REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CATTLE.

Mr. President, and Gentlemen of the R. H. Agricultural Society:

No imported stock, Class I, or native crossed between imported and native cattle, Class II, were exhibited. (See list of premiums for the years 1854 and 1855.)

The only animals on the ground were one fine yoke of working oxen, 7 and 8 years old; one fat ox, age not stated; one cow and heifer. All of native breed.

Your committee, in the belief that Class No II, was intended to embrace native stock, as well as that mixed with imported, are of opinion, that the animals exhibited are entitled to consideration, and trusting to the well known liberality of the Society, we award for the oxen, No. 123, $5 or a large medal.

For the fat ox No. 125. $5 or a large medal.
M. C. MONSARRAT, Chairman.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the R. H. A. Society.

COLTS.

28 & 29. none entered.

GELDINGS.

30. Best gelding, Mr. J. Dominis, 85.

31. 2d. best gelding, Mr. W. S Allen's, 87.

It was hard to decide between those exhibited by Mr. Moffett, and those to which we have given the premiums, and we think Mr. Moffett entitled to a premium too.

We noticed an imported gelding belonging to Mr. L. H. Anthon, which is a noble animal and we recommended the same to your attention.

Mr. Paul Manini entered a grey stallion 3 years old, sired by S. Thompson's imported stud, which we recommend to your consideration; he being a fine and strong horse.

There was a native stallion belonging to Messrs. Brown which we did not notice until after the judges had separated, but which we think about as good as the best.—This stallion is from "Oregon" and has many excellent qualities.

Some horses were brought to the fair after the time fixed for the entry, and so we could not take notice of them; we regret it the more as some of them were very valuable animals.

Respectfully submitted.
L. L. TORBERT, Chairman.

The committee appointed to judge and report on Sheep and Swine beg to report as follows:

We do not consider any of the sheep exhibited to be of sufficient merit or quality to enable us to award a prize.

In pigs the competition was very limited, only three being exhibited. The Black Berkshire Boar imported, No. 135, was a very fine specimen, and we consider him well entitled to the first prize.

Two Native Sows, No. 165, were exhibited, and we consider them to be of good quality and entitled to the first prize.

For the Committee.
JNO. MONTGOMERY.

In addition to the above award, your committee beg to add that a number of excellent fleeces of wool of superior quality were exhibited and we award premiums to the following numbers, viz: 72, 73 and 74.

For the Committee,
JNO. MONTGOMERY.

To the President and members of the R. H. A. Society.

GENTLEMEN, Your committee on grain, flour, seeds, and field crops, having examined the different samples of the above products exhibited, have awarded premiums to the following, as numbered at the exhibition.

Sample No. 44, Best sample of Wheat, $10 or silver cup.
" No. 76, do. do. 20 ear Indian Corn, $5 or medal.
" No. 77, Best bushel of Indian Corn $5 or medal.
" No. 106, Best variety of Beans $5 or medal.

No certificates or descriptions of the modes of culture, &c., as required by the society, have been forwarded by the owners of the following samples but your committee would recommend premiums to be awarded as follows:

For sample No. 42, Best crop of Wheat not less than two acres, $15 or a cup.

This sample your committee are informed was raised by a native named Kekaha, a member of the auxiliary society on East Maui, at Makawao, and was from a field of 50 acres producing about 23 bushels per acre although this falls two bushels per acre short, according to the society's rule, still your committee are of opinion that as a reward of industry, and a stimulant to farther exertion the award will be beneficial.

Sample No. 67, Best sample of Irish Potatoes $5 or medal.

This is the only sample of Irish Potatoes exhibited and is a fair one.

Sample No. 1, Best sample of Tobacco, $10 or a cup.

This is a sample from the plantation of Messrs. Archer & Gruben of Waimea, Kauai, and is from a field of 30 acres. There is no account of the cultivation of the crop along with the sample, but as one of the partners wrote an able report on the subject, as published in last year's transactions of the society, your committee consider that the above premiums ought to be awarded.

Your committee would also recommend that a premium of $10 or a cup be awarded to the party (if eligible) who manufactured the excellent samples of Wheat Flour and Indian Corn Meal exhibited.

Two small samples of Hawaiian cigars were exhibited by Mr. Montgomery, put up in a neat and business like manner, but not in a sufficient quantity to entitle them to a premium.

Your committee regret to state that for many of the premiums offered by the society there were no competitors, and that so far as this branch of the exhibition is concerned it will not compare favorably with that of last year.

Respectfully submitted.
W. WEBSTER, Chairman.

To the President of the Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society.

The committee, appointed to award the premiums for the best samples of Sugar, Syrup and Coffee exhibited, would respectfully report as follows:

SUGAR.—They award the first premium of $15 or a silver goblet, for the best one hundred pounds of Muscovado Sugar, exhibited in lot No. 50; being a sample of twenty tons manufactured at Makawao, Island of Maui, during the present year.

The sample of sugar marked 51 was of good quality and refined by means of animal charcoal imported from the United States: but the committee were unable to award a premium for this sample, as the quantity required for a premium was not exhibited.

COFFEE.—The committe award the first premium of $10 or a silver cup for the lot marked 5, being a sample of the crop raised at Napoopoo, District of Kona, Hawaii, during the past year. This coffee was of fine quality and very aromatic.

The committee were unable to award a premium for the lot marked 136, being a sample of coffee raised at Hanalei, Kauai, as the requisite quantity was not exhibited, but they would remark, that this coffee was of fine quality, well cleaned, and worthy of a premium, if the requisitions of the society had been complied with.

SYRUP.—There was no syrup exhibited for a premium.

Respectfully submitted.
J. W. AUSTIN, Chairman.

To the President of the Agricultural Society:

The committee of Judges on Poultry, Dairy and Cheese respectfully report, that the show in this department, did credit to the society, as all the articles exhibited were excellent, without exception. It is known that there are several varieties of Poultry upon the islands in good condition and thriving, and it is to be regretted that sufficient interest has not been excited to induce the owners to have them at the fair. There was but one lot of hens and one lot of ducks for the committee to examine.

Horace G. Crabb presented for our consideration one cock and two hens of the Shanghai Breed which the committee regard as entitled to a premium for their superior merit. The stock was procured from the American steamer Susquehanna on her way home from Japan, and the specimens of them produced came evidently here with great care. Mr. Crabb states to the committee, the young ones are to a feather exactly alike and also the young cocks. The fowls on exhibition will be five months old on the 16th June inst., and that the largest of the pullets has laid 17 and the other 25 eggs. Before the exhibition closed another egg was found in the coop. The committee are of opinion they should take the prize offered for "Best Lot of
