DEATH WAS UNLUCKY—WAS A GREAT RACE AT THAT!

And Look at All the Money That Was Simply Burned Up! Every Desirable Feature Except Spilled Blood at Year's Biggest, Craziest Speed Meet at Indianapolis.

example in the whole category of American speed mania.

Forty-eight men shook dice with Death for a stake of $60,000, in the presence of 80,000 spectators.

Death was unlucky that day, and most of the 80,000 were dis-

$200,000 worth of speed machines at the start—worth less than $100,000 at the finish of the race.

Indianapolis, June 1.—(Special.)—The Decoration Day auto races on the famous Indianapolis motor speedway were the craziest appointed. Many of them, too, had lost bets on the number of fatalities.

It was a pretty sport, all the
