

EASTER!

"Amid the florid multitude her face
Was like the full moon seen behind lace
Of orchid boughs where clouded blossoms part
When Spring shines in the world and in the heart."

In the Spring

THERE'S an impulse for adornment that dates from the Garden of Eden and is as irresistible as the law of gravity—or a taste for red. It's Spring Fever—and it's a very pleasant ailment if the treatment for it is a trip amongst the fascinating new apparel shown at the Seeger-Bundlie Store.

TWEED SUITS

A new shipment just received

SPRING SUITS

Box suits of navy in a variety of styles. Short and embroidered bloused backs; flared and belted. Brilliant linings.

SPRING DRESSES

It is seldom that this early in the season you can choose from such a wide variety of styles and fabrics as we are showing. Crepes, Taffeta and Satins and every line of them brand new.

Wools have had their day! Silks so fine that even Mr. Spider's spin is excelled.

GARDEN DRESSES WHOSE BEAUTY AND DELICACY HARMONIZE WITH THE ATMOSPHERE OF FRAGRANT FLOWERS

GINGHAM that is guaranteed fast in color, styles that are practical and becoming, value quite out of the ordinary—recommend these garden and house dresses.

Blue, lavender, green and various combinations of color that are delightfully adapted to the different styles we offer.

Organdie collar and cuffs, pipings of pique, and sashes are effectually used for trimming.

We have often stated that we have a resident buying connection at 310 E. 34th St., New York City. This service insures our store the newest styles as they appear in New York, combined with the fact that our experienced buyer buys these goods for the largest users of ready-to-wear, also insures the utmost value. This week we welcome a large shipment of Coats, Suits and Dresses. To those of you who have so patiently waited for this shipment we can only say you will be amply repaid.

QUAINT PATTERNS IN SPRING FABRICS

The extensive display of quaint designs, patterns and prints in all kind of material is added evidence of the movement afoot to make us walk in the ways of our grandmothers.

Crepe de chine and pussywillows are among the silks; flowered chintz, dimities, gingham and tissue linens all show radical departures in the exhibition of new patterns,—but they all breathe of
