TEACHERS holding first grade certificates are wanted at Joliet,—ten months for $350 to $450. They will hardly get many first class teachers at those prices.

MCGEE has divided his stock of boots and shoes into two lots, all of those on the East side of the store are offered at just one half the regular price, and are all good work.

BURWELL & BAILEY.—For style and finish, as well as excellence of manufacture, go to Burwell & Bailey's for your hat. What ever you wear always wear a good hat and buy of men who thoroughly understand what a good hat is.

ESCAPE.—A wagon and horse narrowly escaped being smashed at the ferry crossing, owing to the carelessness of the driver, this morning. Had the gray horse not backed out gaallntly we should have had an item.

FIRE.—Two boys set fire to Joseph Straleigh's barn Saturday afternoon. Soon there was nothing left but the site. Inside the barn were a cord of wood, some bran, and some corn. The thoughtlessness of children is proverbial. Nothing was insured.

"SMOLE."—He came into our place and smiled; we asked him a question and he still smiled. We remarked, probably he might be on business; a pleasant expression stole over his face, and, turning on his heel, to take leave of us, he—as delicious Artemas hath it—"smole."

PERSONAL.—W. Spalding, who represents the firm of Dugan, Case & Co., the Chicago Commission Merchants, was in town to-day, looking after the business of the firm in this locality, in his usual brisk manner.

W. A. Draper, the agent of A. K. Lewis & Co., of Covington, Ky., is also 'round taking up their numerous orders in his well known businesslike manner.

FIGHT AMONG DECK HANDS.—As the Belle of LaCrosse was leaving Davenport the demeanour of the deck hands was playful. One of them had vexed the rest, and they playfully tried to deepen his shade by pelting him with pieces of coal. He finally jumped into the river and swam ashore, badly cut and bruised. The officers of the boat had some difficulty in restoring peace as the fight had become general.

For the cure of liver complaint, in all its forms, Taylor's Stomach and Liver Corrector has no equal It expels the miasmatic poison from the system, and prevents many diseases from developing themselves that would otherwise bring on a lingering disease.

The great superiority of this medicine over all others is, it contains no mineral poison, therefore, does not produce any injurious effects whatever upon the constitution.

I. O. O. F.—At Odd Fellows Hall, on Friday evening the 21st inst. Deputy Grand Patriarch Barnaver, installed the following officers of Rock Island Encampment No. 12 I. O. O. F. for the term ending December 31st 1871.

Chas. B. Knox, C. P.
Harry Hanley, H. P.
George Keaugh, S. W.
Thos. A. Johnston, J. W.
L. F. Hanson, Scribe.
Ernst Krell Treas.

RUNAWAY.—About half past seven this morning Carl Hanson's team ran away, with the wagon to which they were hitched, from near Buford's Plow Manufactory; and ran up Illinois street, where, just before Buford's Block they turned,—probably thinking that they were going to cross on the ferry boat. The grey horse, however, seemed to reflect that he had forgotten the money to pay for the ferriage, and abruptly brought the thing to a stand against the new ARGUS building, opposite the post office. The horses were not hurt.

THIS is the season of the year when the system should be thoroughly purged of the humors which create disease. There is no purgative or cathartic so mild and efficacious as HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS, causing neither nausea or griping pains—as in the case with the ordinary cheap patent pills of the day—most of which are composed of calomel or mercury, and carelessly prepared by inexperienced persons. After thoroughly purging the system use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SARSAPERILLA, the great Blood-Purifier, and they will insure new life, new blood and renewed vigor. Try them.

HABIT.—People sometimes form habits, such as swearing, lying, cheating, &c., of which they cannot rid themselves entirely, though they try ever so hard. We once knew a man (Mr. D., and who is now a very worthy Deacon in the church,) who was very profane; in fact, it was just as natural for him to swear, as it was for water to run down hill. During the progress of a revival meeting, this man concluded to turn from the error of his ways, and was received into the church. The church members, and especially the minister, congratulated them selves upon the reformation of such a "hard case." Some two or three weeks elapsed, when there was a meeting appointed for the purpose of hearing the "experience" of the new converts. At the appointed time the house was crowded, the majority of whom were there through curiosity. After several had given in their "experience," Bro. D arose and spoke as follows: "Brothers and sisters, I am convinced that I am a soundly converted man, from a remarkable dream which I had a few nights ago. I dreamed that I saw a ladder extending from earth to Heaven, upon which the angels were descending and ascending. One of them asked me if I did not wish to ascend into Heaven. I replied that I did. I immediately started up, and when I reached the top, there was an intervening space of eight or ten feet. While I was wondering how I should pass this space, Peter, who was standing above me, reached out his hand, told me to take hold of it and jump. I did jump, my brethren, and got one of the d—dest falls you ever heard of; for I jumped out of bed into the middle of the room, and came near breaking my neck."

OUR BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

What lovely faces! What elegance of feminine forms! What charming adornments rise in the mind when we think of beautiful women! And how delightfully fair are the pictures to our mind's eye! And truly a beautiful woman is the masterpiece of breathing creation. "But," said the soured sage, "beauty is only skin deep." Were we inclined so to do, we might split a hair with him upon this statement, and undoutedly should do so, but that in so doing we should be led into a somewhat diffuse series of definitive comparisons between prettiness, handsomeness, and beauty of form. It is not with the anatomy of physical beauty that we wish to deal, however, at present. That we concede, and feel most respectful admiration as we make the concession. Beauty "proper" does not fall to the lot of all women, though a sort of merciful dispensation often conceals the fact from over sensitive minds. For sake of argument it must be admitted that we know one lady who does not enchant us by her personal appearance. We have never seen her face except in quietude, and so cannot tell whether or not she comes under our following definition of the beautiful. Many so called plain women to us are exquisitely beautiful. When over their ill formed or irregular features the bright flood of intelligence flows, and the mind is apparent in the pure light of the radiating smile, then must we, willingly or unwillingly, acknowledge the very fount of beauty. It is so truly said that personal beauty without this vital qualification is as the wonderful world without the great luminary of day, that our individual lamentation over the frequent separation of the real constituents of beauty will be quite enough to recall the fact as a point of great psycho physiognomical interest. How the beauty of natural facial expression is relieved and enhanced by the adventitious aids of culture and refinement, we have all at some time or other, if not frequently, seen and felt. When the naturally nimable, sweet disposition, tempered, it may be, with the purifying element of some bodily or mental grief, becomes visible on the countenance in company with the wonderfully humanizing conditions of high education and that nameless quality which we term, for want of a better medium to explain our meaning, "good breeding," then indeed is beauty unadorned present, and we can but confess it. And though it is so delicious to be within view of physical beauty of the inexpressive order, still we prefer to experience the passive delight which readily finds an echo in the finest and keenest sensibility within us, evoked by that beauty, so emphically the beauty of many a plain face. How the wonderful exponent of the lovely mind strikes the full chord of our purest susceptibilities, and fills us with the tenderest awe and the most elevating pleasure! We would not be understood to deny as an axiom the union of physical and mental beauty; we would merely suggest as a point for consideration, that their union is, to some extent, infrequent. And when we consider the many deteriorating influences to which external beauty is subject from the very moment of its appearance in the world, from the subtle or gross batteries, extravagant homage, and other such causes, almost always operating before the mind has had time or opportunity to develop into its higher types, this is not surprising. Yet if it is difficult for a woman to be beautiful within and without, must it not be difficult for a woman to be beautiful within, when she sees that her externals are not pleasing to others?

In our own beautiful city, and our Island of rock that stands in the river and stems the current of the great Father of Waters, we can see beauty in all its presentations. As the ladies pass down our streets before the public gaze they little think, we imagine, now they are judged upon their merits. We opine that even now, in what used to be called "the far west," there are few in collection in any place their peers.

THE PROHIBITORY LAWS.

In addition to the forbidding word "prohibitory," the laws precluding the sale of liquor in this State, upon Sunday, present many reprehensible features to the public. Tell the bibbers of a city that they can and shall not imbibe therein on Sunday, and give them to understand that they cannot do so outside the city, and, lo! and behold! they are seized with additional thirst, and so surely as Sunday comes round, you can see them trooping out to the beer gardens, and other places, where they swill beer, and being congregated—occasionally become "excited." A point is that were these men dispersed over the saloon accommodations which the city affords they would behave decently,—not being in a crowd at any one point. We should thus hear less of disturbances, and the noisy homeward travel of men who, in some instances, have gone out of town to bring home all the beer they would require to last till Monday. These gentlemen do not like to be seen carrying beer cans on a Sunday, and so are, in some measure, obliged to carry it home "concealed." Meeting at one spot with a superfluity of friends it is, not infrequently, a bad thing for the "house purse." Every one who has ever been in a saloon knows how, when four or five acquaintances meet, the beer—or a point of etiquette—goes round four or five times or even more, and many of the folks interested on such occasions on the Sabbath know that this forcible exhibition of acquaintanceship is wholly unnecessary. Then again, a certain, and large portion of those living in the heart of our city have always been used to send out for a reasonable amount of beer; which they prefer to use at dinner to using tea or coffee. Some of these same people have persisted in taking a glass of beer to their dinner notwithstanding that they knew that they had no right to do so on Sunday. They did not know that this was a free country though they had heard that some where, and, perhaps forgotten it as soon as they saw how the thing was really working in Rock Island. The children and hired helps of these citizens, as well as themselves have—as the laws now are—to crowd, or insinuate, themselves into what is, probably, an assemblage of men who are, in consequence of what we above hinted at, hardly in a drawing room at the moment when the tender and fair ones enter. Enough has already been said to fairly display the partiality of the Prohibitory Laws. We just itemize the fact that we can buy our cigar on Sunday without let or hindrance. Those who deal should be allowed to deal fairly.

THE LEAVENWORTH DAILY GAZETTE.—We have on our desk a copy of the Leavenworth, (Kansas) Daily Gazette, of which W. H. Rossington is the editor. It will be a source of satisfaction to Mr. Rossington's friends to know that the old ARGUS man is doing well, and doing his best to do good. We heartily wish him good luck. The Leavenworth Gazette is a good sheet, and will lose nothing by having such an able writer as Mr. Rossington.

CAPT. JAMES MAY'S $80,000 SUIT.—We find the following in the Pittsburg Commercial, which may be of interest to many of our citizens who have known of the long and stubborn contest that Capt. May has had with his suit:

We learn that our old friend, Capt. James May, formerly a resident of this city, but for a number of years past a citizen of Rock Island, Illinois, has just succeeded is obtaining a decree in his favor, in the United States Supreme Court, in Washington, in a case wherein he claimed some $80,000 The litigation commenced eleven years ago, and the Captain has pressed his claim, step by step, until a just judgment has been obtained. The case was one wherein Capt. May not only claimed the sum stated, but he charged in his bill in equity that Antoine Leclaire, John P. Cook, Ebenezer Cook, George B. Sargent, Louis C. Dessaint and George L. Davenport, all of Davenport, Iowa, had been guilty of fraud and conspiracy, in endeavoring to deprive him of his legal rights. It appears that the Supreme Bench have made a unanimous decision, awarding the Captain substantially what he claimed, and sustained the material allegations in his bill. Captain May is well known to many of our citizens, who will be pleased to learn that he has been successful in his suit. The parties against whom the decree has been issued are amply able to make the restriction which the Court demands of them.

POLICE NEWS.—Justice Cropper disposed of a few items to-day, which were probably important to the itemists, and more so to their families.

Henry Rosenfield had disturbed the peace of the city, and was, in consequence, mulcted in the penalty of $5 and costs.

Elias Ingraham was proven to have been overcome with—probably benzine and beer $5 and costs.

It was then shown to the worthy Magistrate that Peter Erickson had been very drunk; so much so, that the guardians of the peace had to assist. He was fined $3 and costs.

NEXT, Gotlieb Miller and Jacob Lass were convicted of having disturbed the peace, and the fine was individually assessed at $5 and costs.

A DAVENPORT HONOR.—We met an old acquaintance to-day, a lumber merchant from Wisconsin, whom we know to be a straight forward man, who tells us that he sold a lumber dealer, of Davenport, a bill of lumber some time about the first of May, and left some of the details of the trade to the said Davenporters honor. He is now of the opinion that if a man's honor is to keep him from the place that is "paved with good resolution," that Davenporter will certainly be obliged to go there.

A bright, healthy baby is a perennial spring of joy in every well-regulated family, and where is that father, who after the strife and turmoil of business, on retiring to his home, is not beguiled of care by the innocent prattle of his child? Perhaps this father is a worldly man, and makes gold his idol, he may have been a successful man, and amassed riches. Yet place his child on the sick bed, and all his gold is at the disposal of the physician, and the only return he asks is the restoration of health to his child. Fathers! Mothers! would you preserve your child in health? Then listen to us. There is one prevailing cause of the disease in children, and that cause is worms. If this cause of disease is not removed, your child will sicken and die, or linger a suffering invalid for life. We present to you an infallible remedy for worms; it is and is put up in the form of a stick of candy, and so pleasant to the taste, that children greedily tease for it. It is purely vegetable, and cannot hurt the smallest child. Ask for Dr. Judson's Dead Shot Worm Candy. For sale everywhere at 25 cents per package. W. H. COMSTOCK, dec6 Sole Proprietor.

In numbers there is safety. It was upon this principle that the formula of JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS was prepared. Dr. Judson, intending to spend a fortune in advertising his pills, submitted his recipe to the revision of the most intelligent and learned physicians of the age, and the result is a simple but most efficacious medicine—the JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS. They purify the blood, remove all obstructions, cleanse the skin of all pimples and blotches, and are perfectly sure and safe in their operation. The JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS cure Biliousness, Female irregularities, Headache, and many of the diseases arising from impure blood and a deranged digestion. Use the Judson's Mountain Herb Pills, and when you have proved their virtue recommend them to your friends. They are both sugar coated and plain. For sale every where.

If you do not feel well you send for a doctor, he calls upon you, looks wise, scrawls some hieroglyphics upon a piece of paper which you take to a drug store and there pay 50 cents to $1 00, besides the doctor's fee, for a remedy nine times out of ten not half so good as Dr Morse's Indian Root Pills, which costs but 25 cents per box. Do you think the former the best, because you pay the most for it? If you do, we advise you to use, just as an experiment, the Morse's Indian Root Pills. They are prepared from a formula, pronounced by the most learned physicians of our country, to be the best and most universal of family medicines. The Morse's Indian Root Pills cure Headache, Liver complaint, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Female Irregularities, &c., and are put up both sugar-coated and plain. Give them a trial. Sold by all dealers.

MUSEUM, CARAVAN, MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS.

WAIT FOR THE BIG SHOW

SAVE YOUR MONEY FOR THE MASTADON OF MERIT.

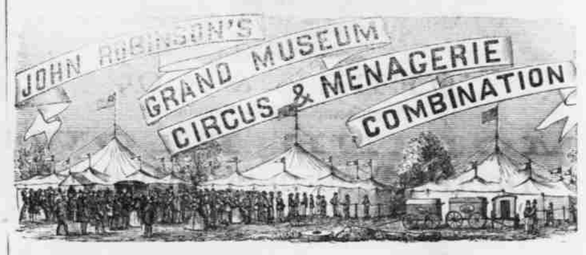
AT ROCK ISLAND,

Tuesday, Aug. 1, '71.

The Only and Original

OLD JOHN ROBINSON'S

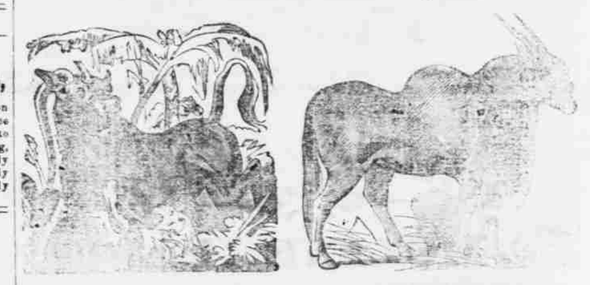
First Grand Triumphal Tour of the States West and North of the Ohio River in Five Years.



3 Monster Pavilions

One exclusively for the Museum, another expressly for the Menagerie and Caravan, and the third devoted to the Equestrian Performances, all adjoining and connected together, but only one price of admission, and one ticket admits you to all. ADMISSION to the entire Combination, Menagerie, Caravan, Museum and Circus:

Adults, 50 Cents; Children under 10 years, 25 Cents.



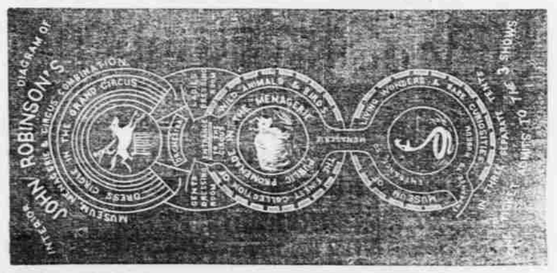
WAIT FOR IT! WATCH FOR IT! GO AND SEE IT!

The only Real Menagerie and First-Class Circus on the Road.

25 GOLD AND CRIMSON CAGES!

Drawn by beautiful matched Cream and Dappled Horses—all the Circus Retinue—Largest and Best Parade ever seen on the Public Streets.

Diagram of Old John Robinson's Museum, Caravan, Menagerie and Circus:



FOUR MONSTER

LIVING SEA LIONS!

With their Young. PLATYRHYNCHUS LEONENUS, or SEA ELEPHANTS, with Mane erect like the Forest Monarchs, requiring over

Two Hundred Pounds of Fresh Fish daily for their subsistance!

The only ones on exhibition in the World, and can be seen in this Menagerie, at all hours SPORTING IN AN ARTIFICIAL LAKE OF OCEAN WATER.

A Wild Tartarian

MONSTER YAK!

From the Deserts of Tartary, with long, beautiful hair growing from his back to the ground. THE ONLY ONE ON EXHIBITION IN AMERICA.

Don't confound this with a ny Small Show or Menagerie, but bear in mind that

Old John Ro hinson, the Leviathan,

Is triumphantly marching on, and will positively exhibit at ROCK ISLAND, ILLINOIS and Davenport, Iowa. Don't confound this Gigantic Organization with the Yankee Robinson Show which traveled this country in past times, nor with the James Robinson Circus that showed here last season, or with the so-called J. W. (Galesburg, Illinois) Robinson, a fraud, humbug and impostor, seeking to entice and delude the people of Illinois into his rat-trap of a concern, by falsely representing himself and Show as Simon Pure, for it is in no way, shape or manner, connected with either or any of them, but is the Old Original JOHN ROBINSON, of Cincinnati, Ohio, sixty-five years of age, with fifty years experience as an owner of a Menagerie. He has spent years of toil and vast sums of money to bring his monster Museum, Menagerie, Caravan and Circus to the high state of perfection which it now assumes, the Challenge Champion Show of the World.

REMEMBER THE DAY AN D DATE.

Do not forget that we are coming with an Avalanche of Tale. Wait for us, for we are coming to Rock Island, Tuesday, Aug. 1, '71.
