WEAVER-PAYNE

Witnests Wedding at Congregational Church.

One of the most impressive and important functions ever witnessed in Mountain Home society circles occurred on Wednesday, March 29, 1905, at the Congregational church, when Mr. Lawrence J. Weaver and Miss Mabel L. Payne were united in marriage by Rev. C. E. Mason. The Episcopal ring ceremony was used, beginning promptly at 12 o'clock noon.

The groom is the nephew of Gen. and Mrs. J. L. Weaver of Boise. He is interested with his uncle in the gold dredging operations at Grandview on the Snake. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Payne. She is a member of the Eastern Star Grand Chapter, and prominent in club and society circles.

Benjamin Grier and Charles R. Harris ushered the wedding party to the altar, which, with the choir loft, contained masses of drooping palms and potted plants. Miss Estella Robinson presided at the organ, rendering Lohengrin's beautiful bridal march. Frank Hobbs was the groom's best man, the bridesmaids being Miss Dona Harris and Miss Gertrude Mellen. Miss Minnie Tanner was the maid of honor. The flower girl, Rachel Weaver, was a dainty little fairy in white. She accompanied Master Elvill Wilkins, who bore a budding rose, the wedding ring lying in the midst of the fragrant petals.

After the wedding a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, where, from 2:30 until 5 p. m., many guests were entertained. At 7:14 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver took the east-bound train for Salt Lake City and other points, returning Sunday.

TURNER HOUSE

New Management Assumes Charge Saturday, April 1.

The Turner House, which has been under the management of A. Du Fresnoe for the past two years, has been secured by J. L. Bradford & Co., the change taking effect on April 1.

Extensive alterations and improvements are to be made at once throughout the entire building, each department undergoing thorough renovation. Additional furnishings will be put in and the service systematized by the addition of attractive and up to date conveniences.

Mr. Bradford is from Crookston, Minn., where he was engaged in realty and similar operations. He arrived in Mountain Home about Feb. 10 with a party of other gentlemen who were looking around for attractive investments. Deciding to become one of us, he went back to Crookston to arrange a number of business affairs, returning here about two weeks ago.

To Return Soon.

L. A. Underwood on Friday received a letter from C. E. Miller stating that he and his family would leave Murphysboro, Ill., about April 10 on their return trip to Mountain Home. Last November, it will be remembered, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children left Pine for a short visit to their former home in the east. They came here on account of the health of the little ones, having lost a child about three years ago. Their home visit proved to be unusually sad, death claiming two more children—3 year-old Bessie and 1-year-old Theodore breathing their last within less than an hour and a half, on February 16. One daughter now remains to the bereaved parents—Viola, about 11 years old.

Ernest D. Nichols of Pennsylvania will speak in Mountain Home the 25th.

"TOPP'S TWINS"

Pupils of the High School Do Themselves Proud.

"They came, they saw, they—" loaded up with shekels. Silver and gold and currency, took they, to the number of many ducats. They were the whole thing last Friday night at the opera house. Nearly everybody was there, and was glad of it. This was manifest by the encouraging applause which greeted the boys and girls of the High School who, individually and collectively, entered into the formation of "Topp's Twins."

The young folks did themselves proud, each and all of them; and more especially when it is remembered that they had very little time in which to rehearse their parts. They began about one month ago, meeting twice for practice the first week and three times a week afterward until the date fixed for the play—about eleven rehearsals in all.

The receipts totaled to $141.75 which will probably leave the boys over $100 clear with which to purchase a baseball outfit.

The boys are under great obligations to the girls, who so ably assisted in the venture. The former realize this, and, in token of their appreciation, the young ladies were given an outing last Sunday, Mrs. J. W. Niekirk chaperoning the party to Canyon Creek. Those participating were James Pence, Ed Manion, Wm. Wells, Albert Marhofer, Joe Longfellow, Robert Chattin, Ethel Bennett, Rose Nelson, Chrissie Mahoney, Mabel Lyon.

SMALL FIRE

Discovered and Extinguished Before Making Headway.

Smoke was seen issuing from the roof of Goddard's saloon Saturday afternoon. No blaze could be seen and it required considerable search to locate the seat of the fire.

A crowd quickly gathered, forming a bucket, axe and ladder brigade. Quite a stiff breeze was blowing, and had the fire gained much headway it is doubtful if any building in the block could have been saved—at any rate between the alley and Front street.

The fire was found to be in a sawdust-filled partition, where a door had recently been cut through and other alterations made. After being located it was extinguished without difficulty. How it originated is not known.

DROWNED

Fatal Accident To Former Mountain Home Man.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., April 2.—A. B. Clark, a prominent merchant of this city and formerly a well known resident of Idaho, was drowned today in Silver Lake, thirty miles east of Bellingham, by the capsizing of a small boat from which he was fishing.

Mr. Clark came to Mountain Home in 1891 with Dr. J. E. Harper and a number of others from Chicago, where he was a prominent Mason. The party arrived here when the reservoir was in process of construction, coming to inspect the country.

The following year Mr. Clark settled here, taking an active interest in political and all public matters, especially local issues. Through Dr. Harper he was closely connected with irrigation projects. He organized and had charge of the Fruitdale Co. He was the owner of the fruit ranch bordering on the east side of town, known as the Clark place; also the property where W. J. Turner now lives.

Mr. Clark was principal organizer and first Master of the Masonic lodge here, and a Past Grand Master of the state. He left Mountain Home in the summer of 1898, going to Olympia, Wash., where he assumed the management of the Fair, a large department store. Two years later, his associates disposing of their interests, Mr. Clark went to New Whatcom (now Bellingham) to assume similar duties in connection with the same gentlemen, where he remained until his death.

Mr. Clark is survived by a widow, a very estimable and highly cultured lady, who has the respect of all who know her, and three children, the oldest a girl about 10 years of age.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Annual Convention to be Held Here Next June.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Idaho Sunday school association held in Boise the annual convention of the association was dated for Mountain Home, June 13, 14 and 15. The opening exercises will be held on the evening of June 13, leaving two clear days for the actual work of the convention.

The executive board consists of Rev. W. H. Bowler of Shoshone and B. H. McGrew and E. C. Cook of Boise. Mrs. E. C. Cook, chairman; B. H. McGrew, S. M. Kepner, Mrs. A. J. Swain, Dean Hinks of St. Michaels and Miss Anna Etheridge constitute the committee on program.

An auxiliary program committee will assist the regular committee in its work, its members exerting themselves in their several localities to secure the assent of Sunday school workers to assignments to be made by the regular committee. It is hoped in this way to save much valuable time and to assure a solidly and well prepared program in which there shall occur no lapses at the last moment.

The following have been named to serve on this auxiliary committee: Wm. Lindsay, Idaho Falls; C. H. Witty, Pocatello; Percy Jones, Blackfoot; Rev. Edward Pratt, Shoshone; Mrs. W. F. Prescott, Nampa; Rev. C. E. Helman, Caldwell; Rev. H. A. Lee, Weiser; Mrs. C. E. Brainard, Payette; H. E. Crutcher, Emmett; Rev. C. H. Harney, Hailey; Mrs. Millie E. Longfellow, Mountain Home; Mrs. J. M. Spackman, Twin Falls; Fred French, New Plymouth; Mrs. F. J. Duncan, Minidoka; Rev. J. M. Hixon, Sweet; Rev. F. J. Long, Crawford.

It is expected that the Mountain Home convention will establish a new record in point of both attendance and interest in the Sunday school work.

Village election today.

SUNDAY WEDDING

Miss Olive Smith Becomes Bride of Wm. H. Wilson.

Statesman, April 3.

Miss Olive D. Smith of Boise and William H. Wilson of Mountain Home, formerly of this city, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, at 115 South Seventeenth street. Dr. I. F. Roach of the Methodist church performed the ceremony, which occurred at 1 o'clock.

A number of friends of the couple were present at the ceremony, many of these coming from Caldwell, where they are well known. Miss Carrie Smith, a sister of the bride, and Miss Edith George of Caldwell acted as bridesmaids, while Mr. McGuire of Mountain Home and James Smith of Boise attended the groom.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Many valuable gifts were received by the newly wedded couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on the afternoon train for Mountain Home, where they will make their home, Mr. Wilson being in business in that place. He was formerly night clerk at the Capitol hotel in this city.

Married Monday.

Miss Belle Coats and Greene Pinkston were married yesterday by Justice Swan.

The recent cold weather has been unfavorable for sheep shearing operations, but Goddard's camp has now settled down to systematic work and matters will be pushed. The first load of wool was seen on the streets Saturday. Last week one of the producers disposed of his clip, it is stated, at 17½ cents.

Feel tired, no appetite, cannot sleep, work or eat? That's spring tiredness and will disappear at once if you take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Roscoe W. Smith. *

Business interests called J. B. Stanfield out to camp yesterday. All the cattle, he reports, have been turned out and are doing well. Indications at present point toward a favorable season.
