RIGHT AT LAST.

Secretary Carter is disposing of the Chinese Fund in the only honest way open to him.

BAND ON FOURTH.

On general principles the Bulletin believes in giving Hilo what it asks for, but the request for the band this year is a little too much.

It is proper to remark that the Fourth of July in Hilo this year will be a proposition not to be sneezed at and an event well worthy of the presence of Berger and his band.

Those who are disposed to criticize the Fire Department of Hilo for lack of interest in their work should direct their attention to the apathy and indifference shown in other quarters.

The three hills just back of Hilo are the most prominent topographical features of the environs of the city.

The market for clean cotton rags at the TRIBUNE office has been struck by a panic.

To tell the truth it does not matter much why a representative of the Herald ceased to be secretary of the Allied Trades.

These troublesome details are for the information of our citizen readers that they may be enlightened regarding motives that sometimes surge through a patriotic bosom.

The work done by the fire fighters at the Volcano street fire Saturday morning speaks for itself.

THE Allied Trades should not lose sight of its opportunity to do good service to the community in the matter of making citizens.

THE report of E. E. Richards that the people of Kona are greatly interested in Hilo's plans to celebrate the Fourth should cause a redoubling of effort to give the people a time worth their trouble.

The much abused and scandalized fire engine proves to be alright when put to the test.

THE meeting next Tuesday night for the reorganization of the Fire Department should be attended by all citizens who have buildings and property, liable to go up in smoke.

THE rehearsals for the B. P. O. Elks minstrel show are being conducted regularly and the public will not be disappointed with the result at Spreckels' hall on the evenings of July 3 and 4.

THE observance of Decoration Day with services at the Hail Church Sunday evening should call out the entire patriotic people of the city.

HILO would like very much for Superintendent Cooper to spend some of that hurry up money in this vicinity.

Hilo's Soldier Graves. The list of soldiers dead who sleep in Hilo graves is as follows: GEORGE RICHARDSON, DR. SMITH, DR. NICHOLS, HUGH TENNANT, WM. ALSWORTH, ARCHIBALD MCCLALLAM, E. D. BARTLETT, J. D. MARLIN, DR. WETMORE, J. A. MARTIN.

The Truth of the Matter. The Herald yesterday stated that the S. S. Hawaii lost a boat at Papatikou. On its face this is an untruth, for the Hawaii is in the Dry Dock at Honolulu.

THE Hilo TRIBUNE charges that C. L. Clement had to resign from the office of secretary to the anti-Asiatic labor movement on account of pressure from the Japanese and their sympathizers.

TEACHERS UNION.

Final Meeting of the Year at Home of Miss Lyman.

The last meeting of the year of the Hilo Teachers' Union was held Tuesday evening at the home of F. S. Lyman. The program was listened to by about twenty teachers.

The committee on work for next year presented its report. The principal work will be in English History. English Literature will be studied contemporaneously with the history.

At the business session Tuesday night Miss Deyo was elected Chairman of the Circle and Miss Severance, Secretary.

Literature, Mr. Baptiste, Miss Yoder and Miss McCord.

Art, Dr. Wetmore and Mrs. Severance.

Education, Miss Coan. Current Events, Miss M. F. Potter and Miss Ellen Lyman.

After the work of the evening refreshments were served to all present.

The Million Dollars.

Honolulu, May 23.—Payment of the million dollars United States money appropriated by Congress to pay awards of the Fire Claims Commission began at the First National Bank of Hawaii this morning.

There was no hitch in the payment of claims other than a little difficulty over assignments early in the day. Treasury Agent W. F. MacLennan, however, made a decision which set the current running again with a comparative degree of smoothness.

An attorney occasionally appeared in the line, mostly composed, as it was, of Chinese. There were one or two large awards, ranging about the $15,000 figure, paid this morning.

Excellent Program at Hail Church Sunday Night.

The memory of departed old soldiers will be kept green in Hilo by appropriate ceremonies on Decoration Day. Sunday morning at the Foreign Church Rev. F. L. Nash will deliver the memorial sermon.

Sunday evening at the Hail Church will be held the regular Decoration Day exercises. The meeting will be presided over by Judge G. F. Little and an interesting program will be rendered.

The program will be as follows: Overture.....Hilo Band Song—"Angel of Peace".....H. B. S. Cadets Prayer.....Rev. F. L. Nash Music.....Choir "The Day and Its Memories".....Judge Little Patriotic Selection.....Hilo Band Recitation—"Salute to the Flag".....Mrs. A. G. Curtis Music.....Choir "Better Than They Knew".....Homer L. Ross Instrumental Music.....Mrs. J. T. Lewis Reading—"That Old Flag".....Mr. A. C. McKenney Song—"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground".....Double Male Quartette Reading—"The Last Salute".....Mrs. Willard S. Terry Music—"The Star Spangled Banner".....Band, Organ, Choir and Audience Benediction.....Rev. R. K. Baptiste Taps Postlude.....Organ

The members of the committee have arranged to decorate the graves in the cemetery Saturday afternoon. They will meet at the home of Miss Elvira Richardson on Church street with all who wish to participate in the strewing of flowers, and proceed to the cemetery. This observance will take on no formality this year.

FIRE VISITS HILO.

Lodging House on Volcano Street Almost Wiped Out.

Fire almost destroyed the lodging house on Volcano street belonging to Mrs. Ross last Friday night. The fire which was discovered a little after midnight, was stayed by the efforts of firemen, policemen and citizens before it did much damage to the new portion of the house.

The blaze was discovered by a Mr. McDonald, who ran at once and aroused Captain Brown, who resides across the street. Captain Brown turned in the alarm and after several minutes the hose carts in the hands of volunteers came upon the scene.

The first suspected cause of the fire was incendiary. Mrs. Ross had ejected a trio of strangers from her house the day before and these were arrested on suspicion. Subsequent investigation showed them able to prove an alibi and they were accordingly released.
