THE TICKET.

No stronger or more representative ticket could have been chosen than that selected by the Republican County Convention on Thursday last.

All elements of the party are represented and as far as possible each of the districts of the County have been recognized.

John C. Searle of Kau who is nominated for sheriff, is a big man, who has grown up with the people and is the people's choice for election to the position which he now holds.

The supervisors and deputy sheriffs for the various districts have been chosen especially with reference to their merits as true and tried servants and capable business men.

BEFORE any further experiments are made with oil on the highways care should be taken that finished streets are selected for this purpose.

UNTIL the county law is "knocked out," the voters and citizens of this Territory will proceed to start the wheels of government in motion, just as though they are a part of the United States and the Governor did not mean what he said.

THERE was such a harmony in the Republican convention that the "fighting seventh" delegations from Kau buried the hatchet and listened with pleased countenances to the sweet harmony of the Hilo band Thursday evening.

THE failure of the Republican County Convention to deliver the usual gush over the Carter administration is only an echo of Carter's dislike of "gold bricks."

Now is the time to have your pianos tuned. Jack Bergstrom, the expert piano and organ tuner of Honolulu, is spending ten days in Hilo.

Wreck to be Sold. Jas. Robertson of Honolulu, representing the firm of C. Brewer & Co., agents for the Martha Davis, which was burned to the water's edge ten days ago, came to Hilo on Wednesday to inspect the wreck and to make arrangements for its disposal.

Capt. Macloon has made arrangements for a sale of the wreck at public auction next Thursday by Auctioneer Ray. The buyer will be required to remove the debris at his own cost, but this is not regarded by those who profess to know as a difficult task if dynamite is judiciously used.

Entertain at Cards. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peck entertained a small party of young people at cards last Tuesday evening, in honor of their daughter Emelie and Dr. Ormand Wall of Honolulu, whose nuptials are announced to take place in the fall.

A Continuous Tournament. At the annual meeting of Hilo Tennis Club May 11th, the following officers for the new year were elected:

President, Dr. H. B. Elliott; Captain, F. W. Thrum; Secretary and Treasurer, Sheffield Grace, and Executive Committee consisting of A. Humburg and Adam Lindsay.

Arrangements were made for a continuous tournament among the members, which is now in progress. Clever playing is being developed among the members, which promises some exciting contests in the open tournament announced for July 4th.

A Poi Supper. A delightful little poi supper was given at the Hapai residence on School street last Wednesday evening, at which Dr. Ormand Wall of Honolulu and Miss Emelie Peck were the guests of honor.

Opens a Laundry Agency. Bruce Hartman, representing the Sanitary Steam Laundry of Honolulu, arrived last week to look over the field for the establishment of a steam laundry in Hilo.

Struck Water at Olau. After boring to a depth of 240 feet, J. A. McCandless struck water at the Olau Mill last week. It was necessary to go 20 feet below sea level, but an ample supply of pure water was found, which will be used exclusively for the mill.
