Looks Good to Them.

The organizers of the St. Louis Mining and Milling Co., Limited, are feeling quite cheerful over future prospects. The company consists of B. F. Jarvis, President; A. A. Brothen, Secretary-Treasurer; Geo. D. Howe, Gus Gunderson and E. C. Berg. The workings consist of three claims—the Minnesota, the St. Louis and the Lone Tree, situated on Wilson Creek.

A millsite has been selected, the plans for which contemplate a 60 or 70-foot fall of water. They are running a prospect tunnel and drifting. An immense ledge has been slightly worked, averaging, so far, about $6 ore. Indications point toward richer values. However, should the grade not go higher, there is sufficient in sight, it is said, to make the owners millionaires, "and then some."

Mrs. Herbert Kelsey, formerly Miss May Burns, returned Thursday. Mr. Kelsey is expected soon.

PINE POSTOFFICE

Absent Official, Unauthorized Deputy, Visiting Inspector.

There is all kinds of trouble at Pine, so it is reported, the storm center hovering around the post-office and Postmaster Farber providing the casus belli.

It is said that a Postoffice Inspector recently visited the place, finding Uncle Sam's representative absent on a trip to Philadelphia, leaving Mart Nelson in charge. The latter, it is asserted, had not been sworn in, and the records of the office were in more or less of a tangle. It is also said, according to Deputy Sheriff Winter, that the cash account could not be made to balance by about $200.

The Inspector, says the report, removed Mr. Farber as Postmaster, about August 1, Mrs. Potter being appointed to the vacancy. For some reason, however, Mrs. Potter did not assume charge of the office, Farber still occupying the position of Postmaster.

A special meeting is called by the president of the W. C. T. U. this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:30, to make out report. Members and officers are especially urged to be present, at Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Swain came in Thursday from the Rocky Bar country. Mr. Swain left for the upper country Sunday, Mrs. Swain remaining here to make preparations for an extended visit to California.

A. B. Evans, who began the publication of the Camas Prairie Sentinel, at Soldier, a few months ago, is in town. He has disposed of his plant and paper to Fred Jordan, Land Commissioner.

Mrs. Hendricks will, about Sept. 1, display a fine line of millinery goods.

Clarence Manion came down from the Lime Creek mine last week and has employment with Bennett Bros. while Joe and Dick Bennett are absent at the Fair.

THE REAL THING

Talk about the "simple life!" Just take a flashlight at the soldiers of the Czar—way over on the other side of the world, where the "yellow peril" is making them feel homesick. A Russian officer in the field is authority for the statement that they (rank and file and those with stripes) are not allowed to request nor receive news from home bearing in any way on the political situation. But that is not all. They are not even allowed to read the newspapers, the penalty for disobedience being death!

During some of the recent disturbances, instances are cited where soldiers were compelled to fire on their own relatives—brothers, sisters, cousins, uncles, etc.

Perhaps the report is incorrect—the suggestion that the "little white father" has been wondering why his soldiers do not fight better!

Attorney Daniel McLaughlin has moved his office into the Bennett building, where he is pleasantly situated.
