SUNDRIES

A new design for an old product is quite worth while, especially in food. Camouflaged Kidneys.

Rabbit Sauté.—Clean and cut up a rabbit; dredge with flour and sprinkle with salt.

Mock Roast Chicken.—Take one pound of the shin of veal, two ounces of salt pork, one tablespoonful of chopped onion.

Kitchen Bouquet.—The browning used for gravies and various sauces may be made at home.

Faith, absolute, unconquerable faith, is one of the essential concomitants, therefore, of the great secrets of success.

A SIMPLE DINNER.

The idea of a simple dinner is one that is reasonable in cost, appetizing enough to be attractive.

Seasoned Cabbage With Meat.—Cut a medium-sized cabbage into halves and let it stand an hour in cold water.

Rice Cooked in Chicken Stock.—Cook rice until nearly tender in water then add enough chicken stock to season well and finish cooking.

Cottage Cheese and Peanut Salad.—Mix a half cupful of peanuts, which have been shelled and put through the meat chopper, using the coarse cutter.

Steamed Oat Bread.—Mix two cupfuls of rolled oats, ground; one cupful of corn flour, two and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder.

Rhubarb Pie.—Take one and one-half cupfuls of chopped rhubarb, one cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of flour and a half teaspoonful of salt.

The secret of successful sponge cakes is in the heating of the eggs and the care not to lose the air incorporated when stirring in the flour.

It is as unreasonable to suppose all women gifted in being good cooks as it would be to expect them to be musicians or artists.

In these days of thin cream which refuses to whip, a solution called viscogen will be useful, which may be made at home.

A part of what we might term the optimist's philosophy is: If you can mend a situation mend it; if you can't mend it, forget it.

HELPFUL SUGGESTIONS.

If the dishes in which ice cream or frozen dishes are served are chilled in the refrigerator the problem of melting ice is practically solved.

Frozen dishes molded in melon molds should be served sliced in pie-shaped pieces, cutting from the center of the mold.

A sufficient quantity of white sauce may be made to last two or three days if kept covered in the ice chest.

Flour that has been sifted several days should always be resifted when ready to use.

Sweet milk may be soured instantly by adding two teaspoonfuls of vinegar to a cupful of milk.

The usual recipe serves six people amply. By cutting down the ingredients to halves or thirds it suits the needs of a small family.

In making French dressing use half lemon juice and half vinegar or dilute the vinegar with water or fruit juice.

A convenient way of making the dressing is to put all the ingredients into a fruit jar and shake until it thickens.

In moulting gelatin mixtures the chilling may be hastened by having at hand a dripping pan filled with cracked ice.

Do not wash mushrooms but brush with a butter brush to clean them.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

SCOUT TRAINING SAVES LIFE

The training which is being imparted to youngsters in scout khaki is of the sort that may be brought into play at any hour or minute in the daily routine of boy life.

He had not done so too quickly, however, for the reptile had sprung forward, burying its fangs deep into the protecting arm.

Young Coyte awakened his companion and they improvised a tourniquet from his handkerchief and a small stick.

MODEST SCOUT'S BRAVE ACT.

Scout Frederick Nelson of Dubuque, Iowa, aged 15, is deserving of a place on the highest honor roll of Scoutdom.

Frederick, who was visiting at Fairfield, Iowa, one day heard the screams of a child coming from the direction of the river where he had been swimming.

The first that was known in Dubuque of the lad's brave deed was a letter to the scout executive from the girl's mother, praising the boy and suggesting that the scout council reward him.

SONG OF THE BOY SCOUTS.

Did you call, O fair Columbia, Did you call us in your need? Far and wide the summons sounded, We are here your wish to heed.

Fathers, brothers, uncles, grandfathers Paid in full their debt to you; Tell us, loving mother, tell us, What is there a boy can do?

You still need the heart that's loyal, You still need the helping hand, Here we come, a million brothers, All united in one band.

SCOUTS MUST NOT APE ARMY.

National headquarters warn the boy scouts that under the national defense act it is unlawful for scouts or scout officials to wear any part of the army uniform.

The authorities have explained that by wearing any of the following things a scout is violating the army reorganization law.

Army hat cords, collar insignia, including U. S. letters; crossed sabers, crossed rifles, etc.; caps—congress gives us permission to wear only the campaign hats; Sam Brown belts—these are worn only by officers overseas.

BROUGHT BACK PYGMY HIPPO

It seems incredible, but there exist hippopotami that do not exceed 30 inches in height. For a long while nobody believed that there were any pygmy hippos in Liberia.

Nevertheless a pygmy hippo was caught as far back as 1873, and brought from Africa to the zoological gardens in Dublin.

Mouth-talk or brain-talk — which kind do you chiefly use during a business call or conference? "I can't see half as many men as I could see or as I should like to see during the day because my callers, once they get in to see me, waste my time with inconsequential talk."

MAKE BUSINESS CALL BRIEF

Well to Remember That Executives, as a Rule, Have Little Time to Waste.
