

Stop and Consider these Facts!

You will find by Trading with us that We are

The Headquarters

For Everything in the Line of

Hardware & Groceries

We enjoy the Largest Trade in the Country, and always have a Large and Complete Stock on hand.

If We Can help You

Save $50 to $100

Of your Yearly Salary or Daily Wages on your Purchases, Why should we not interest you? If you are not already a Customer of ours

JOIN OUR PROCESSION FOR 1906

We maintain the Highest Standard of Quality. All Heavy Goods, we

We Buy in Car Lots

and can Positively give our Customers the advantage of

BETTER GOODS —AND— LOWER PRICES

Than can be had where goods are bought in smaller quantities.

The Bonner Mercantile Co., Ltd, Bonners Ferry.

J. W. McKNIGHT,
Proprietor.

M. COMSTOCK,
Manager.

HOTEL CASEY

Leading Hotel of Bonners Ferry

WHOLE SALE AND RETAIL
WINES, LIQUORS, CIGARS

BONNERS FERRY,

IDAHO.

THE Idaho Market

FITZPATRICK BROS., Props.

BONNERS FERRY, IDAHO

Fresh and Cured Meats Fish, Poultry and Sausages.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR STOCK. GIVE US A CALL

E. L. NUTT

H. W. NUTT

CRESCENT STORE

— DEALERS IN —

GROCERIES AND CONFECTIONERIES

Try Our Choice Family Groceries.

JEWELRY

WE CARRY A FULL LINE OF CLOCKS, WATCHES, AND JEWELRY.

REPAIR WORK
A SPECIALTY

ALL WORK GUARANTEED
BONNERS FERRY, IDAHO

The Club

Wm. HART, Proprietor.

AGENCY FOR

The Celebrated Green River Whisky

High-Grade Whiskies, Imported and Domestic Wines, Gin and Cigars.

BILLIARDS AND POOL

Bonners Ferry, Idaho.

The best Brands of Liquors and Wines

AT THE

'WHITE CARIBOU BAR'

Choice Cigars always on Hand

Shade's Beer on Draught

F. C. Fisher, Prop.

Local and Personal

—“Pfister is coming!” See page 3.
—See Hollingers big bargain counter.

—Go to Farnam & Johnson's new shop for first class blacksmithing and horseshoeing. Work guaranteed. Experienced workmen. If —The Electric Light Co. has authorized Neal Wertemberger to wire for them and make rates for lighting. Persons desiring to install lights can consult him in relation to the same.

—James McGreevey, superintendent of timber work for the Bonners Ferry Lumber Co., reports work progressing very nicely in the company's logging camps, there not being too much snow to interfere with operations

—We still have ladies' shopping bags left still going at just half price, at Hollingers.

—“Pfister is coming!” See page 3.
George Kendall, the K. V. engineer, has taken a two-months layoff. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall will move back to their home in Spokane, leaving the latter part of the month. Engineer McDermott of the main line has taken Mr. Kendall's run.

—It will interest you to know that the 1906 styles in men's clothing are a decidedly new departure.
Learn about them at Moore Bros.

—C. A. Nutt, a brother of the Nutt Bros., is a recent arrival in Bonners Ferry, coming from Argyle, Minn. Mr. Nutt is an assayer by profession.

—The few Christmas goods left over are being sold at just half price at Hollingers.

—G. R. Gray, manager of the C.
C. Mercantile Co., went to Spokane
Monday, returning Tuesday.

—Mrs. T. A. Bishop left Tuesday for Spokane and Rathdrum, on business. She returns today.

—Farnam & Johnson have opened a first class blacksmith shop next to their feed stable, with an experienced blacksmith in charge. Give them a call. If

—“Pfister is coming!” See page 3.

—Figure with the Bonner Mercantile Co. for your winter supply of Provisions and Groceries. We are the largest buyers of this class of goods in Northern Idaho and can save you money.

—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gillon returned from Spokane Tuesday, and left by sleigh for their ranch at Round Prairie.

—When you get one of Moore's excellent premiums, you share their profits, See?

—The Coffee for Your Breakfast that will make your head clear and put you in condition to do a good day's work is Tillman & Bendel Coffee.—C. C. Mercantile Co.

—The snow in the Pack River country is so deep that logging operations are practically suspended, there being about 5 feet on the level. In the Kootenai Valley the snow is pronounced just right for logging.

—“Pfister is coming!” See page 3.

—Mrs. Geo. H. Gray, mother of Mrs. Jas. McGreevey and Mrs.
J. E. Howe, and Mrs. J. D. Bonar, a sister of Mrs. McGreevey and Mrs. Howe leave today for their home in Washington, after visiting the McGreeveys and Howes for several weeks.

—Come in and see our new stock of hats - Latest styles.—C. C. Merc.
Co.

—Mrs. P. H. Callahan won the chocolate set at the drawing at the K. T. Co. store. Chance No. 13 won the prize, notwithstanding all the superstitious notions about its being an unlucky number.

—Another big shipment of men's and boys' shoes just landed at the Men's Shop.

—When you get Shilling's Tea,
Shilling's Coffee, Shilling's Baking Powder, Shilling's Extracts, you get what you want. If you don't get what you want, you get your money back. At the C. C. Merc. Co.

—Conductor G. P. Towne will resume his run on the Kootenai Valley Railway, commencing next Tuesday. Mr. Towne has been incapacitated for duty for about three months, owing to an injury to his knee, while jumping from the coach at Cope and. His many friends will be glad to note that he has so far recovered as to be able to report for duty.

—“Pfister is coming!” See page 3.

—The new blacksmith shop, next to Farnam & Johnson's feed stable, wishes to demonstrate the quality of their work, by a trial job.

—Jack Fletcher was in from Naples yesterday. He has been with Louis Popp's establishment for the past six months.

—“Pfister is coming!” See page 3.

Go to Moore's for clothes; they are in the clothing business from Dear Sir, to Yours Truly.

—Mrs. Wm. Hart went to Spokane Tuesday night, accompanied by her son Charles, to attend the graduating exercises of the Spokane High school. Her daughter, Miss May Hart, is a member of the graduating class. Mr. Hart went to Spokane also on Thursday, the exercises occurring Thursday evening.

There are shoes and shoes, but the Hamilton-Brown Co.'s shoe leads them all, carried by the C. C.
Mercantile Co. The new stock is just in and opened up. Buy your shoes at the C. C. Co.'s.

—The prospect of a liquor famine was materially relieved this week by the arrival at the Club of the largest cask of whiskey that ever came to Bonners Ferry. William Hart, the proprietor, states that it contained 321 gallons and weighed 3089 pounds. It was shipped from a bonded warehouse, and is high grade goods.

—Agent for the best laundry in town. If you want your laundry done first-class, leave it at the Hotel Bonner Barber Shop.—E. C.
Day, Prop.

—W. F. Jones returned Wednesday from Wisconsin, where he had been on business. He reports a heavy snow fall in that state, and says the mercury registered 27 below zero while he was there.

—Herbert McNamara had the misfortune to break his leg, above the knee, while coasting, last Wednesday. Dr. E. E. Fry was called to attend the case. The patient is getting along as well as could be expected.

—Lost—One muley cow, brindle color, branded with circle on left side. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of such estray, will kindly inform, W. J. HOAGLAND, 25-11
Bonners Ferry.

—Harry Melder, representing the Spokane Piano House, reports the sale of a fine organ to Pele Parker. Anyone wishing a piano or organ should consult Mr. Mel-der. He will save you $50 to $100 on a first class instrument, such as the Mason & Hamlin, Kroeger, Kurtzmann, and Kohler & Campbell.

—Snow! This is the season when quality counts in shoes. The Bonner Mercantile Co. sell the kind with quality, and the price is always right.

—The railroads are having more or less trouble with snow. Several wrecks are reported this week on the Great Northern. The only one very serious was the wreck of the east bound local freight Wednesday night. It struck a snow slide just east of Newport and the engine and several cars went down the bank, almost into the Pend d' Oreille River. No one was hurt.

—Thos. A. Hooker went to Rathdrum Thursday on business at the county seat, returning yesterday.

—E. S. Moore, the popular salesman for T. J. Hollinger, went to Spokane on Wednesday, to order goods for Hollinger's department store.

Big Sacrifice Sale of ladies' skirts, jackets, shirt waists, furs, Also children's long and short jackets must be sold regardless of cost, at Hollingers.

—The entertainment given by the Epworth League last evening was well patronized. The supper was fine and a delightful musical program was rendered.

—Miss Ethel Rickerd and cousin, Miss Myrta Rickerd, were in Sandpoint during the week to attend the Lee-Yoder wedding.

—Carl Landquist received a serious injury last Tuesday while working with the engineers. He had ascended a ladder to mark a point on a pile, when the ladder slipped and he fell, spraining both ankles, and breaking a bone in both ankles. The injury is very painful. Mr. Landquist is a nephew of Mrs. C. D. Rowell and Mrs. Saumel Covert.

Lee-Yoder.

—Miss Laura Phillips, daughter of Mrs. H. S. Lee of Sandpoint, and Samuel G. Yoder, of this place, were married at the home of the bride's parents in Sandpoint, last Wednesday, Rev. Harris, of the Presbyterian church performing the ceremony. About 30 guests were present.

Bonners Ferry Local to be Pulled off
A new time card on the G. N.
Ry goes into effect tomorrow morning, Jan. 21.

The Bonners Ferry Local, pasenger, is to be pulled off.

Under the new card, trains Nos.
2 and 3 pass at Bonners Ferry at 1:30 a. m. No. 1 goes west at 3:30
a. m., and No. 4 goes east at 12:25
a. m.

FREE

A Free Brass Mantle Clock!

With $30 in Cash Coupons.

Free Standard Graphophone!

With $35 in Cash Coupons.

at Moore Bros Men's Shop.

We Divide the Profits with our Customers. See?

MODEL CAFE

THE HOTEL CASEY

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

MRS. L. E. LEWMAN, Proprietress

We Employ Only White Labor

Try our Regular 35c Dinner, from 5 to 8 p. m.

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

Only First Class Cafe in the City

CITY MEAT MARKET

HUSCRO-T & BENNEY, PROPS.

Meats, Poultry and Fish

Cash paid for Veal, Hogs and Poultry.

MAIN STREET, BONNERS FERRY, IDA.

Latest Fall Styles
Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Domestic and Imported
WOOLENS

WALDEN BROS., Merchant Tailors

Cleaning and Repairing
Neatly Done

Bonners Ferry,
Idaho.

Embalming!

H. E. HUNT
Sandpoint, - - Idaho

The Only Licensed Embalmer in Northern Idaho. Services can be procured through.

W. A. Alexander, - - Bonners Ferry

—We have big bargains to offer you this week in ladies' Odd Vests, ladies' and Misses hosiery, shirt waists, etc., at Hollingers.

JOHN MUELFELD, CHARLES BERGER.

M. & B. CARPENTER SHOP

Contractors
And Builders.

Carpenter Work of all Kinds Estimates Furnished.

—When you think of the most stylish and serviceable clothes your money can buy, think of Moore Bros.