Local and Personal

--The C. C. is the leading family Grocer.

--Copies of the new School Law and of the State Constitution may be obtained of Hon. Will H. Gibson, Sec. State, Boise, Idaho, at 40c and 25c respectively.

--10c grade of outing flannel, 8c; 12c grade outing flannel, 10c. At Hollinger's.

--Honor L. Wilhelm, editor of "The Coast", a bright and interesting magazine, published at Seattle, was in Bonners Ferry on Monday and Tuesday, in the interest of his publication. He made this office a pleasant call. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilhelm.

--The ladies of Bonners Ferry should visit our Millinery Parlor before purchasing their winter Millinery. You will be sure to get a hat that is in style if you purchase of us. Come in and let us show you our goods.--Mrs. A. Branson.

--The finest line of men's wearables ever saw at Moore Bros.

--D. Davidson, optician, of Spokane, will visit this city Nov. 9 and 10, at Casey Hotel. He will be pleased to have your eyes examined, or any of your children free of charge. Call and see him at Casey Hotel.

--It is no trouble to keep clean if you buy your soap at Jones & Bishop's drug store.

--Col. A. B. Baines, of Spokane, stopped off here Thursday, on his way to Grouse Mountain to look after his mining interests.

--Nutt Bros. call your attention to their new jewelry. Everything in the jewelry line.

--Engineer Geo. Kendall, Fireman Bert Baden, and Mr. J. N. McCracken, were up to the Fisher Creek country in Montana this week to file locations on timber claims. They had a tramp in the woods of about 60 miles, and the way the big engineer tells about it, it might have been 160.

--The Coffee for Your Breakfast that will make your head clear and put you in condition to do a good day's work is Tillman & Bendel Coffee.--C. C. Mercantile Co.

--The Ferry Jewelry has moved into the K. P. Hall.

--We have the largest and most select line of candies in town. You take no chances when you buy candy from us, for we guarantee it to be absolutely fresh and pure--Jones & Bishop.

--Rev. A. R. Adams, formerly of the Alamo Colony, has rented Geo. H. Andrews' ranch, and will engage in the dairy business until some time next year, when he expects to return to the active ministry of the Christian Church. He is engaging in out-door life temporarily for the benefit of his health.

--The best fitting garments made are the famous "Banner Brand" goods. We have a nice line of the Banner shirt waists, skirts, cloaks, jackets, cravettes, undershirts. Examine these before making your purchases elsewhere as it will pay you. Hollinger's.

--Engineer Geo. Kendall went to Spokane on Thursday.

--Just think, a first class talking machine for $35.00 in Coupons.

--A balloon ascension last Sunday drew out a crowd of 800 people. Prof. Wilber made the ascension and went up until he was only a tiny speck in the sky. He came down safely in his parachute, although he landed in the top of a big pine tree about a half mile south of town. The O'Dell Balloon Co. will have Prof. Wilber make another ascension tomorrow.

--Harry Kinnear is having a four room cottage constructed in Riverside Addition, Muhlfield & Berger contractors. Harry will do the explaining.

--It is no trouble to break up a cold if you have a bottle of Jones & Bishop's White Pine Cough Syrup in the house. This is the time of the year that you can't afford to be without it.

--Don't pay $10 for a suit of clothes when you can buy one just as good from Tom Hollinger for $7.50. And our line of boys' suits from $2.50 up are world-beaters at the price. Investigate at Hollinger's.

--Mrs. F. Gled is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Herman Salschieder in Spokane. The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Salschieder and Miss Grace Gled came as a great surprise, they having been married last December, while the announcement to their friends and relatives came only a couple of weeks ago. The marriage took place in Seattle. Both parties have many friends here and are highly respected, and all wish them happiness.
