CHIPS.

WHEN statehood comes, what will become of poor little Frank J. Cannon? He will have to give up his seat in Congress before he even got to say, "Mr. Speaker."

THAT dazzling meteoric statesman, Isaac Trumbo, like a moth, is fluttering around the senatorial blaze and still trying to catch on. He is as prominent in Washington as "Schooner Jim" is in Salt Lake, and is about as useful. He is stuck on himself, like the glue pot of love between a young mother and her first baby. Will we ever get a rest from this bundle of self-conceit?

WE can supply you with everything for the holidays in Wines, Whiskies, Brandies, Cigars, etc. M. E. Mulvey & Co, 213 South Main Street.

A WAR cloud no bigger than a "man's hand" has arisen between the United States and Great Britain. It may grow to immense size in a few days, or it may fade away into nothingness. But anyway "watch the heavens."

FOR first class groceries and family supplies, visit Wiscomb & Co., 58 E. First South St.

IF Uncle Sam and John Bull want to fight, we suggest Venezuela as the battle ground, and we guarantee no interference from the police. Let the winner take both purses and the gate receipts. We trust it will be no Corbett-Fitzsimmons affair. We will back Uncle Sam either on land or water.

FOR clothing, furnishing goods hats and caps, visit O'Reilly's, 210 Main Street.

HON. C. E. ALLEN soon expects to don the Congressional robes, and pour his iron logic into the ears of the country. Mr. Allen beat one of the best men in Utah for Congress, and was elected by a greatly reduced majority. We fought him hard during the campaign, but now that the fight is ended, we will cheerfully give our Congressman our support in all things tending to benefit our great people. We have always thought Mr. Allen was rather cold blooded, but he may have a "soul of fire concealed under an exterior of ice." We trust he will bring honor to himself and blessings to Utah.

FROM the Payson Globe of Dec. 14th:

"J. F. Taylor, editor of the BROAD AX, was in the city yesterday and paid the Globe office a short visit."

We want to return our thanks to Editor C. W. Jackson for the kind favors shown us while we were in Payson during the past week.

S. B. NEWMAN.

OPPOSITE THEATRE.

THE detailed financial report of Judge Powers as chairman of the Democratic State committee, published last Monday, is an honest, straightforward account of stewardship, and shows that there was no corruption fund or improper use of money on the part of the Democrats to win the election. We would add to the report by saying that the item of $40, charged to the BROAD AX, was for two thousand copies distributed throughout the territory through the committee, and that we never received a cent as a donation; the above amount being about the actual cost of printing. We notice that some of the mushroom papers got a slice of pie, but the BROAD AX got nothing but what it paid for.

CHRISTMAS CHIPS,

TO WARM THE FIRES OF BROTHERHOOD.

A SACK of flour or a ham sent to the home of the poor neighbor, who is sick and out of work, will bring more pleasure to the square man, both to you and him, than all the "Tom and Jerry" in town. Try this receipt once.

A PAIR of shoes on Christmas eve, given to a widow or a barefoot child, will cure insomnia, even with a praying Christian.

THE C. B. Durst Grocery Company are receiving their new goods for the holidays. They are end men. Give them a call.

A LOAD of coal sent to the cheerless home of that poor neighbor will not only bring comfort to him, but it will warm your whole soul much more than that new suit of clothes your wife gave you as a Christmas present, for which you gave her the money.

FOR all kinds of Christmas presents, such as silverware, jewelry, fancy goods, and toys, in great variety at the lowest prices, visit the Golden Rule Bazaar, 227, and its Branch, 43 Main Street.

GO to church, make long prayers and chant hymns, if you like; but don't forget that the Lord thinks more of a charitable sinner about this time of the year than he does of a selfish Christian. Heaven is not offering a prize on prayer, but one who cares for the poor will get a free admission ticket.
