THE DAILY EXPRESS.

TERRE-HAUTE:

THURSDAY.....SEPTEMBER 19, 1861

Gov. MORTON passed through the city yesterday, on his return from St Louis

THE 8th Indiana Regiment, Col. Benton, and a part of the 22d, Col. Davis, are at Boonville, Mo.

Hon. D. W. VOORHEES will please accept our thanks for a copy of "Acts and Resolutions passed during the 1st session of the Thirty Seventh Congress," a very useful and valuable document.

LETTERS from Paducah represent the Federal force there to be from fifteen to sixteen thousand. If this be correct, the Bishop General will have warm work, if he visits Paducah.

THE gun boats on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers are giving a good account of themselves. On the 16th, the Conestoga captured two rebel steamers, up the Cumberland river. One of them had fifty tons of iron aboard.

THE Kentucky Legislature is doing its work slowly, but surely. The Senate has passed a bill virtually disbanding the State Guard. The House passed resolutions in favor of paying the war tax and against recognizing the Southern Confederacy.

SOME gentleman did us the favor last night, while we were out of the office for a moment, to borrow our copy of the Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday, a kindness that caused us much inconvenience and annoyance. We hope it will never be repeated.

The latest news from Cheat Mountain Pass is to the effect that Gen. Lee having discovered that the contract he had undertaken, was likely to prove too large for him, has again turned his face towards the Potomac.

Anniversary of the Constitution.

The meeting at Indianapolis on Tuesday, the 17th to celebrate the anniversary of the adoption of the Federal Constitution, was largely attended. All political parties were represented, and the utmost good feeling prevailed.

The principal speakers were Senator Lane and Col. Thompson; and it is needless for us to say that both the speeches were able and eloquent. Col. Lane being a mildly mannered man, dealt tenderly with the lambs and turtle doves of the great peace party; while Col. Thompson poured balm into the hearts of those who are suffering lest they may have to pay a few paltry dollars to preserve a good government for their children. Col. Thompson cauterized their wounds severely but tenderly!

Altogether the meeting was a success. The State Sentinel frets terribly because there was no disturbance of the Union meeting by disunionists. Why didn't you get up a disturbance, Mr. Sentinel?

A MEETING of those who call themselves "the Democracy of Parke county" was held in Rockville on the 14th instant, at which the Hon. JOHN G. DAVIS presided, and the Hons. D. W. VOORHEES & J. C. ROBINSON were the speakers. A long string of resolutions was adopted, expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, which will be found in the Journal of the 17th inst. We have not room for them now, but may have occasion to publish the leading ones hereafter. In the mean time we beg those of our readers who have the opportunity to examine them carefully to see whether or not we are mistaken when we say that they are in palpable and positive opposition to the Government. We do not say that they are so by an open advocacy of secession or the cause of the South—for the cunning men who got them up knew too well what they were about for that. They denounce secession and abolitionism both, and condemn the Administration in the strongest terms, and their whole argument shows that because they find Abolitionists in favor of the war, therefore they are against it—and because, by being for the war in support of the Government, they are still Abolitionists, therefore these men are against the Government. We can construe these resolutions in no other way, and shall have occasion to refer to them again—because indorsed as they are by the three gentlemen named, they are, of course, to be viewed as the platform of the anti-war Democracy.

IT is certainly a wonderful spectacle to behold Republicans take by the hand, and crown with honor, the man who, of all others, in the North, was most bitter in his opposition to the Douglas Democracy, most abject to slavery, most efficient in support of the secession movement down to the fall of Fort Sumter.—Chicago Times.

It is not half so wonderful as it is to behold those who were so loud in their professions of attachment to and reverence for Mr. Douglas, even before his patriotic voice in defence of his country, had ceased to thrill and pulsate all loyal hearts, arraying themselves on the side of his bitterest enemies—the Yanceys, the Rhetts, the Wigfalls, and the Davises—and declaring that Senator Douglas only regarded his oath of office while in the Senate chamber; but committed moral and political perjury in his public speeches.

It is not half so wonderful as to see these same professed friends of Senator Douglas, reading out of the Democratic party every man who will not join them in their insane effort to serve party at the expense of the Government.

Not half so wonderful as to see men who claim to be, par excellence, the friends of the Constitution and the Union, denouncing every effort on the part of the Administration, to defend the Government, and by their every effort, apologizing for, and giving aid and comfort to, the rebels against the Constitution and the Government.

Not half so strange as to hear men who had been loud in their praise of Douglas when a candidate, declare, as soon as he was expected to die, that they hoped he would die. Some men think it strange to see men honored for doing right—having never merited such honor themselves!

A Compliment for Vallandigham.

Among the effects in a "contraband" trunk seized in Cleveland, were found various letters from a "Secesher" in Nashville to his wife, who had been seeking a safe retreat at the North. In one letter the "Secesher talks thus:

I see by your letter that you thought Richmond in great danger of being taken by old Scott, and that you did not want me to take the chances. What say you now? When do you think it will be taken and by whom?—As old Scott is now defunct I suppose the Ohio Chief, McClellan, is the next man to go to Richmond. But I can assure you that there is but one man in Ohio that will ever get to Richmond of his own free will, and that is Vallandigham. A man like him can go where he pleases.—Herald, 13th.

Old Dan. Dickinson has achieved the object of his life—a nomination to office. All of his political patriotism has hinged upon that one object. When he found that the North preferred Douglas for the Presidency to him, he joined the secessionists and supported Breckinridge. If the Union convention at Syracuse had not given him something, it is impossible to say where he would have gone to. In the meantime, it is certainly a wonderful spectacle to behold Republicans take by the hand, and crown with honor the man who, of all others in the North, was most bitter in his opposition to the Douglas Democracy, most abject to slavery, most efficient in support of the secession movement down to the fall of Fort Sumter.—Chicago Times.

Is it not strange that such papers as the Chicago Times, State Sentinel Terre Haute Journal, et id omne genus after having eulogized Daniel S. Dickinson for years, should, upon the first symptom of patriotic devotion to his country, turn right round and open upon him the batteries of their abuse. These sheets cannot tolerate anything like patriotism in a Democrat, every one who has taken sides with the Government against rebellion receives their anathemas. "Old Dan, Dickerson knocks the paint off the Times' slander, by decling the, nomination tendered him. Try again, Mr. Times.

The Finances of the Government.

Colonel Forney writes from Washington to the Philadelphia Press:

The extraordinary success which has attended the financial schemes of Secretary Chase will create gratifying surprise among our European sympathizers and friends.

I learn that in high quarters the opinion begins to be expressed that we shall soon be independent of the money lenders of Europe Our people are coming forward with so much alacrity and liberality that it is estimated they will take not only the one hundred millions offered to them, but that they will insist upon taking the balance of the loan off the hands of the banks. An English gentleman drew thirty thousand dollarss from a great banking house in New York, who were paying him four percent. per annum, and a few days since invested it with the Government, who are paying seven and three tenths per cent per annum. He has written to his friends in London, advising them to invest five hundred thousand dollars in the same securities. The bank of England pays but three per cent per annum, so that it will be seen that every inducement is held out, not merely to our own citizens, but to wealthy men in all parts of the world, to invest their money in the faith and credit of the United States.

Commodore Stewart.

The Bermuda Royal Gazette makes the following statement:

"We have been informed that Commodore Stewart, late of the U. S. Navy, was a passenger by the steamer Canada, which arrived at Halifax from Liverpool on the 21st ult—He mentioned to a gentleman, a fellow passenger, that he had resigned his commission in the federal navy to join the cause of the South, and that he was then on his way to take command of a frigate which was awaiting him in one of the Southern ports; that he had shipped 250,000 muskets on his own account for the secessionists, one half of which had already reached their destination, and he felt satisfied that the remainder had also since been received. Commodore Stewart had no doubt of the success of the secessionists. Commodore Stewart owns several estates in Texas and Tennessee. Mrs. Stewart, who has also several estates in the South, has taken up her residence at the Isle of Wight to await the settlement of the great question.

NEW YORK POLITICS.—The Syracus Journal says:

We understand that the President of the People's Convention yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, declining any nomination by the Convention, and saying that he thought he could be of more benefit to the pritriotic cause in another way.

In case Mr. Dickinson persists in his declension, the name of Lyman Tremain, the Democratic candidate who declined the nomination of his own party, will probably be substituted as the candidate for Attorney General.

A REIGN OF ORDER.—At no time in her history was St. Louis more tranquil than she is under Fremont's martial sway, and the rule of Provost Marshal McKinstry. None of the hardships feared as incident to so severe a regime have yet been experienced. Decision, determined energy, conjoined with cution and kindness, have characterized the administration of affairs. The Union feeling is very much more prevalent everywhere, and the demonstrations of rampant Secessionism have become unknown.—St. Louis Democrat.

THAT the people have determined to obliterate all party lines is apparent to all but the purblind politicians. The action of the Union State Cavention of Ohio is proof of this; the reception of Joseph A. Wright at Indianapolis is another, and the resolutions of the Democratic Central Committee of Scott county (printed in to-day's paper) is another. These resolutions, we have reason to believe, have the cordial approval of Hon. W. H. English. The exertions of political leaders who sympathise with the traitors will have as little effect upon the people of their respective political parties as the efforts of traitor officers in the army and navy had upon the common soldiers and sailors.—Madison Courier.

THE Western gunboats, three in number, building at Mound City, on the Marine Ways of Hambleton, Collier & Co., are progressing finely. One of the boats will be ready to launch by the 25th inst. The other two will probably be launched by the 5th proximo. A force of three hundred men are at work on the boats. The boats are respectively named the "George B. McClellan," "N. P. Banks" and "Joe Holt." The latter name was selected by the ship carpenters engaged in the construction of the gunboats.

Sugar Evaporator.

PUBLIC VERDICT UNIVERSALLY IN ITS FAVOR!—Two thousand in use!—All warranted!—None ever returned!—First Premiums taken at 14 State Fairs—At two U. S. Fairs, and hundreds of County Fairs.

It is made of sheet metal, and will not crack with sudden heat. It is light and portable, and yet being lined with brick, it combines all the advantages of an iron and brick furnace combined.

TESTIMONIALS.—Having enlarged my planting, please send me another No. 4 Copper Evaporator. I made last year 50 bbls. molasses, and 100 lbs. sugar. Would as lief undertake to make Sorghum as Maple Sugar.—A. MYERS, Springfield, O., Aug. 11, 1861.

My molasses (made with profit at 25 cents per gallon) took the first premium of $15 at the Illinois State Fair. My Evaporator will last for years.—S. MURRAY, Murraysville, Ills.

"COLIC" KILLS

More Cattle and Horses

Than All Other Complaints

ATTACKS ARE SUDDEN, AND frequently death ensues in a very short period—therefore it is wise to be always prepared to treat so alarming a complaint promptly, for a trifling expense, say 25 cents. Owners of cattle and horses can constantly keep on hand a positive cure, and thereby insure the lives of their cattle and horses from death by colic.

Remember—25 cents is a very small sum compared with the value of a horse. Half a 25 cent bottle of Sloan's Instant Relief, given in a pint of warm water, seldom fails to cure a horse of colic in a few minutes, in extreme cases repeat the dose in 15 minutes.

For bruises, Strains, Sprains, and many other injuries in horses, cattle and other animals, Sloan's Instant Relief speedily effects a cure. Many persons have been astonished to witness the rapid cure effected, by the use of this wonderful nostrum. The dollar bottles contain six times the quantity of the 25 cent bottles, consequently a saving of one-third is made by purchasing the dollar bottles.

For Mankind,

SLOAN'S INSTANT RELIEF!
