THEODORE ROOSEVELT, SHOT BY LUNATIC, RESTING EASILY AT MERCY HOSPITAL

Bulletin.

"Colonel Roosevelt is resting easily. The bullet wound is in the chest wall. It did not strike any vital organ. The point of entrance and one inch below the level of the right nipple. There is no evidence that the bullet penetrated the lung. The colonel's temperature is 98.8. His pulse is 92. His respiration is normal. General condition is hopeful, but the wound is so serious as to demand absolute rest for a number of days.

"John B. Murphy,
"Arthur Dean Bevan,
"Scurry I. Terrell,
"R. G. Sayle."

This is the latest bulletin given out by the physicians in attendance on Col. Roosevelt this afternoon.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt is in the Mercy Hospital suffering from a bullet wound in the chest.

He is resting easily, and, while the wound is serious, he is expected to live.

Roosevelt was shot by John

Schrank of New York in Milwaukee last night.

Schrank is a lunatic. He pleaded guilty to shooting Roosevelt in the Milwaukee district court today and was bound over to the next term of the municipal court in $5,000 bonds.

Schrank says that he is not sorry he shot Roosevelt, and that he only wishes he had killed him.

The latest report from the Mercy Hospital is that Roosevelt is rapidly recovering and that he is sitting up in bed reading Macaulay.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Ethel Roosevelt and Alice Roosevelt Longworth all are on their way here.

The shooting of Roosevelt occurred in front of the Gilpatrick Hotel, Milwaukee, shortly after 8 o'clock last night.

Roosevelt left the hotel and climbed on the running board of his automobile.

He was starting for the Auditorium Hotel, where he was scheduled to deliver a speech.

There was a crowd of thou-
