R. Crampton will shortly after the first of the year vacate the building at 1725 Second avenue, occupied by him for the past 24 years, and seek a smaller storeroom, which will answer his purposes fully as well. The store so long held by Mr. Crampton will be taken possession of by another Rock Island mercantile house, and the change will involve other removals in Rock Island business houses.

Women With Hysterical Knees.

I read somewhere the other day that this winter's new gowns will have a wadded lining, reaching a foot or more above the hem, to prevent cold or rheumatism, which is today a general complaint among my sex. Very many women are unquestionably victims to aching limbs, but now I learn the physicians call this trouble hysterical knees, or that it is an affection of the nerves centered at that joint. Certain it is that in this cold climate women do go about insufficiently protected, just as children did before their long leggings were introduced. Again and again, with shoulders weighted under furs, with heavy coat, muff, boa and veil, they will go out in a small blizzard having nothing stouter than a silk stocking guarding ankle to knee. It may be one of those pretty inconsistencies that make women so charming, but I am satisfied one thickness of flannel would rout all the hysteria in all the knees now causing the owners so much discomfort.—American Woman's Illustrated Journal.

Citizen Train Is Happy.

"Speech is silver, but silence is golden," said George Francis Train at the Palmer House yesterday, "and I am going to relapse into silence again. For 14 years I refused to speak to a man or woman, and I am going back to New York on a scalper's ticket and in Madison square resume my old occupation of silence. I have had a good time in Chicago. I have lived at a hotel and had a nice room on the first floor, counting from the top of the building. Five hundred servants of the hotel have been at my beck and call. The mucilage pot, pen and ink and stationery have been supplied me, all for $1 a day. When I am hungry, I go down to a lunchroom and get a plate of wheat cakes and a cup of coffee for 15 cents. I am happy and have solved the problem of living."—Chicago Tribune.
