Fine Wheat

John Vanderwall, who lives on the Bauleh ranch, six miles west of town, bought to town two bundles of as fine a wheat as we have seen this fall. The wheat was over six feet tall and well filled heads. The two bundles were shipped out the first of the week to Spokane where they will be on exhibit as an advertisement of the Camas Prairie.

Resolution of Condolence.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst during the past few days Sister Elsie Jack, a member of Mezpah Lodge No. 12, Grangeville, Idaho Be it Resolved, That it is our sad duty to mourn the loss of our beloved sister; and may it be further resolved that while we are made doubly and by looking at her vacant chair and for her generous expression of sympathy and kindness, we bow in humble submission to God. And cause our Charter to be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days in memory of her.

Be it also Resolved, That we tender our deepest sympathy to her bereaved husband and pray that God may sustain and comfort him, and that he and we may think of her not as dead but asleep in Jesus. Be it Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our lodge, a copy sent to her husband, and a copy printed in the Idaho Odd Fellow, and in the city papers.

Respectfully submitted,

Gertrude Vincent, Barbara Pfeufer, Eva Overman, Committee.

Mr. Tom W. Bales in Free Press. Sept. 24, '08, States:—"Our honest opinion is that we can save from $3.00 to $5.00 per acre with our combine ('08 Holt) over the work of any binder or stationary rig we have ever put in the field. Every combine that comes on the Prairie will have the effect of increasing the value of the land by making it possible to make more money off every acre farmed."
