Of Interest To Each of Us

Two thirds of a man's life is spent in his shoes and one third in bed "are your shoes as comfortable as your bed?" If not better buy a pair of Governor or Vogue shoes $4. $5. Haizlip & Norman.

C. M. Keep went to Spokane on business Friday morning.

J. P. Vollmer was a visitor here from Lewiston today.

Mr. Smith accompanied his son-in-law, D. J. Rowlands and daughter, Miss Abbie Smith to the White Pines yesterday morning. They expect to return Tuesday.

E. E. Alderman has sold his news paper and plant, and from hence on Claude Duncan will be known as publisher and proprietor of our contemporary sheet, the Canyon Echo.

Martin Wessels one of the Idaho commissioners to the St. Lewis exposition commission has been called to a meeting of the board at Boise, Ida. on July 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kempe from near Spokane were the guests of Aug. Fuhrmann on the fourth. Mr. Kempe is the owner of the McFarlong property near Juliaetta which he reports in good shape.

Well, I guess its fine work when done at the Gazette job office. Unexcelled in quality taste and design. Call and give us an idea what you want and we will elaborate it. GAZETTE OFFICE

Claud Stanton and Jinks Wilcox returned from their trip to the mountains Wednesday evening.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak of Chamberlains Stomach and Liver Tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For Sale by A. C. White & Co.

Funeral of Dow Ward held in Leland, at 10 A. M. Sunday.

Beginning Friday July 10th on Grant Evan's place on American ridge four and one half miles from here will be opened a series of meetings under the direction of J. I. Peterman & Co. Evangelists. "In Christs name you are invited to attend."

Mrs. S. Callison was sick the latter part of last week and the fore part of this with an attack of tonsillitis. She has about recovered at this writing.

Jess F. Collins spent the 4th with his family here returning to Lewiston Sunday afternoon.

McCrea Bros & Co. sell the Mitchell Hacks and Buggies. A standard of quality for 70 years.

Among those who went to Moscow last Saturday to spend the 4th, we noticed B. Helpman and family, Mrs. C. Vincent and Miss Cate Addison, Mrs. Jacobs and family, Misses Crow, Collins and Lung, Herbert Helms, J. R. Haizlip, J. R. Hall and several others. They returned Saturday night having had a good time.

Rev. Fred J. Newton until recently pastor of the Presbyterian church at Grangeville was a visitor here Monday at the home of Rev. J. A. Hedges. Mr. Newton is under appointment of the Foreign Missionary Board of the Presbyterian church for India, where he was born his father and grandfather having been distinguished missionaries there. He will sail in September from New York.

Rev. J. A. Hedges spent a couple of days in Cul de sac this week looking after church interests there.

The Svea Fire insurance company has been added to the Kendrick Realty Co's list and has many advantages which will please prospective risks. Ask the company about some of them.

W. B. Crews had his house painted this week which adds greatly to its appearance.

Street Commissioner Weber assisted by a force of men cleaned out the culvert under the railroad just by the water tank this week. It was filled up with rubbish.

Don't forget to see McCrea Bros. & Co about Binding Twine.

Two thirds of a man's life is spent in shoes and one third in bed "are your shoes as comfortable as your bed?" If not better buy a pair of our Governor or Vogue shoes $4. $5. Haizlip & Norman.

The Mitchell hacks have stood the test of this section better than any others.

For Sale by McCrea Bros. & Co.

J. R. Haizlip went up to Spokane Friday morning to meet the dry goods drummers and we can expect something as a result a little later in the season.

D. S. McCrea left Friday morning for a trip into the white pine region. He will be joined at Lenore by Puri Johnson. They expect to have a good trip.

The brickyard at the upper end of town has quite a metropolitan appearance, with its chute, ovens, drier, machinery and teams, and in fact it is doing a big business with Joe Freucht at the helm.

The residences of D. S. McCrea and W. B. Crews are being still further improved by a neat fence surrounding the grounds and also a good sidewalk. This corner is now an adornment to the city, and is a striking example of what can be done towards our towns looks by the desire to own a pretty home and comfortable residence.

For a lazy liver try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They invigorate the liver, aid the digestion, regulate the bowels and prevent bilious attacks. For sale by A. C. White & Co.

Hull got in twenty-four crates of strawberries Thursday morning and was sold out Friday morning.

Mr. Lewi's young child, whom we feared was dangerously hurt by falling over the cliff back of the school-house, we are glad to state is doing nicely and convalescing rapidly.

LOST: A child's red cloak, Finder rewarded suitably. W. W. Trumbull, can leave at this office.

Honorable Burton L. French our congressional representative was in town Thursday, shaking hands with old friends. Burton is looking fine, eastern life having apparently agreed with him. He made the Gazette office a pleasant call which we duly appreciate.

The splendid commercial orchard variously known as the Clement, Hepler and N. B. Long orchard has been named "The" North Idaho Fruit ranch and has had his stationery printed to that effect. This is a step in the right direction and the naming of the various farms and ranches, should be followed by all the Potlatch empire. Thus a distinctive appellation will be given to every section and they will be better known.

We will have the best Binding Twine at lowest prices.

McCrea Bros. & Co.

Elsewhere we publish an ad of Mrs. Bye in regard to pickles, and we wish to endorse her statement therein. We know from actual experience that her pickles are not to be surpassed, are put up in more varieties, and will be delivered at your door cheaper than you can do it yourself. This endorsement is not asked for but Mrs. Bye is entitled to it, and every patron of hers is a steady customer.

L. A. Kerr is rusticated on his homestead, and we guess must be enjoying himself.

E. O. Perry returned this week from Lapwai where he ran a stand during the Indian celebration. He was accompanied by his cousin who rode back on a bicycle Wednesday evening.

Arnold Rothwell of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. is here from Portland this week attending to those who are anxious to prepare for the future. His company have quite a number of policy holders both in the town and country, so he is right at home.

Chas Sattler is having printed at this office a number of receipts for laces and buckskin, for tanning fur, and water-proof grease. These are valuable to every rancher, farmer, stockman and miner as they are adapted to the materials one has at hand. You can secure them of Mr. Sattler, or they can be procured at this office.

A new side walk has been laid just below the residence of C. M. Keep.

W. R. Trull and wife, were at Moscow the fourth.

The directors of the American ridge school district were in town Thursday to secure paint for the school house. Its a good idea. This district has not as yet elected their teacher for the coming year.
