

WHAT HAPPENED OUTSIDE CHICAGO

New York.—William C. Stewart, father of Mrs. Nannie Stewart Leeds, is dying, but wife and stepdaughter, from whom he is estranged, are not at bedside.

Tampa, Fla.—Capt. Laporte, French steamship Leconer, reported that body of Capt. Caudal, who commanded missing French steamship Belle Isle, had been found off Cherbourg, France.

Mays Landing, N. J.—Ira Bean, 81, who fought in 33 battles of civil war, discharged from Old-Soldiers' home, Vineland, because he disobeyed waitress and drank milk intended for another veteran.

Seattle, Wash.—House subcommittee appointed to investigate Judge Hanford, examined John Speed Smith, naturalization clerk, who started disfranchisement of Leonard Olsson.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Valeska Suratt, musical comedy actress, who used to be cash girl here, and who has habit of appearing in plays that police later stop, is bankrupt. Owes $42,479 and has $18,250.

Garnett, Kan.—5 firemen killed and 5 others injured in fire that destroyed furniture factory and electric plant.

Philadelphia.—Bertha Bor-druck fell off car, announced she had broken leg, called for some glue and nails to fix. Leg was wooden.

Terre Haute, Ind.—Special convention Indiana United Mine Workers to be held July 25. May leave national organization.

New York.—Nathan Allen, wealthy Kenosha, Wis., business man, who was fined $1,200 for smuggling for Mrs. Helen D. Jenkins, must answer her suit for $100,000.

New York.—So far no women have volunteered services for army of Luisa Capetillo, Porto Rican Joan of Arc, who plans to free women from bondage of skirts.

Dayton, Wyo.—Mrs. Sussie Wissler, new mayor of Dayton, announced that she would not let women impose upon men.

New York.—Mrs. John Sullivan heard that husband died while serving term on Blackwell's Island. Took supposed corpse and buried it. Real John came home and walloped wife. Will go back.

Charlestown, W. Va.—William Seymour Edwards, Edwards Oil Co., is planning to have deepest hole in world built on company's grounds. Deepest hole so far is in South America; 6,000 feet.

Philadelphia.—Hans Langbeth, Siberian immigrant, landed with beard 11 feet 6 inches long. Took 36 years to grow.

Philadelphia.—Coroner's jury, made up of clergymen, rendered verdict of gross negligence against Frank McCune, driver of auto that killed man.

New York.—Charles W. Morse, banker, recently set free from Atlantic prison, sued for $1,000,000 damages by N. Y. Assets Realty Company.

New York.—Fire broke out on 42nd floor Woolworth bldg.