

WOMEN AND THEIR

ACTIVITIES

Superb Musical Program Makes Social History

Senators Entertain Friends By Presenting Outstanding Group of Versatile Artists

Amid an atmosphere designed by old St. Valentine himself and with three of Chicago's most stunning young women, Miss Mattie Johnson, Mrs. Rose Berry, and Miss Doris Murphy acting as hostesses, those debonair young men known to society as the Senators, made social history when on last Sunday afternoon they entertained more than 200 members of the local social set with a superb musical programme followed by delightful chats over beautiful glass cups of hot chocolate.

Every number on the programme was rendered by a well known artist and included Prof. B. Emanuel Johnson, Misses Anita and Zenobia Bracy, Mrs. Pearl Butler, Magdalen De Acklen, Mrs. Lillian Moore, Mrs. Lucille Compton, Miss M. Worthington, Theo T. Greene, Samuel Powers, Samuel Evans, John L. Wilson, Dr. St'as P. Jones, Tressie Pope, The Olivet Male Chorus, Louise Combs Kirtley, Miss Frankie Flemmings, Columbus Greene, and Andrew Welch.

Dr. Mary F. Waring was the principal speaker. The suave young founder of the club, Roosevelt L. Robertson acted as master of ceremonies and the popular president, John Koker, extended welcome to the guests, Pete Hickland was chairman. Other members of this group are Fred Ingram, Isadore A. Pickett, Zed W. Robinson, Marshall J. Henderson, Clarence Mangrum, Edward James, Ray Ford Wilkins, and R. R. Everette.

Among the guests we caught a glimpse of Lillian Kee, Louise Mayfield, Elizabeth Gallout, Mme. Lena Taverbaum, Emily Brown, Julia Horton, Mamie Rice, Maude Ennis, Marguerite Marshall, Lelia Sparks, Anna Corley, Audrey McKee, Roselle Fields, Willa Smith, Estelle Allen, Connie Allen, Sadie Hughes, Jeanette Wilson, Inez Norwood, Lena Jackson, Lula Flowers, Dorothy Hatch, Mable Cook, Minnie Booth, Estelle Young, Dr. Roy A. Gilmore, James J. Bahram, Avery Morris, Hattie Bracy, Herbert Hawes, James Hunter, David Minor, James Allison, William D. Pinkney, Robert Alsup, Robert Martin, Fred D. Evans, Dennis Larry, G. L. Taylor, Leroy Conroy, Bennett E. Duncan, Paducah, Ky., Robert

Peacock Beauty Salon of Thelma Collins, Artistic

The whitewasher and kalsominer have long since been replaced by the painter and decorator—the old barber and barber shop are fast becoming obsolete, in their stead we have the "tonsorial artist" and "tonsorial parlor," the "beauty shoppes" with their hair-dressers and beauticians are rapidly being superseded by "beauty salons" where "beauty culturists" and "cosmeticians" hold sway.

The finest example, on the South Side of this fast growing tendency is the ultra modern Peacock Beauty Salon (see ad—page 11).

The "Salon" proper is a thing of artistic beauty and exquisite taste, but one must visit the "Silhouette Shop" downstairs to behold how completely its genial manager, Miss Thelma Collins, has equipped it, to perform her alchemy of beauty magic, for matrons and maidens of this district.

GIVES SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholarship Committee of the Gaudeamus Woman's Club has extended invitations to the Good Will Scholarship Presentation to Robert O. Davis, Sunday at 4:30 P. M. at the Good Shepherd Congregational Church, 5700 Prairie avenue. Rev. Richard Kellar will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Elnora Franklin, chairman, Mrs. Cora M. Patton, president. Rev. Harold M. Kingsley will be master of ceremonies.

Strong, Memphis, Tenn., Ophelia Williams, Bolzine Gaither, George Warters, William Johnson, William Leonard, Albert Cook, Mrs. S. P. Jones, Lillie Mae Martin and Anna Bell Leonard.

Leaves on Tour

Miss Etta Moten of radio, stage and screen, left here Thursday on the first lap of her early spring tour. She will fill engagements in the East, South, and the middle of March will find her in Oklahoma. She is being presented by the Chicago Artists Bureau. In private life, the noted singer is the wife of Claude A. Barnett, chairman of the Board of Trustees of Provident hospital, and is very popular in the smart social set.

DISTRICT MEET

The Chicago and Northern District Quarterly Meeting will be held Monday, March 1, at Pilgrim Baptist Church, 33rd street and Indiana avenue. The session opens at 9:30 A. M. Mrs. Helen Brascher, president.

Mrs. Willie Shaw Becomes Bride of William Jackson

The wedding of Mrs. Willie Shaw and Mr. William Jackson was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Callen, 3559 Vincennes ave., Saturday, Feb. 20, before an assemblage of friends and relatives. The bride wore a charming wedding gown of pastel blue, a becomingly draped filmy veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

She was followed by two petite young misses, Helen Husband and Ann Lou Allen, who were dressed in pale yellow frocks and carried bouquets of the same kind as the bride. Mrs. Janie Smith, matron of honor, was garbed in a beautifully designed creation of pea green, and matching accessories, carried a bouquet of lilies.

Mr. W. L. Arrington was best man. Rev. Arthur C. Jones of Mt. Calvary Church of God, in Buffalo, New York, officiated at the services. This wedding proved to be one of the most unique, because both principals had children and grandchildren present.

Among the guests were: Mrs. Eddie Mae Gates, daughter, and Helen and Joseph Husband, grandchildren of the bride; Mrs. Mamie Jackson Isbell, daughter of Mr. Jackson, the groom, and William Jackson, son, Mrs. William Jackson, daughter-in-law of the groom; Marie Garth, Ruth Martin, Mrs. Lucille Gales, Mrs. Annie Webb, Mrs. Hattie Jackson, Mrs. M. Felton, Mrs. M. Reynolds, Mrs. Orongs, Mrs. M. Heart, Mrs. M. Tucker, Misses Inez Stokes, Clara Allen and Mabel Brown; Messrs. T. Smith, V. Huges, Ed McDuffie, Eddie Hill, Ira Isell; Mr. and Mrs. Gray, Viontree, Mr. H. Gray.

The quartette, composed of W. L. Arrington, 1st ten., L. Arrington, 2nd ten., T. Smith, baritone, and C. Randolph, bass, rendered several selections before and after the ceremony. A delightful luncheon was served.

Bring your old and lapsed Insurance Policies on living or dead members of your family to

ARCHIBALD B. MARX

INSURANCE COUNSELLOR

4731 So. Parkway Atl. 4504

THEY ARE WORTH MONEY TO YOU

Est. 1929

We Call For and Deliver

The Radio Cleaners and Dyers

LAUNDRY---TAILORS

We Specialize in the cleaning of Ladies' Garments, Mens' Garments, Draperies, Blankets, Rugs, and Carpets, Furs, Gloves, Ties, Etc.

REPAIRING and ALTERATIONS by first class tailor—Dependable Dry Cleaning

Our reputation for quality work and reliable service has stood the test of public opinion for many years.

If you care anything about the appearance of your garments or house furnishings, you should have them dry-cleaned properly and often.

All Phones Yards 7359 4148 Indiana Avenue