

Crown RCL Queen at Apex Country Club Friday Night

16
PAGES

THE ROBBINS' EAGLE

5¢

THE BIGGEST LITTLE NEWSPAPER IN COOK COUNTY

MORGAN PARK

DIXMOOR

PHOENIX

WEST HARVEY

Volume V.

ROBBINS, ILLINOIS, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1957

5th Year—No. 38

RAINBOW TEA TO BE 'TOPS'

Masonics Hold Cornerstone Laying Rites

Sunday September 29th at 3:00 o'clock p.m. The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge Free and Accepted Masons of Illinois, assisted by several local lodges, will lay the corner stone of Second Baptist Church, 150th. and Robey st. in the city of Harvey, Illinois.

The Grand Lodge will be received by Silver Square Lodge No. 62 F&A.M. of Harvey. Bro. Jack Gray, Worshipful Master.

Mr. Hollis L. Reeves Past President of the Village of Robbins and Past Master of Alpha and Omega Lodge No. 121 F &A.M. Robbins will be one of monies.

This being a public affair,

HOLLIS L. REEVES one of the principals in the Corner Stone Laying Ceremonies.

The Big Day Sunday, September 29, 1957, the Colarets Community Club will present the Rainbow Tea and Fashion Show at the Southwest Community High School from 3:00 until 7:00 p.m.

The entertainment for the Rainbow Tea and Fashion Show will include a feature address by Mr. William (Bud Billiken) Sutton; musical selections by Mrs. Delores Washington Calloway, Miss. Elaine Kelly, Mrs. Dovie Turner and literary selection by Mrs. Iola Littlejohn. Highlight of the afternoon will be the Autumnal Fashion Show with Mrs. Dovie Turner as Commentator.

The proceeds of this grand affair will go to the building fund of the proposed new village hall. Mrs. Cola in an interview Tuesday evening, spoke of how well pleased she was and how well the committees and other persons working with had given her wholehearted support and cooperation. She said the success of the venture as far as she could see, is assured.

The financial success is just about a certainty but she could not stop giving praise to her co-workers and the friends who gave her such loyal support.

DEDICATE NEW CHURCH

Rev. Bennie E. Goodwin, pastor of the Portland St. Church of God in Christ, and his congregation are holding a grand dedicatory service in their newly finished church. The services have been well attended all week after the opening Sunday night with a standing-room only crowd.

Continued in column four from the public and wide participation is anticipated by the Fraternity.

Grand Victory Ball at Apex Club Friday Night

The Victory Ball which begin at 8:00 O'clock Friday night Sept. 27 at the Apex Country Club, will be the climax of Robbins Celebration Week.

The winner of the contest and the new Queen, Miss Neeley, will be crowned at this affair before what is estimated to be a record crowd. And thus will reign a new Queen of Robbins for another year. A lot of credit is due to all the young ladies who participated in the contest because they worked hard to win and in doing so created a great deal of interest and helped to further the financial side of a very worthy cause.

M. L. SMITH, member of the building committee for the Robbins Field House.

This affair is sponsored by Robbins Celebration League which has taken on the task

Death Claims Mrs. Anna Belle Jones

Mrs. Anna Bell Jones of 13634 Claire boulevard, passed away last Monday morning about 4 a.m. She was stricken suddenly by illness and was pronounced dead shortly afterwards in Ingalls hospital in Harvey. The cause of death was given as Cerebral Hemorrhage.

Mrs. Jones had lived in the Village for some time and had operated a business from the above address for the last few years.

She leaves to mourn, a daughter and other relatives and a host of friends.

The wake will be Friday at 8:00 p.m. at Miller and Majors Chapel. Funeral at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, place to be announced. Interment at Restvale Cemetery. Mr. Geo. Manuel, Director.

of building a field house on the grounds at 138th and organization has been greatly assisted by the Chamber of Commerce.

The cooperation of this additional group has brought many personalities into the picture and it is felt that if the interest continues we will see a field house for our youth that we will be proud to enter.

The dedicatory services were conducted by State Bishop Mason, State Bishop of Northern Illinois.

The estimated value of the new church is $40,000. The pastor, Rev. Goodwin, is a resident of the village of Robbins, but has pastored at this church for 21 years.

Movies were taken of the entire dedication services.