Under the Management of James Woods

FACING the beautiful park in the heart of the city, which is the theatre of the principal events of the famous festivals of San Francisco, this hotel, in environment and atmosphere, expresses most pleasantly the comfortable spirit of old California.

The royalty and nobility of the Old World and the Far East and the men of high achievement in America who assemble here contribute to the cosmopolitan atmosphere of an institution which represents the hospitality and individuality of San Francisco to the traveler.

The building, which marks the farthest advance of science in service, has now the largest capacity of any hotel structure in the West, and upon completion of the Post street annex will be the largest caravansery in the world.

BRITISH MINISTER GETS THE WHIP
LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Right Honorable Winston Churchill, home secretary in the Asquith government, was the victim of a suffragette assault yesterday, being attacked by a male sympathizer of the "Votes for Women" campaign. The home secretary was returning to London from Bradford, where he had made a political address, when he was at-

MILLIONAIRE MEAT PACKER IS DEAD
CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Michael Cudaby, one of the founders of the Cudaby Packing Company and its president, died here today, after a short illness, death being due to pneumonia.
Michael Cudaby was born in Kilkenny, Ireland, in 1841, being brought to America by his parents in 1849. When fourteen years old he began work in a meat packing house in Milwaukee, where his two brothers, John and Patrick, later his partners, also worked as boys. He was promoted by his employers and became packing house manager and inspector for the Armour, holding that position until 1879, when he became a partner in the business, remaining with the Armours until 1896. At that time, with his brothers, he founded the Cudaby Packing Company, now one of the greatest in the country.

DIAZ SAYS IT WAS POLITICS

(Associated Press Cable.)
CITY OF MEXICO, November 27.—Declaring that the recent revolution was simply one of politics, engineered by General Madero for his own ambitious ends, with no real cause beneath it, President Diaz today gave out his first press interview since the exciting events of the past two weeks began. The President was inclined to minimize the situation of the past ten days, stating that at no time had the revolution assumed any strength sufficient to cause him or any of his ministers any anxiety for the outcome. He stated that the press of the United States had exaggerated the amount of fighting and the strength of the rebels' forces in the field.
Beyond what General Madero will be able to do for himself there is no danger that the revolution will spread, the President predicted.
A Sharp Engagement.
Although it had been declared that the revolutionists were not in sufficient force at any point to offer resistance further to the loyal troops, a sharp engagement is reported to have taken place today in the State of Chihuahua. The loyalist army, numbering six hundred men, attacked a force of four hundred rebels, in an entrenched position. The battle lasted for some time, the rebels being finally driven from their position and scattered, with a loss of fifteen killed and a large number wounded.
The loyalists have taken up a hot pursuit of the rebels, who have fled into the mountains.
LAREDO, Mexico, November 27.—The revolution is over. "Yesterday the government made the announcement by officially removing the censorship by the reports of the Associated Press and relinquishing the use of the Associated private and leased telegraph system.
Everywhere throughout the Republic the troops are in control and numerous arrests of the revolutionary leaders are being made. In no place are the rebels in force and no positions are held by them.

IRISH FACTIONS FOUGHT IT OUT
DUBLIN, November 27.—Political rioting broke out here today between the Home Rule followers of William Redmond and the adherents of that wing of the Irish party led by William O'Brien, in the fighting between the rival politicians and later against the constabulary that interfered, eighty persons were injured, several seriously.
Redmond has recently returned from America with one hundred thousand dollars as a political fund, subscribed by Irish-Americans to aid the Home Rule cause. With this fund back of him and the promise of as much more if he should need it, Redmond has been taking advantage of the talk of a general election to "institute a fierce attack in the County of Cork against O'Brien, the effect of which is felt throughout Ireland. Today, in order to show their sympathy with his cause, a large procession of voters paraded the streets of this city. The demonstration of strength proved too much for the O'Brientes, who gathered and attacked the paraders.
The fighting was lively and became a three-cornered affair as soon as the police arrived and charged.

SEATTLE GROWS APACE.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The census enumeration results for the cities of Seattle and Portland were announced yesterday and will be taken in as the official figures of the 1910 census. By the recount, Seattle is shown to have a population of 237,194, an increase of one hundred and thirty-four per cent over the population of 1890. Portland shows a gain of one hundred and twenty-nine per cent, the present population figures being 267,214.

MUTINEERS GIVE UP BATTLESHIPS
RIO JANEIRO, Brazil, Nov. 27.—The mutinous sailors of the Brazilian navy, who struck for increased pay by seizing their battleships and turning the guns against the city, yesterday formally surrendered the vessels back to their officers, having gained their point and secured immunity from arrest for mutiny or mutiny.

PAMENTA-BITENCOURT WEDDING
Miss Rosie R. Pamenta and V. M. Bitencourt were married last Saturday night. The wedding took place at the Catholic Cathedral, there being a number of relatives and friends present. Father Stephens officiated. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.
After the ceremony of reception took place at the residence of the bride, which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.
