THE ASSASSINS IN THE TOILS

Charged with the Conspiracy that caused s- sassinatio of Former Governor Steunenberg

"The operations of the Mollie Maguires in Pennsylvania, whom I ran to earth and disrupted were children's play compared with the work of the Moyer-Heywood crowd. They have existed for 18 years, but their days are numbered."

"Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone will never see Colorado again.
We have absolute evidence that will convict them of complicity in the four assassination of former Governor Steunenberg and evidence that will convict a great many others, too, of the same offense. They can not escape in any possible way, and the legal knowledge of all their attorneys can not keep them from the gallows. You can say for me that the day of dynamite outrages in the west is at an end."—Detective James McParland.

On inside pages of the HERALD will be found the particulars of the arrest of the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with complicity in the assassination of former Governor Steunen-berg, and other mysterious crimes.

The best detectives in the world have been working on the case, and the result of their labors is outlined in the above words of Detective James McParland, the veteran who exterminated the "Mollie Maguire-cs".

The leading points in the case, aside that given on another page, are that Harry Orchard has confessed, acknowledging that he sprung the machine that hurled Frank Steunenberg into eternity; that Moyer and Heywood conspired with him to that end; that he had accomplices with him in Caldwell to plan the assassination; that a

MASQUERADE POSTPONED

The Anniversary Masquerade Ball, announced to take place last Monday evening, Feb. 26, was called off, owing to the death of one of our pioneer townsmen.

The Knights of Pythias have postponed the event until Tuesday evening, Feb. 27, that being the last date before the Lent season commences.

The New Bank.

The First State Bank of Bonners Ferry will be opened for business during the coming week, according to the plans of the officers. The building is being remodeled by Muhlfeld & Berger.

The officers of the bank will be as follows:

J. I. Monks, President.
W. P. Mahoney, Vice President.
W. D. Baxter, Cashier.
A. E. Riekerd and F. T. Moore, with the three above mentioned, constitute the board of directors.
Cashier Baxter arrived last Saturday, and is getting matters in readiness for opening.

Porthill Wedding.

PORTHILL, Ida., Feb. 17, 06.—A very pretty and quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Olds, near Porthill, at which our young and popular bachelor, Andrew Robinson, was united in marriage to Sarah E. Ingram, formerly of Gentry, Mo. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life. The ceremony was performed by H. A. French, J.
P., of Boundary precinct.

Opposition to Reserve.

A. J. Kent is preparing a plat showing the character of lands in the proposed Cabinet reserve adjacent to Bonners Ferry. In connection with this work he proposes to gather affidavits from settlers within the proposed boundaries, all of which will be forwarded to Senator Heyburn to aid him in his righteous fight against wholesale withdrawals of public lands for forest reserves.

Mr. Kent is taking this matter up at the request of settlers, and every settler in the proposed reserve, or the proposed Priest River extension, should call at his office and furnish the information needed.

—Our store is headquarters for stationery of all kinds. Jones & Bishop.

part of his confession has been verified by the finding of infernal machines placed to destroy other men, placed where he said they would be found.

In addition to the Orchard confession, other corroborative evidence has come to light. Letters between Heywood and Moyer and others of the organization have been intercepted which, it is said, implicate the accused men in a most damaging manner.

The detectives claim other equally strong evidence against the accused that will only be made public when the trial comes off.

The federation prisoners were taken to Caldwell on Wednesday to give a preliminary trial. A special grand jury will be called and asked to indict these men.

The case certainly looks dark for the accused.

HUSH MONEY AT SANDPOINT

Whitaker Says Gamblers Pay $50 a Month Protection

The following sensational statements appear in the Spokesman-Review of Feb. 22:

SANDPOINT, Idaho, Feb. 21.—In the council last evening W. F.
Whitaker accused Dr. Page the mayor with entering into an agreement with the gamblers whereby they were to pay $50 per month to Sheriff Joust of Kootenai county and he was to keep his hands off of them. Hot words were exchanged, and the affair might have gone further, but for the fact that the other members of the council promptly adjourned the meeting.

Hill-Wertenberger.

A very happy wedding occurred on Wednesday evening, Feb. 21, the contracting parties being Miss Grace Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill, and Cornelius Wertenberger, son of Mr and Mrs.
John Wertenberger, Rev. R. C.
Moter of the M. E. Church performing the ceremony.

The happy couple will reside in the Morrow residence, on Cottage Ave. They are the recipients of a great many congratulations in which the HERALD joins.

Register R. N. Dunn Here.

Register R. N. Dunn, of the U.S.
Land Office, was in town Thursday.
He took advantage of the holiday to visit North Kootenai and feel the public pulse relative to his candidacy for district judge. Mr.
Dunn frankly avows his candidacy.
He put in the few hours here making the acquaintance of as many as possible, and left on the night train for Coeur d'Alene.

Lewman Mandle.

MARRIED—Mr. S. E. Mandle and Mrs. L. E. Lewman were united in holy matrimony at the Hotel Casey parlor on Sunday evening, Feb. 18, 1906, by Justice of the Peace A. J. Kent. Mr and Mrs.
Mandle went east as far as Great Falls and Helena, Mont. They expect to locate in Bonners Ferry and make that their future home here. Mr. and Mrs. Mandle are the popular proprietors of the Model Cafe. The HERALD wishes them success and happiness.

Death of H. L. Carlton.

Henry L. Carlton, a prominent and pioneer citizen of Bonners Ferry, passed to his final rest, on Thursday at 1 p. m. The death of Mr. Carlton was not unexpected.
He has been failing since last May when he was compelled to relinquish his position as town marshal.
His death was due to Bright's descent, and complications resulting therefrom. About two years ago he had a slight attack of paralysis.
Last November he had a very severe attack, and the third and fatal attack came the evening before his death, and from which he never regained consciousness. The end was peaceful. His great physical vitality was shown by the fact that he was able to walk up town the evening before his death, though otherwise it was plain to be seen that life was fast nearing its last ebb.

Henry L. Carlton was born in Louisville, Kentucky, and was 68 years of age on January 10. He was married Oct. 30, 1902, to Miss Mary Kelley, of this place. Except the bereaved wife, he has no known near relatives living.

The deceased has been prominent in politics in Kootenai county and has held a number of political positions. He was Deputy Sheriff under Sheriffs Pease and Bradbury.
He served as state land selector under Governor Hunt. He held a number of local positions, and was serving as town Marshal when taken ill. He was uncompromising in his political contests, and was usually successful, and fulfilled his duties honestly, vigorously and with ability. He was loyal to his friends and unrelenting with an adversary.

His was a strong character and he will be greatly missed in the community, where his loss will be mourned.

Disagreeable the child may be.

Do not forget that the parent owes a duty to the teacher just as surely as the teacher does to the child.—Alice Cook Fuller.

DISAPPOINTMENT.

Have you met with disappointments, friend of mine?
Do not give way to grieving or repine; Sombre clouds will flee away,
There will come a brighter day, When the golden beams of pleasure round you shine.

We can never have all pleasures on this earth:
Man must have grief in his measure from his birth.
Still your lot is not so bad,
There are others far more sad, Grief and joy are bound together with a girth.

Put your foot upon your trouble with a will,
If your grief it seems to double, keep it still,
Do not let the old world know That your heart is filled with woe, And the warmth of others' joy will break the chill.

We should never grieve o'er troubles that have passed:
For this mortal life is fleeting oh! so fast.
And there's no use to be sad; While we're living, let's be glad,
For the ground will one day claim us at the last.

—A. R. ADAMS, Copeland, Idaho.

School Notes.

The newly elected officers of the literary society are: Mary McNear, President; Pearl Fisher, Vice-President; Mamie Beeler, Secretary; Phoebe Boileau, Vivian Hollinger and Jack Van Gasken, Program Committee.

Vivian Hollinger was out of school three days last week on account of sickness.

Pullman Va. Gasken is behind the counter in his father's store this week.

The following clipping from a newspaper, "Some Douts for Parents" is worth considering:
Do not believe all that your children tell you about school. There was only one George Washington and he is dead.

Do not tell the teacher that Willie will not lie. She probably knows better.

Do not condemn the teacher without a fair hearing. That is accorded even the worst criminal. There are usually two sides to a story.

Do not send a scathing note to the teacher by Nellie, the contents of which she knows. Her aggressive look of triumph is not soothing, and the teacher is only human.

Do not make unfavorable comment upon the methods of the teacher in the presence of your child.
Send him to carry in the wood while you are doing so, if it must be done.

Do not reproach the teacher with the fact that "Tommy has not learu-ed a single thing the entire year", She is not responsible for his lack of brains.

Do not send a verbal request to have Jessie's seat changed. There is often a vacant seat, and one change usually means at least half a dozen.

Do not expect the teacher to manage without friction a child whom you yourself have never been able to control.

Do not insist that the teacher is keeping your child back through spite. She will hardly risk her reputation as an instructor to gratify a personal grudge, however
