

CHAMPIONS PICKED AT LIVESTOCK SHOW

Cheneweth Jock is Named Grand Champion of Chicago Exposition.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—(By U. P.)—The blueblooded or rattled monarch of the big judging arena of the International Livestock Exposition today.

Several champions already picked strode proudly about the grounds exhibiting the ribbons, symbols of world leadership in their class.

Others to be judged today looked sleek and fat, fit for the strongest of competition.

Cheneweth Jock, purchased Kentucky shorthorn steer, carried his honors proudly. He was named grand champion of the show, the highest honor of the livestock world.

Cheneweth's honors will be short lived. Thursday he will be led into the arena and sold to the highest bidder for Christmas beef.

State colleges of agriculture carried off the bulk of the honors in fat sheep raising. The University of Illinois won championship honors for fat Shropshire wethers and grade and cross bred wethers. Kansas won the Cotswold and Dorset classes. Kentucky was winner in the Hampshire and Cheviot classes, and Iowa State College had the champion fat Oxford wether.

Aphasia Patient Held in Kansas City Hospital

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 5.—(By I. N. S.)—In the general hospital here today is a man who staff physicians say is probably the most unique case of aphasia that has ever come under their observation. Unable to answer a question directly, he responds only to the power of suggestion. In this way, by naming objects under his observation, he has responded sufficiently to lead the attending physicians to believe that he is either a resident of Columbus, Ohio, or that he has been there recently. When the word "train" was said to him he responded "Columbus, Ohio."

Guardian Sues to Break Will of Katherine Lipps

Alleging that Katherine Lipps, deceased, was of unsound mind when she made her will and that the document was unduly executed, Fred Astin, guardian of William Lipps, her son, of unsound mind, filed a petition in Superior court No. 1 Tuesday to set aside the will. Final report of the estate shows that $3,000 in real estate and $2,473.15 in personal property was left by the deceased and Samuel Dodd, superintendent of the insane asylum at Loganport, the Zion Evangelical church of South Bend, and Francis M. Jackson are made defendants in the case. It is alleged that although named as beneficiaries in the will, William Lipps is the only rightful heir.

Miss Vada Masden Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema

"Eczema broke out in a sort of blister on the tips of my fingers. It soon spread over my entire fingers and itched and burned dreadfully. Many times in the night I would wake up and scratch. I tried many different remedies without relief. The trouble lasted about three months before I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them about a week I got relief and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Vada E. Masden, Verdel, Nebraska, Feb. 7, 1922.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tablets promote and maintain skin purity, skin comfort and skin health often when all else fails.
