HORNET cash prices paid for old iron, brass, copper, etc., at the Rock Island Iron Works.

A had cold can be speedily cured by using Norman's Chalybeate Cough Syrup.

SOMETHING OF AN APPLE—Mr. Lucius Wells of Hampton, lays on our table a Duchess of Oldenberg pipin which only weighs twenty-five ounces.

To PENSIONERS.—The U. S. Pension Agency at Chicago is a total loss.

We learn that Capt. Havenskiold of the Rock Island Union, says that his "first edition" cannot be beat, and that he is going to take the prize at the next baby show.

By being himself a candidate he certainly will.

WANTED—A decent Democratic newspaper in Rock Island. So many of the party.

Japhet in search of his father was not a circumstance to Havenskiold in search of a Democratic party. Persevere, brother.

FEVER and AGUE of many years standing has been cured by the use of Norman's Ague Pills.

THE RESCUE ENGINE.—Messrs Clapp & Jones have telegraphed twice that if Rock Island doesn't intend to pay for the Rescue Engine, to ship it to Chicago at once.

HEAVY DART'S SON, wholesale grocer of this city, are receiving full lines of staple goods from New York.

Is families where there are young children, Norman's Chalybeate Cough Syrup should be always kept.

RETURNED FROM EUROPE.—By a private letter, we learn that Dr. Charles T. Ryan formerly of Davenport, and a few years ago a student under Dr. Peck, has just returned from a lengthy stay in Dublin, London, Edinburgh, Paris, and Madrid.

A NEW—Our citizens were thrown into a tremor of excitement, this afternoon by the report that half of Muscatine had burnt down, that the fire was still raging, and that dispatches had been forwarded to all points in this vicinity, pressingly calling for engines and aid.

FISK TROUBLED.—We never yet saw a better turnout at Dart's Hall than greeted Carl Wagner and his happy clans, last evening.

A SWEET SCENTED LOCALITY.—We call attention of our city authorities to the smoking condition of the alley running from East Eagle to Washington street, and between Front and Illinois streets.

IMPROVEMENT, one of the causes of Dyspepsia, is speedily cured by the use of Norman's Chalybeate Tonic.

NOT COMING.—The faithful of the republican flock hereabouts will weep and wail and gnash their teeth to learn that that immortal home-guard hero, Gen. Beveridge, will not be able to sound his gong-gang for their edification, at the Court House in this city, as was recently expected.

USE NORMAN'S UNIVERSAL MAGIC LINIMENT for Rheumatic Toothache, Earache, &c. It never fails. For sale by W. G. Morris Agent, Moline, Ill.

A HOME INSTITUTION.

The Rock Island Iron Works.

We took a stroll up to the Rock Island Iron Works, the other day, to see how that important home institution flourishes.

The proprietors, Messrs. Tim Babcock, John E. Bready, and A. F. Fleming, are just the men to lead a successful enterprise.

The former have each enjoyed much business experience, while Mr. Fleming for twenty-three years occupied responsible positions under the Government.

The late chief clerk of the Bartis House will hereafter be proprietor of the Ogilvie House, at Muscatine.

We are requested to mention that the Western Rural of Chicago, will be issued again within a month.

Hurrah for Brigham! Out of the multitude of his wives, he will have a thousand dollars to spare for Chicago.

People are beginning to be "taken in" on the "Chicago sufferer" game, all around the country.

On account of some accident in machinery, the Davenport Gazette was not issued until about ten o'clock this morning.

The officers of the Keilburg report seeing a big fire at Muscatine, last night, while passing that city.

Shipping over the C. R. I. & P. R. R. set now goes on as lively as before the fire, and a considerable amount of business is being done with Chicago direct.

We understand that our Baptist friends, editate making, some slight change in the architectural embellishments of their new church within a short time to come.

William Bottom, who displayed his bottom in beating Condou on the Illinois street race course, a few evenings ago, left for Quincy, today, with his family and effects.

We are now regularly receiving the Chicago Post and Journal, which are not to be had at newstands, we believe.

Harry Platt, who has been at Galesburg for some time past, and who originally graduated at the Ames office, is back to Rock Island again, and somewhat expected to remain here.

We like to keep track of the Union's enterprise—the only paper now published in Illinois, a dispatch from Cairo describes a recent visit.

Mac Wiser, the genial junior baronet of the Court House, is going to Quincy on Tuesday evening, and on his return will take a glance at the enders of Chicago.

The sunlight is red on the river, and the woods are exceedingly brown, and I will say trouter and buggy, have come, love, take thee to town!

The steamer Keilburg will not ply on the Dubuque and Prescott trade, as we stated last evening.

The Grand Duke Alex., we understand, intends to visit Rock Island some time in the fall, and will respect the government works and other interesting points in the vicinity.

We dropped in at Epstein & Bro.'s establishment in Harper's Block this morning, and took a look at their splendid new stock of jewelry—the finest ever brought to Rock Island.

The Government sounding party, at work in the Rapids between La Claire and Rock Island, have reached Moline.

WHAT DO THEY STUDY?—Some people may desire to know what those big poster-signs, which have suddenly ornamented two-thirds of the city within twenty-four hours.

BOBAPS.

No police affairs here since Monday, to-day! Coal Valley is to have a handsome new depot.

Father Roles left for California last evening. There is a big demand for laborers at Chicago.

The steamboat Gipsy was sunk near Keokuk on last Sunday night.

There will be no packet up to-morrow. The Muscatine will be down.

Our regular installment of Indian summer is putting in an appearance.

Dr. Lyons, who was stabbed at Davenport, evidently intends to get well again.

The river is rising at a rate that promises a good boating stage before ten days.

Aledo sent $500 to Chicago, and two carloads of provisions. Also expects to do more.

Riches take wings unto themselves, and do no groceries. Consult Wing the grocer for family supplies.

The late chief clerk of the Bartis House will hereafter be proprietor of the Ogilvie House, at Muscatine.

We are requested to mention that the Western Rural of Chicago, will be issued again within a month.
