comical and ludicrous as to keep the audience in constant spells of laughter. In itself, this part of the performance is worth far more than the price of admission.

EATON MUST QUIT

It was learned by the last Mauna Loa that there was in contemplation a change in the office of deputy sheriff of Kauai. High Sheriff Brown was seen today about the matter and he confirmed the report, saying: "There have been a great many complaints from Kauai regarding Deputy Sheriff Eaton and I have written to Sheriff Andrews recommending a change if a suitable man can be found to take the place. I have received an application for the place from Henry Martin, a young half-white of the district and this application I have sent to Sheriff Andrews who will do what he thinks best in the premises."

SATURDAY'S BOXING

There was great excitement at the Orpheum Saturday night when Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth jumped into the ring and stopped the boxing contest between Agnew and Fox at "Denver" Ed Smith's show. However, Mr. Chillingworth said today that he only did this because he thought the match had gone far enough. Fox was tired out and he did not think the sparring should be allowed to continue. He declines the statement that there was any row. At all events, Agnew had the best of the match from start to finish. Fox is clever but it was shown Saturday night that it would not be possible for him to stand up long before Agnew. There was a four-round bout between "Spider" Jackson and Sydney Jackson which resulted in a draw. Two small boys put on the gloves and created a lot of amusement. Decker and Gonsalves had a four-round go, the former showing himself to be the better man. George Riley was a little better than Sergeant Hooker of Camp McKinley in another bout. Cominsky led Jack Andrews out on points and "Celsus" Harris, a negro, was much the superior of Nigel Jackson.

OPELU, NOT AWA.

A Honolulu business man who recently returned from Maui tells the following story of a trial in the District Court at Wailuku on the charge of selling awa without a license. The prosecution showed that the defendant had sold opelu and had given away a saw. Nevertheless, the Chinaman was found guilty of selling awa without a license and was sentenced to pay a fine of $75 and costs. Naturally there was an appeal taken.

COMMENTS KONA TO THE HAMMER

Receiver Wundenberg Is For Selling Entire Property.

INSTRUCTIONS REQUESTED FROM JUDGE HUMPHREYS

Hearing of Petition at Two O'clock This Afternoon -- Interested Parties Served With Notice to Appear.

Fred. Wundenberg, receiver in the case of M. W. McClesney & Sons vs. Kona Sugar Company, Ltd. and the First American Savings and Trust Company of Hawaii, Ltd., has petitioned Judge Humphreys for instructions. He states that C. Brewer & Co. had led him to believe they would, in all probability, advance the funds necessary to carry on the business of the Kona Sugar Company, including the completion of the mill and taking off the crop of growing cane, but that C. Brewer & Co. have refused to advance such funds and the receiver has made every effort to obtain the necessary funds from other persons without success. The receiver believes that it is impossible to get the funds necessary for the aforesaid purpose. He concludes: "That your receiver is fully satisfied that it is necessary for the protection and preservation of the property of the said Kona Sugar Company, Limited, and the said plantation, that immediate steps be taken to sell and dispose of the present crop of about 3000 tons of sugar, which will irreparably cripple and injure the said Kona Sugar Company, Limited."

"That it would be to the best interest of all parties to the litigation herein if the entire property and estate of the said Kona Sugar Company, Limited, be sold at public auction. "Wherefore, your receiver prays for an order of your Honorable Court instructing your receiver as to what he shall do in the premises."

Judge Humphreys has made an order in which, deeming it expedient that the petition should be heard as soon as practicable, the hearing is set for 2 o'clock this afternoon, with notice to be served on S. M. Damon, H. E. Waity and S. E. Damon, comprising the firm of Bishop & Co., the First American Savings & Trust Co., McClesney & Sons, the Kona Sugar Co. and W. W. Bierce, Ltd.

Judge Humphreys this afternoon denied the petition, stating that Wundenberg is merely caretaker of the plantation.

BROKE HIS WRIST

Herbert Young, one of the Young Brothers, who operate a number of gasoline launches in this harbor, is suffering with a broken wrist. He does not know how or when the accident occurred, but noticing a swelling in his wrist and feeling acute pains in that member during the last day or two, he went to a doctor who, after an examination, informed him that his wrist was fractured in two places. Young carries his arm in splints and is, much against his inclination, abstaining from any active work.
