"March of Dimes" Tea and Hair Style Show a Success

In a successful campaign climaxed by an exciting Hair Style Show and Tea, the Robbins Unit of the March of Dimes topped the $360 mark.

Part of the funds came from the school children's contribution, the Candy Day Sale, as well as the Tea. Many of the expenses for these affairs were offered free of charge or at discounted prices, so that prac-

Grade Cards Out for Southwest

"Grade cards covering the first semester of school work should be with every parent of our Southwest Building students this week," stated Mr. J. E. Brodie, building principal at the Crawford ave. branch of the District 218 schools. "Every teacher, counselor and administrator at our building is anxious that all marks are understood by parents and are hoping that every parent who has a question of any sort will call me at my office."

Mr. Brodie went on to point out that with the advent of the I.B.M. system of recording and processing all grades, less errors are being made. He also indicated that a full explanation of the grade point system was carried on each grade sheet sent to the parents thru the mail.

tically all funds collected represented net profit.

Mr. Eugene Brown, general chairman of the Robbins Unit and ill in the hospital, was elated to hear of the campaign's success and thanked Mrs. Maple Spearmon, Chairman of the Mothers March, for taking over most of the responsibilities.

The highlight of the campaign was the tea and hair style program in which Mr. Oscar Wilson acted as master of ceremonies. Musical selections were presented by such well known talents as Mrs. Beulah Bell, Mr. James Bell, Mrs. Freida Tucker, the Scott Trio and the Continentals, who also played music for the hair style show. Mr. Brasco Coleman, a teacher in the Robbins school, gave an impressive reading of "The Creation," Rev. Gray, pastor of Union Baptist Church gave the invocation and closed the program with a stirring song.
