

Indeed, ever since Bryan told the delegates that they "would hear from the corn fields" if they voted with the Morgan-Ryan-Belmont crowd, a perfect deluge of telegrams has poured into Baltimore.

That's what's worrying the delegates. They'd like to help out some of the bosses, but if they did they know they couldn't go home again.

Statistic fiend has figured out that average amount of money which delegates left is 39½ cents, and that's pretty high for some.

Friday was an "unlucky" day to nominate a president; everyone knows you never finish anything you start on Saturday; Sunday was the Lord's day; Monday is—oh, well, what would you call it if you had 39½ cents, and no prospects of getting a drink!

Dr. J. M. Burke, chief surgeon of Seaboard Air Line, got a cute little telegram from home today, which is in his case, is Petersburg, Va. It read:

"If you want to live in Petersburg, vote for Wilson, "and it was signed by the most prominent residents of Petersburg.

Washington.—The House today voted full confidence in Speaker Champ Clark "regardless of political affiliations."

—o—o—
"Why are you so vexed, Irma?"

"I am exasperated! I attended the meeting of the Social Equality League and my parlor maid presided, and she had the audacity to call me out of order three times."

ANSWERS

I have been keeping company with a girl for nine months and would like to make her my wife. I have not the means just now. Should I propose to her now and ask her to wait three months. Should I have the ring for her when I propose?—T. N. C.—If you have every reason to believe that you will be able to make her your wife within a short time propose to her now, explaining the situation. She probably would not be ready to marry you immediately anyway. It is not necessary to have the ring when proposing.

—o—o—
What will remove ink stains from white cotton material?—Anxious.—Paints the spots with cyanide of potassium applied with a small camel's hair brush. As soon as the spots disappear rinse well in clear cold water and then wash in the usual way. Don't leave the cyanide of potassium around carelessly where there are children.

HE GOT THE STONE

"My vord, Jacob," said Steinberg, "zat is a beautiful diamond you have in your tie. How much did it cost?"

"I paid $200," replied Jacob.

"$200!" exclaimed Steinberg. "Vy, I did not know you had so much money."

"Vell, you see," explained Jacob, "ven ze old man died he left $200 for a stone to be erected to his memory, and zis is ze stone."