IDAHO ELEVEN PLAYS NORMAL TEAM SATURDAY

The first football game of the season for the University of Idaho eleven will take place in Moscow Saturday afternoon on the college athletic grounds. The game will be played with the team from the Lewiston State normal school.

Coach Griffith has had some trouble in getting out a very big squad the past two weeks for practice. While 35 suits were issued at the first of the season, less than 22 men have been turning out. Not having enough for two squads, scrimmage work could not be carried on.

In order to arouse some enthusiasm among the students, Coach Griffith talked to the men of the university yesterday after the regular assembly period. In the course of his remarks he called for volunteers, and about 15 additional men promised to come out for practice. True to their promise, 35 men reported on the field last evening, more than enough for three teams. The appearance of so many men last evening greatly pleased the coach. He was able to do scrimmage days.

Several of the old men are out of the game from minor injuries, so the team which will meet the Lewiston normal eleven Saturday will be for the most part composed of new men. The game will be a try-out of Idaho's strength, and will be watched with interest.
