

Democratic Canal Policy Justified. The increase of trade on the State canal...

For a time the disastrous break in a part of the canal under the charge of a Republican contractor turned a considerable amount of trade away from the main channel...

In estimating the effect of a liberal system of tolls we must also take into consideration the deficiency in the freightage of coal...

Recollections of the West in the Year 1860. Judge Beckwith, of Pittsburg, Pa. gives the following sketch of Butler, Pa. at an early day.

On my arrival at Butler, there were a few log houses just raised, but not sufficiently completed to be occupied. It was not long before there were two taverns, a store, and a blacksmith shop...

The bar of Pittsburgh attended and the presiding judge, a stiff formal and pedantic old "bachelor" took his seat, supported by two lawyers...
