Urban League Opens Drive for Members

The first membership mass meeting, conducted by the Chicago Urban League this season, will be held at Pilgrim Baptist Church, 3201 Indiana avenue, Sunday, June 2, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. J. C. Austin, Attorney Patrick Prescott and other prominent citizens, interested in the social and civic welfare of the city, will be among the speakers.

At this meeting, information regarding the work of the Department for Social and Civic Improvement in organizing neighborhood improvement clubs and promoting community betterment, will be presented. Plans for securing jobs on PWA projects will also be explained. A brief summary of the work of the Urban League during the past twelve months will be given.

Opens Finance Drive

This meeting will open the formal opening of the Urban League's 1934-35 financial campaign. The campaign will last for ten days during which it is the hope of the Finance Committee that not less than $5,000 will be raised. "This sum is needed in order that we may continue our campaign for improved community conditions and our fight for jobs," stated Attorney Sidney P. Brown, chairman of the Finance Committee. "The Urban League not only serves the south side, but all of metropolitan Chicago and therefore our budget is very modest. As a matter-of-fact, we serve all of the Negroes of Illinois since we organized the Illinois Advisory Council for Negroes under Dr. Rousfield, two years ago. Certainly $5,000 is a small amount to ask from our friends."

Blue and Red Divisions

Mrs. Annie Oliver, prominent in club circles, is Director of the Blue Division and J. A. Buford of Unity Mutual Life Insurance Company is heading the Red Division. Each of these divisions has set $2,500 as a goal. Both divisions have recruited many active Captains and these Captains with their teams of workers will hold reserved seats at the Mass Meeting Sunday.

In the World of Music

By Mabel Sanford Lewis

Theodore Charles Stone, a young baritone and one of Chicago's excellent musicians, was heard on Tuesday evening in recital at the church of the Good Shepherd. Mr. Stone opened his program with Caldara's "Selve Amiche, Ombrose Piante. The next group listed "Mary the Maiden" (John Alden Carpenter), "The Cave," (Edwin Schneider), "Why?" (Tschaiskowsky), "Where My Caravan Has Rested" (Lohr), with violin obligato, which was played by Rufus Heathington. Songs of two of our young composers were used: "Within My Heart," by Muriel Rose and "Then My Life Will Be Made Anew" by Josephus Robinson.

Mabel S. Lewis

Mr. Stone was a graceful fine voiced performer, behaving with a routined maturity of style that belied his scant years. His appearance was very successful indeed His program was well chosen and gave him excellent opportunity to display his vocal artistry. He sang with all possible ease, his voice was flexible and well controlled. Chicago friends of the young singer had good reason to be proud of him. His splendid spirit won the fully merited approval of the appreciative audience. The following artists assisted, Walter E. Gossette, organist, Rufus Heathington, violinist, the writer accompanied the singer.

Miss Sarah Bohannon Moore, soprano, was heard in recital Tuesday evening at the Walters A. M. E. Zion church. She was assisted by Alfonse S. Hunt, violinist and W. Harry Newmeyer, accompanist. Having to appear in recital on this same evening the writer was unable to cover this recital.

The voice pupils of Charles La Berge and the piano pupils of Earl Blair of the American Conservatory of Music were heard in joint recital at Kimball Hall Saturday afternoon. Ariel Lovelace one of our own young singers appeared on program. He sang Seneca Pierce's "The Journey" and Mac Fadyn's "Inter Nosa."

William Petty, violinist and Mrs. Iceler Petty-Little, soprano, appeared in their third annual recital Monday evening at Grace Presbyterian church to a large audience, the writer is pleased to state that the young man is improving in his playing and with continued practice, I feel sure he will go further. I hope that he will continue to progress as he has since I first heard him three years ago.

Mrs. Little is a sincere and ardent worker and we sincerely appreciate her interest in this young man, whom I believe is very deserving. Gertrude Smith Jackson was very enjoyable as the accompanist for the solsists. Anita McGhee, pianist played two numbers on the program.

The R. Nathaniel Dett Club, had its regular meeting at the home of Miss Ethel Helena Smith. A large number of members was present. Election of officers. The same officers were retained. Miss Claire Malone, soprano, sang the (Glory Road) with Mrs Cleo Dickerson Ball at the piano. Several visitors were present, Mr. Charles Manney, Theodore Charles Stone, and Frank Rayford, also the distinguished composer, Mrs. Florence B. Price. Mrs. Neota McCurdy-Dyett, president. The hostess served a delightful repast.

The Prairie Avenue Baptist church choir was heard in the Sunday Musical. The program was as follows: Solo, "Peter Go Ring Dem Bells", Ralph Watson, tenor; Reading, "When De Lawd Went Home" Mrs. Ethel Cobb, Choir. "Inflammatus" (Rossini); Soprano Solo, Mrs. Mabel Morris; Violin selection, Virgil Shepard; Duet, Mrs. Ione Trice and Mrs. Lucy Jackson.

Rufus Johnson was presented in a pupil recital Sunday by his teacher, Miss Mabel Rippe at the North Shore Conservatory of Music, 1105 Lawrence ave., Mr. Johnson is quite an extraordinary bass singer. He has one of the finest and most polished voices that one should wish to hear. And should be much considered in the musical field, his voice has beauty with color; he is competent and far above the average pupil.
