ROOSEVELT ELECTRIFIES CHICAGO

All along the way the President was the recipient of the grandest reception ever accorded any one here in the memory of man. When he arrived at the Stadium a new and double pandemonium was witnessed. Promptly and fittingly, our beloved Mayor Edward J. Kelly, presented him in the most glowing and appreciative terms—worthy of his greatness. Seated with the President at close range were: Hon. P. A. Nash, National Committeeman; Mayor Edward J. Kelly; Governor Henry Horner; States Attorney Thomas J. Courtney; U. S. District Attorney Michael L. Igoe and many others of equal distinction.

The President's message was a perfect gem, backed by his action in office and it put at rest for all times any fear as well as an end to many light and unsustained charges by those who either do not know the facts and workings of the Federal Government or are just moved by political gain.

More than 50,000 Colored people participated in the President's reception. Committeeman Edward M. Sneed led more than 10,000 with the famous Eighth Regiment Band. President Roosevelt's visit brings hope, courage and stability to ALL of the people. His image on the front page bearing lettered banner carries with it all and the only hope of this country that can be rationally supported by the advanced American people. His visit will never be erased from the minds and hearts of the people of this section. Even Nature, perfect and true, had it's say about the visit of the two candidates for the high office of President. When Landon came here Nature wept and soaked the ground and atmosphere with its tears. When Roosevelt came, that same Nature was bright with smiles and Sun shone and the atmosphere was clean. This was Nature telling the people its feeling in the contest.

The streets were all crowded with evidences of WELCOME filled with love and respect almost fit for a god. The line of march was a spectacle never witnessed before in this city. More than 200,000 people participated in this demon-
