AUTOMOBILE THIEF HAS PRELIMINARY HEARING

Mead Thomas, who lives at Roberts, Idaho, who stole B. Y. Nelson's car from in front of the postoffice about a month ago, had his preliminary hearing before Judge Good Thursday forenoon. He plead not guilty and was bound over for trial at the District Court.

Last week Thomas was arrested in Oregon on a charge of petty larceny. A car with an Idaho license being in his possession, the officers communicated with Boise, and it was quickly learned that it was the car stolen from Mr. Nelson. He was held and Sheriff Simmons went to Oregon and brought him back. The car was not in bad shape and Mr. Nelson went over and brought it back.

Miss Gladys Bitton, who left this week to make her home in Salt Lake City, was given a farewell party by the Misses Vessie Inskeep and Marguerite Jones at the home of the former on Monday evening. There were ten young ladies and gentlemen at the party.

KIWANIS LUNCHEON

The Kiwanis Club held their regular luncheon Thursday noon. T. J. Johnson and R. A. English were welcomed as new members by President Henderson in a very impressive speech. Oscar Christensen was the recipient of an array of gifts by several members of the club, which included dolls, spoons, baby clothes and a rolling pin. Presentation speech was made by Lew Felt in his usual humorous style. Oscar wore the usual bridal veil made from cheese cloth. Following the presentation of the many presents, Lon Cone gave a short welcome to the bridal couple to Blackfoot. It was voted that the Kiwanis Club attend the football game Friday.

The Supreme Court of this State has just rendered its decision affirming a judgment of $8,500.00, which was obtained against the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company by Hyrum Geddes on account of the death of his son at the Alice Street crossing in Blackfoot.

E. J. Nogues, better known as "Frenchy," proprietor of Frenchy's Cafe, and Miss Mary Stearne, were seriously injured Sunday evening in an automobile wreck on the road near Idaho Falls. The car skidded in attempting to make a turn and was thrown end over end onto the side of the road. A passing car took the injured couple to Idaho Falls, where it was found the Frenchy has suffered several broken ribs and other injuries. Miss Stearne was severely cut and bruised but not dangerously hurt. The car, a Nash, was brought back to Blackfoot a complete wreck. The top was torn off, the seats smashed, fenders and hood broken and the front axle twisted. How the occupants managed to escape sudden death is a mystery.

Nourishment Defeats Tuberculosis. Even where people live a great deal in the open air, as in the case of many of the surviving Indians of the United States and Canada, tuberculosis is prevalent whenever the food is inadequate. The Maoris of New Zealand often succumb to this disease because they rarely have any meat.

Helping Out Bashful Swain. In north Transylvania a young peasant woman may give a particular swain a tip that he is the "apple of her eye" by going with him in his cart at the time of the harvesting of the oats to help him carry in his crop.

Many Like This In Blackfoot

Similar Cases Being Published in Each Issue.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Blackfoot. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

Claude L. Stewart, farmer, 58 N. E. Main St., Blackfoot, says: "Some time ago I was troubled with my kidneys. My back was so lame and stiff, I couldn't lie comfortably in bed. Mornings I had sharp, stabbing pains through my kidneys that were almost unbearable. I had to get up often during the night on account of the too free action of my kidneys. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills and purchased a box at Dustin's Pharmacy. After using a few Doan's, I was greatly relieved. Finally I was completely cured. Doan's are a good kidney medicine and I am glad to recommend them."

RED CROSS PUTS UP $9,739,872

Year's Budget Stresses Relief and Services at Home and Overseas.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Over $3,000,000 Allotted to the Disabled—Foreign Work Lessens.

Washington.—Expenditures totalling $9,739,872.47 for carrying through its program of services and relief during the fiscal year in the United States and overseas are authorized in the budget of the American Red Cross, effective July 1, 1922. This total is $2,735,975 less than the expenditures for the last fiscal year, when disbursements reached $12,475,847.69, it is announced at National Headquarters in a statement emphasizing the necessity of continued support of the organization by enrollment during the annual Roll Call, November 11-November 30 inclusive. This total for the budget is exclusive of the large financial operations of the 3,300 active Red Cross Chapters, which, it is estimated, will more than double the total.

War Veterans Have First Call

First call on Red Cross funds is for the disabled ex-service men, of whom 27,487 were receiving treatment from the Government on June 1 last. This work for veterans and their families in a wide variety of service that the Government is not authorized to render and for which it has neither funds nor facilities has the call on $3,000,000 during the current year, or about $368,000 more than was expended last year for soldier service. Adding the funds disbursed in this humanitarian work of physical reconstruction following the World War by the Chapters throughout the country will approximate a total for the current year approaching $10,000,000. This work, in the opinion of the Surgeon General's office, will not reach its peak before 1926.

Through its Chapters the American Red Cross is equipped to find the individual ex-service man, help him in his problems and difficulties, provide immediately for his necessities, and open the way for him to the Government compensation and aid to which he is entitled. The extension of this work to the families of such men proves to them that the Red Cross has lost none of its sympathy nor will its service manifested in wartime. Similarly the service goes out to the men still in the Army and Navy, 11,087 of whom were under treatment in Government hospitals on June 1, 1922.

Greater Domestic Program

This year—after five years of constructive effort during the war and after the armistice—brings with it a greater responsibility for domestic service to the American Red Cross. The budget for foreign operations, however, totals $2,404,000, but of this amount $1,834,000 is for medical relief and hospital supplies for Russia, which is a part of the gift made by the American Red Cross in 1921 to the Russian famine relief work of the American Relief Administration program. The child health service in Europe continues, moreover, and $654,000 is appropriated for this work undertaken in 1920. Other items in the stringently diminished foreign program include $200,000 to support the League of Red Cross Societies, $22,000 for nurses' training schools instituted by the Red Cross abroad, and $600,000 for liquidation of the general Red Cross foreign relief program.

Prepared for Emergencies

For disaster relief the Red Cross has set aside $750,000, and for emergencies in Chapter work $500,000 to be available for domestic, insular and foreign demands. This is more than $385,000 above last year's expenditures. For service and assistance to the 3,300 Chapters and their branches $1,293,000 is provided by the National organization.

Other budget items of importance in the domestic program include $200,000 for assistance to other organizations and education institutions for training Red Cross nurses and workers; $190,000 for Roll Call assistance furnished to Chapters; $100,000 for unforeseen contingencies.

Of the total budget less than $500,000 is allotted for management in the National organization. No cash estimate, of course, is possible to weigh the value of the service by volunteers in the Chapters.
