

LAST EDITION

LAST EDITION

"MA'AM?"—A SHORT STORY BY GOUVERNEUR MORRIS, STARTS IN THIS ISSUE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.
By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 18

Chicago, Saturday, Oct. 18, 1913

ONE CENT

MRS. PANKHURST GREAT AS MOSES! WOMEN SHOULD WELCOME HER

So Says Mrs. Raymond Robins, National President of All Women's Trade Union Leagues of America, and Hailed a "Woman World-Builder"—She Tells Why the English Leader of Militants Is a Figure in World-History.

BY H. P. BURTON

(Copyright, 1913, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

"Emmeline Pankhurst, rushing towards America now, is as gigantic a figure in the history of the great world as Moses!

"She is the wonderful prophet who, with a ballot as her rod, is surely going to strike out of the rock in which it has been deep-buried for centuries, that as yet unknown, that as yet untasted spring—woman's personality!"

Mrs. Raymond Robins is the speaker. Mrs. Robins is the national president of the Women's Trade Union League of America and she has practically, in her hands for the moulding, the lives of millions of girls who work—girls who work in shops and factories throughout the land. And such a unique and revolutionary force is she bringing to bear on the lives of working women that a great writer on "the feminine movement" has just included her among the dozen leading "Women as World Builders."

"Every woman, and especially the woman-who-works in America, should be training her eager eyes toward the Statue of Liberty in New