

ARE YOU WELL POSTED?

Do you think you know a good hat when you see one?

Most men say "yes"—

And make a very poor selection.

JOHN B. STETSON

ORIGINATED THE GOOD HAT;

And, to protect the buyer, places his name on the pad inside of every one he manufactures.

We sell the "STETSON"—and lots of them.

IDAHO COMMERCIAL CO., LTD.

CASH DEALERS EXCLUSIVELY

PERSONAL

R. F. Cooke and daughter, Ella, went to Boise Friday.

G. W. Smith of Bruneau, father of Mrs. Marion House, was in Tuesday.

Dr. Carl Johnson and wife and F. M. Mielenz and wife spent Tuesday on Canyon Creek fishing.

C. E. Corker was up from the Ferry several days last week.

J. S. Bennett and R. H. Bennett were Boise visitors last week.

Omer Hutchins of Pine spent the latter part of last week in the county seat. He reports considerable doing at Pine, and the outlook hopeful.

G. F. Mahoney and family left Saturday for Little Camas where they contemplate remaining during the summer in order that the children may attend school under Miss Anna True, who is to teach there during the term just opening.

Mr. Mahoney returned to his business here Sunday, making the trip back in six hours.

Ernest Gorrill returned Wednesday from Salt Lake.

Miss Gladys Hodge was a visitor from Bruneau Wednesday.

Mrs. Blanche Humphry-Lovelace was in Mountain Home last week.

J. A. Purfill and Clarence Plummer returned Thursday from their trip to the mountains.

Miss Susan Chatten left for Portland Tuesday to be present at the opening of the Exposition, after which she contemplated attending the commencement exercises at McMinnville college.

Rev. R. B. Wright of the Congregational church at Boise, well known in Mountain Home, has resigned as pastor, to take effect in three months.

Geo. W. Scott, traveling representative of the Hallack Paint, Oil and Glass Co. of Denver, was here

Fairbanks-Morse...

GASOLINE ENGINES and WINDMILLS

...DO YOUR OWN IRRIGATING...

We can furnish machinery to pump water from Snake River, or canal, or open well—any quantity you want—any lift. SEE SOME OF OUR PLANTS IN OPERATION.

You can get Distillate for our Engines at less than 20c per gal. ECLIPSE WINDMILLS and TOWERS carried in stock.

Can give you prices, with quick delivery, on any kind of an outfit in this line.

PHILLIPS BROS.

Plumbers and Sheet Metal Workers.

FREE TICKETS TO LEWIS AND CLARK FAIR

During the month of June the Big Store will give, in addition to our regular cash coupons—which are redeemed at 5 per cent on cash sales—one coupon for each dollar cash purchase, which entitles you to one chance at a FREE ROUND-TRIP TICKET to the Fair.

Ticket to be drawn for on SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 1. The more tickets you get the more chances you have of winning.

Additional Offer

TO THE PERSON OBTAINING THE GREATEST NUMBER OF COUPONS WE WILL GIVE, ABSOLUTELY FREE, A ROUND-TRIP TICKET TO THE FAIR.

STOCK THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT THE BEST QUALITY NO. 1

"THE BIG STORE WITH THE LITTLE PRICES."

THE C. R. KELSEY CO., LTD.

Friday. He took No. 1 for Boise, from where he will go on to the Exposition at Portland and complete his circuit home by way of Spokane, Seattle and back through Montana.

G. W. Lambert, of the wholesale paper house at Salt Lake, was in town Friday. He has been out on the road two weeks, and, as the stork had visited his home with a beautiful little daughter shortly before he started out, he was anxious to get back to Zion.

Miss Anna True, who closed her term of school at Glenn's Ferry several days ago, left Saturday for Little Camas, where she will conduct a summer session. She was accompanied by Miss Ethel Bennett, who is to be one of her students.

Mrs. Ernest Pearson of Glenn's Ferry and daughter Miriam spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manion.

W. R. Duvall, Salt Lake Tribune traveling representative (one of the energetic, "get-there" kind), was in Mountain Home a few days last week in the interest of his paper. He took in several other localities, including the State capital, before returning to Zion.

State Insurance Commissioner Liggett is in town for a few days.

Henry Willis was in from Little Camas yesterday.

Raymond Rinehart of Boise, suffering from a serious case of blood poisoning, is being cared for at L. A. Underwood's.

Rev. H. C. Ethell was at the Ferry Sunday and Monday in attendance on the M. E. Quarterly meeting.

Mrs. C. W. Burns and niece, Miss Beulah Lamont, went to Pocatello Wednesday evening. The next day—Thursday, June 1—Miss Lamont and Charles Lynch were married, going to Salt Lake for a few days. They will probably reside at Soda Springs.

Reece Harmon and sister have moved from the Noland place to the residence formerly occupied by L. J. Tanner and family.

J. T. Whitson and wife left Saturday for the mountains above Little Camas, to be gone a week or ten days.

John York contemplates spending the summer at Spokane, Washington. He left Thursday.

Miss Libbie Ethell came up from Glenn's Ferry yesterday for a visit of a week or two.

Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Colthorp were down from Souris Monday on a visit with friends. Mrs. Brooks expects to go to Mountain Home with Mr. Colthorp's family.—Bottineau News (N. D.), May 25.

Mrs. Carrie Tyler returned to her home in Glenn's Ferry yesterday evening, after a stay of two or three weeks with Mrs. Doom.

A big free show at the Opera House Monday night.

FREE LESSONS

MRS. J. A. PURTILL, lace-maker and teacher, will give free lessons to all those purchasing lace materials during the month of June. Battenberg Patterns at a discount.