CITY IN BRIEF.

The chemical engine, remodeled, has been returned to the Fire Department.
It is reported that fish caught with seines were sold on the streets yesterday.
J. R. Budd has a hen with a face like a human being at his poultry house.
The Light Infantry were measured yesterday for new suits which will cost $50 each.
There will be a gospel temperance meeting at 3.30 p. m. to-morrow in Military Park.
Andrew Lee, bartender for Thomas Kearney, has been fined for violating the Sunday law.
W. H. Dye, of Philadelphia, near Greenfield, offers the use of his grove free to all picnic parties this summer.
The Tabernacle Church will hold twilight sermons during the summer season, beginning at 6:30 Sunday evening.
Adelia F. Smith was given $800 bonds as guardian of Carl and William Smith, minor heirs of William J. Smith, deceased.
The Light Infantry will go ten miles north of Crown Hill this afternoon for target practice, after the services at the cemetery.
The writers at the English Hotel struck for higher wages Thursday, but managed to return to duty before the sun went down.
Tippecanoe and Jay Counties yesterday settled with the Treasurer of State, the former paying $40,657.66, and the latter $13,262.26.
James Evans, a colored lad, charged with the theft of several halters, was arrested and incarcerated yesterday by Officers Page and Ward.
E. F. Gobel has contracted with J. S. Farrell & Co., of Indianapolis, for the plumbing and gas fitting of the new Indiana State-house.
The will of John V. Hack, deceased, of Wayne Township, was probated. The property is left to the widow, who is named executor.
The County Board of A. O. H. will hold a special meeting to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Parnell Hall, to make arrangements to take part in the State Reunion

Picnic, which will be held June 24, at Lafayette, Ind.
A woman giving the name of Walker has been perpetrating petty swindles by begging for an alleged fair to be given at Christ Church.

Patrons of the library are requested to use the Pennsylvania street entrance for a few days, until the Ohio street entrance can be painted.
John P. Frenzel is a candidate for re-election as School Commissioner in the First District. Albert Beck is said to be a candidate also.

Meridian Street Church and Sunday-school will have a grand picnic near Philadelphia on the Pan-Handle Railroad on next Saturday, June 6.

The old gentleman named Brown, who broke his thigh at the residence of the Little Sisters of the Poor, is reported to be in a critical condition.

Judge Howe yesterday rendered judgment on the verdict in favor of Francis Switzer against the Odd Fellows' Mutual Aid Association for $3,753.75.

Judge Lamb has reported that he is ready to pay another dividend of 10 per cent. in the Central Bank Receivership. This makes 85 per cent. in dividends in this bank.
