

years, Mrs. Harmes Baba found hubby running restaurant at 631 Wells st. Chicago avenue police station for hubby.

100 police were detailed to the "black belt" to prevent any undue expression of enthusiasm over Johnson's victory last night. But they weren't needed.

Funeral services of Former Mayor George B. Swift were held from his residence, 5122 Washington av., this afternoon. City hall was closed today out of respect to Swift's memory.

500 employes of Goodman machine shop, 48th and Halsted sts., have gone on strike for 8-hour instead of 9-hour day. Goodman refused to treat with the men.

Edward Duggan, 38, 1415 S. Wabash av., struck by Cottage Grove av. car at Wabash and 14th sts. Collar bone and rib fractured. St. Luke's Hospital.

Sam Jones, negro cook on City of Benton Harbor, shot negro helper as boat was returning from excursion. Jones arrested.

Woodrow Wilson has decided that first meeting of new national committee shall be held at Congress hotel, July 15.

Norman E. Mack and a few other bosses had decided the meeting would be at New York, but that didn't make a particle of difference.

Frank Nigl, 3413 Hirsch st., died at Alexian Brothers' hospital of injuries suffered in fall down elevator shaft.

Independent Order of B'Nai B'rith is to make international investigation of white slave traffic.

Adolph Kraus, 4518 Drexel blvd., to represent U. S.

Mrs. Ella O'Neill, 5403 Aberdeen st., died of injuries suffered in fall from second story window of home.

Rudolph Zuegler, 3120 North Troy st., playfully fired revolver to frighten bathers at Diversey Beach, Lincoln Park. Police station.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young will lead insurgent fight of school teachers against bossism of Nicholas Murray Butler at National Educational Association.

Butler, you will remember, drew up Taft platform, thus taking rank with the world's greatest conundrum writers.

Butler has been trying his standpat bossism on the N. E. A., and the members don't like it. So they're going to bust doc's steam roller.

Genevieve Cook, 3127 Washington blvd., and Hedwig Hochbaum, 1827 Kenilworth ave., champ walkers of Prairie club, walked to Milwaukee, and came home—by train.

American Medicine, a medical publication, says hobble skirts are causing American girls to lose their moral sense.

Shoemakers should stick to their lasts, and doctors to their dope.

Mrs. Eliz. Kocenska, 21, 5015 W. 24th place, tried suicide by gas asphyxiation in her home. Husband arrived in time.

Robert Hanna, 60, 3727 Grand Boulevard, knocked down by Clark st. car at Belden ave. "Kid-