D. P. R. Isenberg has a notice to hunters in this issue, forbidding hunters to do any shooting on the lands at Waialae and Kahala under his control. Mr. Isenberg has recently imported a number of California and Mexican doves, with which he has stocked his land. These birds are very tame and fall easy victims to hunters, with the result that they would be very quickly exterminated if not protected. It is Mr. Isenberg's intention to import a number of other new species of birds for his lands and expects the sportsmen of Oahu to assist him in stocking the island, which they can not do by shooting the imported few birds now here.
