 A cordial invitation to all services.

The solo, Psalm of Life, was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Carl Johnson at the forenoon service.

The anthem in the evening by the choir was of a very high order.

The evangelist, Rev. G. D. Hyden of Souris, N. D., delivered powerful sermons forenoon and evening.

The Ladies Aid Thursday afternoon, in the vestry, to quilt. All urged to be present.

The C. E. social at the parsonage Friday evening was very enjoyable and well attended.

AN EXQUISITE REPRODUCTION

Of a Remarkable Painting Practically Given Away—"Three Most Beautiful Roses," by Paul de Longpre.

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents.

Mr. Paul de Longpre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as $7,500.

Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine.

The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., excels all other home and family magazines. The Woman's Home Companion is published by The Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago, Ill., at One Dollar a year, and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes, where it is read each and every issue by three million people.

How It Happened.

Notice what Spring did to one of the front windows of his paint shop the other day? Frank Clark (Spring's assistant) says it's all on account of that last load of window glass he got in—gave 'em both such panes that they putty nigh blue all the venetian red out of the furniture veneer; so they brushed up the varnish on the various varieties of glazed wallpaper until they looked like calcimined copies of crayon creations in black and white. Spring says not to feel bad about it, though, because it may not be more than half true, anyway.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY to visit the "old home" and the "old friends" in the East and return to the West, with as little expense as is ordinarily required to make the one-way trip, has come.
