

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Nutley, N. J.—Wm. Brandol postponed self-destruction until he had eaten some of his wife's corned beef and cabbage. A note said he committed suicide to escape further house cleaning.

St. Paul.—Mrs. Susie Langford released after she pleaded guilty to passing forged check in local store. Word received here that her husband had been sentenced to five years in N. Y. for forgery yesterday.

Denver.—Dutin Christman, sentenced to 30 days in county jail for vagrancy, is wanted in Jefferson City, Mo., as a fugitive from insane asylum there.

Madison.—Gov. McGovern today vetoed Scott bill reducing time limit within which action may be brought against insurance companies for loss by fire from six to two years.

Madison.—Sen. H. Teasdale introduced bill prohibiting boys under 21 from playing pool, billiards or bowling in public places and prohibiting loitering of minors in pool halls and bowlin galleys. Keeper will be fined $25.

Madison.—Senate killed Wiegles bill dividing state into ten "health districts."

Oakland, Cal.—H. J. Jannsen, Los Angeles aviator, killed when struck by whirling propeller.

London.—Countess of Cottenham found shot to death in woods near Goring. Had been hunting. Family stated death was accidental.

Rome.—Pope Pius X. after illness of many weeks received Cardinals Pompili and Delai today.

London.—$500,000 freight depot completely destroyed and $2,500 loss in fire in local school, which is believed to have been work of militant suffragettes. "Votes for women" posters found about two structures.

New York.—Magistrate Marsh decided ownership of "Shep," a collie, by putting Mrs. Morrissey and Mrs.

Maurer on opposite sides of courtroom and having them call the dog. "Shep" went to Miss Morrissey.

Washington.—Mrs. W. J. Bryan has returned from sanitarium to her home. Recovered from her recent illness.

Toledo, O.—Reported at National Cloak, Suit & Skirt Association meeting here that fall and winter styles for women will include all kinds of animal effects.

Los Angeles.—G. H. Bixby, millionaire banker of Long Beach, arrested here on two grand jury indictments charging him with contributing to delinquency of minors.

SENTENCED TO 14 YEARS IN PEN FOR KILLING MAN WITH AUTO

A jury in Judge Cooper's court yesterday shattered all precedent by sentencing Lawrence Lindbloom, 24, taxicab chauffeur, to fourteen years in Joliet prison for running over and killing Joseph Weiss, cigarmaker, 846 E 43d street, with an automobile, August 5, 1910. Assistant State's Attorney Stephan A. Malato prosecuted the case.

The defendant was accused of running his auto wild at 25th street and Cottage Grove avenue, where the tragedy took place. The wheels of the taxicab picked up Weiss and carried him two blocks. It was asserted that Lindbloom made no attempt to stop the car. Weiss died at Mercy Hospital three days later.

Weiss' 7-year-old daughter died of grief three weeks after her father was killed, according to Mrs. Martha Weiss, the widow.

There were four automobile owners on the jury that returned the verdict.

Lindbloom resided at 419 E. 25th street. At the time of the killing of Weiss he was employed by the People's Gas, Light & Coke Company. He was engaged to be married.

Lindbloom's attorneys made a motion for a new trial which will be heard May 10.