To have a FIRE EXTINGUISHER in your house.

Mr. Thomas Hollinger's house at Kapiolani Park was saved through the thoughtfulness of his daughter and the use of an extinguisher.

If it hadn't been for the Fire Extinguisher the house would have undoubtedly been in ashes.

Protect yourself by buying a BADGER FIRE EXTINGUISHER before a fire visits you.

SUPREME COURT CONFIRMS AWARD

The Supreme Court has confirmed the judgment of the lower court in award made by arbitrator in the case of Mary A. Richards against Carl On Tal et al.

The case was one in which the plaintiff, who had been holding down the job of inspector of the Honolulu road work, is reported to be working tooth and nail for a nomination for Supervisor. He is being mentioned as candidate on both the Republican and the Democratic tickets, the Democrats claiming that he will join their party in the near future. He is a prominent member of the Hilo Labor Union, and is figuring on strong support from that organization.

On the whole the office of Supervisor from the Hilo districts seems to be the one which holds forth the greatest temptations. The other day some of the political gentlemen around the County offices, who are now becoming fair acrobats in their efforts to hold both ears to the ground at once, held a conference at which they counted all the persons whom they consider as possible candidates for Supervisor from North and South Hilo. They made up a list of twenty-five names, and then they said that they had probably overlooked some bets. As some of the leaders of all the parties collaborated in the compiling of the list it may be regarded as fairly instructive. It is as follows:

HILO POLITICAL POT SIMMERING

Many Are Willing To Become Public Servants

(Special Correspondence)
 Hilo, July 18.—The meetings called in the various precincts for the election of officers seems to have revived the interest in politics which appeared to be waning during the preceding weeks. Now the woods are full of would-be candidates for various offices, and a large number of gentlemen are busily engaged in sending out squid-like feelers in all directions to learn how they stand.

Considerable interest has been shown among the politicians in the report that Rufus Lyman was enquiring among his friends to see how much support he could count on, his particular ambition being to represent South Hilo district on the Board of Supervisors. Lyman was asked point blank last week whether he really intended to run or not, but he refused to commit himself. He would not say that he would run, nor would he say that he would not run, stating coyly that it was too early in the game to give a definite answer.

Among the other new candidates for the office of Supervisor from South Hilo who have come into prominent mention recently are Dan Namahoe of Waialea, the fish inspector; and W. H. Winchester, the harness-maker. Both are mentioned as prospective Republican candidates. John Kealoha, who has been holding down the job of inspector of the Honolulu road work, is reported to be working tooth and nail for a nomination for Supervisor. He is being mentioned as candidate on both the Republican and the Democratic tickets, the Democrats claiming that he will join their party in the near future. He is a prominent member of the Hilo Labor Union, and is figuring on strong support from that organization.

On the whole the office of Supervisor from the Hilo districts seems to be the one which holds forth the greatest temptations. The other day some of the political gentlemen around the County offices, who are now becoming fair acrobats in their efforts to hold both ears to the ground at once, held a conference at which they counted all the persons whom they consider as possible candidates for Supervisor from North and South Hilo. They made up a list of twenty-five names, and then they said that they had probably overlooked some bets. As some of the leaders of all the parties collaborated in the compiling of the list it may be regarded as fairly instructive. It is as follows:

Republicans—Jas. D. Lewis, John Bohnenberg, Otto Rose, W. H. Winchester, Dan Namahoe, John Kealoha, Keola Kallimal, J. T. Motr, Rufus Lyman, A. M. Cabrinha and C. E. Wright.
 Democrats—D. E. Metzger, J. A. M. Osorio, John Kealoha, E. K. Simmons, S. K. Keaki, Jim Kepoo, N. B. Naimuu.
 Home Rulers—M. S. Pacheco, Eugene Lyman, W. K. Campbell, Wm. A. Todd, Simeon Kahana, Ben Ah Leong, John Mannia and Moses Doiron.

It is reported that Simeon Kahana may switch to the Democratic party before long. Jim Kepoo, who is mentioned as a Democratic candidate for Supervisor, may transfer his affections to the House.

The Matamalamas, the Hawaiian Democratic organ, last week created some excitement by announcing that a wing of the Home Rule party was considering dropping Lalakea, who has held the office of Treasurer, and of placing Eugene Lyman, his deputy, on their ticket in his place. This report was denied by Lyman, who said that his ambitions ran in the direction of the Board of Supervisors.

It is also reported that Chas. E. King, the former school inspector who was a few days ago given a position as supervising principal in Kona, might be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Treasurer. Some of his friends say that the change has been in the nature of Irish promotion, and that King will probably be looking towards other pastures. There is, however, nothing definite on which to base this report, and King may be perfectly satisfied.

John Maas is being mentioned as a probable candidate for the House on the Democratic ticket. He is a member of the Labor Union, and will have its support if he runs.

From the outside districts a number of political reports have been coming in. It is stated that Sam Kanehane is thinking of running on the Republican ticket for Supervisor for Kau, in which case he will have to run against Shipman.

Willie Rickard is being backed by many Hamakua folk for the office of Supervisor for that district, but he does not appear to be particularly anxious about entering the fight.

Wm. N. Purdy, the old Home Rule warhorse, will be the candidate of that party for Supervisor from Hamakua.

J. N. Koomoa, the present deputy sheriff of North Kona, is being groomed for a run for the office of Supervisor from that district by the Home Rulers.

Jim Kepoo, the Hilo Democrat, is being mentioned as a possibility for the House.

John Lewis, the Kohala deputy sheriff, will probably run for Representative on the Home Rule ticket.

Geo. P. Kamaouha, at one time deputy sheriff and now road supervisor of South Kona, is a possible Republican candidate for the Senate.

DR. GRACE PLANS TO LEAVE HILO

(Special Correspondence)

HILO, July 18.—Dr. John J. Grace, the well-known physician of this city, is preparing to leave Hilo with his family, and is now making arrangements for having his practice taken over by some other physician. He expects to leave during the end of October, and will go first to his home at Wellington, New Zealand, where he will visit his mother. He has no definite plans as to what he will do beyond that. The health of Mrs. Grace furnishes the main reasons for Dr. Grace's departure, and he states that he feels sorry to leave the place where he has been situated for so many years.

Dr. Grace came to Hilo eleven years ago, and has built up a very extensive practice. He has also been the local representative of the United States Marine Hospital Service. He has the universal respect and confidence of the community in his ability as a physician, and both his wide circle of patients and his many friends in private life will be sorry to see him leave, as well as Mrs. Grace, who is a daughter of the late Dr. Greenfield of Honolulu.

ECZEMA CURE A MIRACLE? NO—JUST SOUND SCIENCE

Physicians now admit the superior value of simple medicines for all diseases.

For eczema and other skin diseases certainly nothing in the world could be simpler than oil of wintergreen, carefully combined with such well known healing and antiseptic substances as thymol, glycerine, etc. Read this letter:

"A few years ago eczema covered my limbs, part of my body and began breaking out on my face. I began using oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol and glycerine in D. D. Prescription. Used five bottles and was cured sound and well. My druggist said it looked almost like a miracle to him, but he explained to me that the use of this oil of wintergreen was just sound science. "That has been almost a year ago and I see no signs of the disease returning. "My skin is just as soft and nice as it ever was."

D. P. MILLER, Smithville, Mo.

Such a wonderful experience we feel speaks for itself. Honolulu Drug Co., Fort Street.

RYAN'S RECEPTION

"Ryan's Reception," which will be the offering of the Casino Musical Comedy players at the New Orpheum, promises many surprises and novel features. This farce is said to be of tuneful and hilarious character and abounds in pretty ensembles by the chorus. All of the principals will be seen and heard in new items. Miss Rockwell will sing by special request "Love Me and the World Is Mine;" Miss Canfield accompanied by an organ, will render "The Rosary;" Vilmer Stech has a pretty little number in "Oh, You Candy Kid;" Harry Stuart and Olga Stech have a duet called "Rosey Rosey" and other members of the company will add items which promises to enliven the bill.

SIERRA HIKING

The following wireless message has been received by the agents from the S. S. Sierra:

"S. S. Sierra, At Sea, July 20, 1910, 8 p. m. 140 miles out. Moderate N. E. winds, sea smooth and fine clear weather. Passed Wilhelmina."

CAPTAIN TURNER of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company has returned to San Francisco after a trip overland to inspect the wreck of the schooner Annie E. Smale, which is on the rocks under the Point Reyes lighthouse. He verified the report that the vessel would be a total loss and reported that even if a vessel succeeded in pulling her off the rocks, her bottom would drop out and her cargo of coal would be lost. She is slowly breaking to pieces.

FORT SHAFTER NEWS

Companies G and H took one of the most strenuous hikes Tuesday morning that was ever pulled off since the second battalion of the 20th Infantry has been stationed here. The companies started out at 8 o'clock in the morning and went up through Moanalua Valley about five miles. The companies were then halted and soon mountain climbing commenced. Private Grant of Company H being the first man to reach the top. He was sent up to investigate and see if everything was safe. The men then started, all in heavy marching order, the equipment weighing ninety pounds. In some of the places the slope was all of seventy-five degrees. It was a lucky day, as none of the men of the two companies fell. After the companies were at the top, they were rested for about fifteen minutes, and then started down on the other side, hiking about three more miles and then returning to the valley. The companies then rested for about an hour, and in the meantime the men cooked their own meal and dined. At 12:45 the companies assembled and marched back to the post, arriving at 1:20 in the afternoon, being out five hours and twenty minutes. The men hiked about twelve miles in all. The trip was very muddy and the path rocky and slippery, rain adding to the uncomfortableness of the hike.

Company H is going to try and "hike" the Waimea Pass about the twenty-ninth or thirtieth of this month. There was a detail of Engineers sent over the trail about two months ago, but they were unable to go through this pass. Company H will leave with only two days' rations, and will hike to Waialua and from there will try to climb up one side of the mountain and down the other to Kahana. All the companies of this post except H expect to start on a three day hike on the twenty-seventh of this month.

The shooting on the target range has been completed for this year. The National Guard is still using the range on Sundays.

Privates Roberts and Pearce, both of Company G, have been reported fit for duty by the post surgeon and have returned to their company. Private Roberts has been sick in the post hospital for two months. The men of Company G have had their third dose of the typhoid vaccination. Some of the men suffered with very sore arms at first.

Sergeant Harry Westphelenger, Post Exchange steward, is having the exchange thoroughly cleaned and repaired.

CIRCUS IN TOWN

The Princess Rink will be turned into a vaudeville house this evening with Professor Antonio's surprise circus and the marvelous Tyler, equilibrist and foot balancer as the star features of what promises a splendid program. Antonio's troupe of performing dogs and monkeys is said to be a marvelous aggregation. The intelligence of the canines and members of the ape family, which Antonio has carried around the world, is said to be almost beyond belief. They go through a program of skipping, feats of balancing, walking the tight rope, and wheeling a barrow along, somersaults and jumping and besides other tricks too numerous to mention.

The marvelous Tyler, equilibrist and foot balancer, does several sensational feats among them being what he calls the "human merry-go-round." He juggles and tosses from his feet huge casks, mattresses, Japanese screens and other large and cumbersome objects. In addition to the miniature circus, and Tyler the latest motion pictures will be shown.

The father of triplets is certainly in a position to realize that it is the little things that count.
