Local Mention

Mrs. Walter Cook is visiting at the Harsh ranch, on Red river, this week.

Mrs. B. C. Austin entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hillier and Dr. and Mrs. Davis at dinner Sunday.

Elk creek valley has now taken on its coat of green, and go where you will, you cannot find a more entrancing spot.

Get one of those new maps of Central Idaho and send it to your friends. It will tell anyone the history of this great mining country.

The district court meets Monday. It is stated that the calendar is very small, there not being over five or six criminal cases on the docket.

O. C. Lapp, the merchant, came into town Sunday, from the Ten Mile country, where he has been looking after some business interests.

Wm. Schlotterbeck is back from a trip to the Red River Hot springs. He reports the springs as delightful and invigorating as ever, and anticipates another trip in the summer.

An alarm of fire was given Sunday morning, and the fire brigade turned out to find that a small blaze had started in the roof of M. H. Perry's home. It was quickly extinguished.

Several of our enterprising citizens are in the chicken business for good this year, and a number have "biddies" now running around. Mrs. M. A. Parr has a fine lot of Rhode Island reds, and more hatching.

The map just issued by the Mining News is a good advertising medium of Central Idaho. Price $1.

For Sale—Eggs for hatching, from choice thoroughbred, rose comb, White Leghorns, $2.00 for 15.

FORFEITURE NOTICE.

To Rube Wells, your heirs, executors, administrators and assigns:

You are hereby notified that I have expended during the year 1911, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) in labor and improvements upon each of the following named lode claims, situate in Orogrande Mining District, Idaho county, State of Idaho: the Emma No. 1 and the Emma No. 2, of which the location certificates are found of record in book 51 of Mining Claims, pages 589 and 590 respectively, of the records of Idaho county, in the office of the recorder of said county in order to hold said claims under the provisions of section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and the amendment thereto approved January 12, 1880, concerning annual labor upon mining claims, being the amount required to hold said lode claims for the period ending on the 31st day of December, A. D. 1911. And if within ninety days from the personal service of this notice or within ninety days after the publication thereof, you fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of such expenditure as a co-owner, your interest in the claims will become the property of the subscriber, your co-owner who has made the required expenditure by the terms of said section.
