EDITORIAL NOTES.

Heyburn and the Newspapers.

The unfriendliness of the newspapers towards Senator Heyburn is a fact that was recently emphasized by the Senator himself in a speech on the floor of the senate, by complaint of his treatment at the hands of the newspapers. While the HERALD cordially supports Senator Heyburn for the splendid work he is doing in congress, and has extolled, and does extol, his splendid qualities as a United States Senator, we are free to confess that there are grievous reasons why many newspaper men have no love for the Senator personally. The Senator has always been contemptuous of newspaper men. It was of no consequence to him that the hardworking party newspapers preached the gospel week in and week out, year in and year out—it was only Mr. Heyburn, who devoted his attention to the subject for a few weeks in the closing days of a campaign, who was, in Mr. Heyburn's judgment, entitled to any credit. He has time and again been heard to speak disparagingly of the newspapers in the state councils of his party. There are many complaints that he has not given them the consideration they deserved since his election to the United States Senate. The Boise Statesman's case is an instance. The Statesman has been a tremendous factor for Republican success. It would not have hurt Senator Heyburn to have given the proprietor of that paper some consideration in making appointments in that city. It seems that the only thing he gave the Statesman was the marble heart. Newspaper men are patient and long-suffering, but as a rule they are pretty well on to their job. They occupy an important place in the world, whether the fact is always appreciated at the time or not, and usually have the dig ity and independence to sustain their position. No man is perfect, and this little fault of the Senator is of small importance compared to his distinguished public services, but if some of his newspaper constituency "dig in" to him good and strong at times, he will pardon us in stating in their behalf that in our judgment he ought not to complain.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF HON. ROBT. N. BELL, STATE MINE INSPECTOR, FOR 1905, HAS REACHED OUR DESK.

It is a book of 150 pages, replete with valuable information relative to the mining resources of Idaho, and containing a number of forceful and original observations by the inspector. The report is not, however, very valuable nor accurate as relates to North Kootenai. But one mine is mentioned in this region—the Continental, while the Moyie district, with the Buckhorn group and mill is entirely omitted. An error that does not look good to Bonnerr's Ferry is contained in a map showing the railroad situation in this county. It represents the Spokane & International Railway running on a line four or five miles east of Bonnerr's Ferry. As the road is graded through the town, and was definitely located six months before the book was published, it is rather an aggravating error.

HEYBURN IS OPPOSED.

Does not favor Nomination of Candidates for U. S. Senators.

From our Washington Correspondent.

The question of the method of nominating and electing United States Senators is one that is causing widespread discussion by the press of the country and by the leading thinkers and writers. A great many of the states follow the original plan of leaving the whole matter, both of nominating and electing senators exclusively to the state legislature, while some of the states have prepared for selecting the party nominee for the senate by a primary law.

PROTESTS AGAINST FOREST RESERVES

are being signed by everyone throughout Northern Idaho and Western Montana, to whom a paper is being presented. It is alright, but it will have no more effect than if presented to a wooden Indian in front of a tobacco store. The first thing to be done is to get next to the enemies of North Idaho, in Idaho—such as Senator Dubois who hopes to be "taken care of" at the end of his senatorial term by President Roosevelt, and who cordially supports any old forest reserve policy that makes him solid with Pinchot; also, the Boise Statesman which is Bourbon in its opposition to anything favored by Senator Heyburn, because it could not secure recognition in relation to some federal appointments, and which, for the sake of discrediting Mr. Heyburn, opposes anything the Senator favors, and supports a forest reserve policy in North Idaho in order to be fernist Heyburn.

SENATOR HEYBURN HAS SO FAR RECOVERED FROM HIS RECENT ILLNESS

as to be able to resume his place in the Senate. The Senator is working under a very great strain. In his efforts to prevent the establishment of vast forest reserves in North Idaho, he has been, alert adversaries at Washington and enemies at home. Besides this fight, he is working hard to secure the passage of the pure food bill, a measure that has the antagonism of all the fakirs of the country that try to wrk off unclean and unhealthful food products. The Senator is working hard for the best interests of his constituents and should have their enthusiastic support.

CHAIRMAN BRADY OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE has called that body to meet at Boise on Wednesday, March 14. The purpose of the meeting is to fix the time and place for the meeting of the next Republican state convention, and apportion the delegates thereto from the various counties. It is probably, also, that the question of nominating a candidate for U. S. Senator will come up in some form, as those favoring the plan will undoubtedly ask that that matter be included in the call.

THE DEPOSITORY LAW.

The laws passed by the eighth session of the legislature are the pride of the administration. The state depository law, which was one of the measures whose enactment was most strongly urged by Governor Gooding, has fully met the expectation of friends. At present there is $330,000 of state money loaned to the banks within the state. For the first time this money is proving a source of revenue to the state. At present the earnings of the people's money will be $8,000 to $10,000 a year and the money is all kept within the confines of the state. The office is now more than self sustaining, as will be every county treasury in Idaho when the county commissioners comply with the county depository law, also passed at the eighth session. The passage and enforcement of these laws not only will reduce the burden of taxation, but it will remove one of the most deplorable features in our political life in the past the activity of banks in political campaigns.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

GINSENG

Information Relating to the Richest Product of the Soil.

Prof. Howard of the Missouri State Agricultural College says: "I advise American farmers to cultivate Ginseng. Big profits are realized. It is easily grown." A bulletin by the Pennsylvania State College says: "The supply of native Ginseng root is rapidly diminishing and the price per pound is correspondingly increasing, while the constant demand for the drug in China stands as a guarantee of a steady market for Ginseng in the future." American Consul General Wildman at Hong Kong writes: "There will be little difficulty in disposing on this coast of all the Ginseng that is grown in America.

GINSENG IS A STAPLE ON THE MARKET

the same as corn, wheat and cotton. The present market price varies from $6.00 to $8.00 per pound, while the cost of production is less than $1.50. There is room in one's garden to grow several hundred dollars worth each year. The plant can be grown throughout the United States and Canada in any soil or climate that will grow ordinary garden vegetables. There are two planting seasons, spring or fall.

We are buyers and exporters of the dried product, and grow roots and seeds for planting purposes. Let us show you how to make money growing Ginseng. You can get a practical start in the business for a small outlay and soon have a nice income. Send two cent stamp today for our illustrated literature telling all about it.
