To Celebrate the 4th.

J. S. Tyler and J. E. Warren, citizens of Fletcher were in town Tuesday. Fletcher proposes to celebrate the glorious 4th of July and these gentlemen are anxious that the citizens of Nezperce and adjoining towns shall join with them and fittingly celebrate the day.

Enlarged Quarters.

Joseph Schultz this week purchased the stock of general merchandise owned by J. Allen and has moved the same into his store building on the corner. Mr. Schultz will shortly begin the erection of a two story annex to his present quarters to accommodate his growing trade. In addition he will erect a large store house for the handling of grain.

Serious Accident.

Ed Casens met with a serious accident while at the home of Peter Deschamp last Sunday night. He fell while attempting to step from the porch onto the ground below striking on his right side and breaking the floating rib near the back bone. He was brought to town and Dr. Webb was called in to attend the injured man. He dressed the wound and the patient is now resting as comfortable as possible.

Woodmen Social.

The Modern Woodmen of America gave a social last Saturday night at the school house, in honor of Mrs. Ida Hamblen, Deputy Supreme Oracle of the state of Oregon. A large crowd was present and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Mrs. Hamblen delivered a lecture on the benefits of Royal Neighbor's organization. The talk was both pleasing and instructive.

The following program was rendered:

- 1—Selection by the band.
- 2—Song by the Woodmen; Opening Ode.
- 3—Address of Welcome, Dr. Lewis.
- 4—Song, Pearl Wilson.
- 5—Ode, by Woodmen.
- 6—Excitation, Miss Morris.
- 7—Recitation, Miss Deschamp.
- 8—Song, by the Misses Morris.
- 9—Address, S. Badger.
- 10—Music by Orchestra.
- 11—Address, Eph Nelson.
- 12—Music by Orchestra.
- 13—Address by Mrs. Hamblen.

At the conclusion of the program an elegant lunch was served. After the lunch the voting of the cake to the handsomest man in Nezperce took place. Dr. Lewis was a hot favorite from the start and won in splendid style over a field composed of some of the best lookers in town.
