"Story Lady" Pleases With Her Address Before Woman's Club

Saturday afternoon's Rock Island Women's club program was one of the treats of the year, for Miss Georgiana Faulkner, known everywhere as the "Story Lady," gave a most inspiring talk. She spoke at length on the necessity of the mother being always ready to answer the questions of the child and urged them not to allow themselves to be too busy to take time to tell them stories when they ask for them.

outgoing boards would be held responsible for bills contracted during their terms of office. Mrs. R. J. Rote reported that the next meeting of the city welfare department would be on Dec. 12, when Mrs. H. H. Cleveland will be speaker.

Mrs. C. L. Thompson, who was a delegate to the Equal Suffrage association's 51st annual convention, Oct. 30 and 31 at the Hotel LaSalle Chicago, gave a report. It was voted that a committee of five be appointed to meet with like committees from other organizations to form a permanent state wide suffrage organization.

Miss Faulkner urged parents not to allow children to read the comic supplements of the papers as they are not the kind to inspire high thoughts, although she granted that they were much improved over what they used to be.

"Story telling is the most universal art in the world," Miss Faulkner said, "and you close the door when they really need advice and help when you refuse them what they ask when it is simply a story. They come to you expecting to get what they ask, and if you refuse them when they are in need of help and advice when in serious difficulty they will not turn to you."

Thirty-two members were added to the club. They are: Miss Elia Blesener, Mrs. Harry Burgess, Miss Anna Dahlsen, Miss Anna Harris, Mrs. J. L. Harris, Miss Charlotte F. Huesing, Mrs. A. W. James, Mrs. Harry B. Jordan, Mrs. E. N. Kerr, Mrs. Walter H. Krick, Mrs. Byron C. Utech, Mrs. L. P. Thompson, Mrs. T. K. Simpson, Mrs. Samuel J. Russell, Miss Marguerite Foster, Mrs. J. W. Potter, Mrs. C. E. Nees, Mrs. Roy L. Martin, Mrs. Jonty L. Marshall, Mrs. F. F. Lindberg, Mrs. R. H. Liltz and Mrs. P. J. Zettler.

Mrs. C. L. Silvia was appointed a director to succeed Mrs. Morris S. Haegey who resigned as a member of the board. The sum of $100 was voted to the social service department and the city welfare department.

Professor M. B. Shaw, a prominent Iowa educator, former superintendent of education for Des Moines county, who is now teaching at the Flint River school and resides in West Burlington, Iowa, comes forward with his unqualified endorsement of Tanlac.

"Not in years," said Professor Shaw, "while in Henry's drug store in Burlington recently I was told of this good health or felt so well generally as I do since I began taking Tanlac. Three bottles of this medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment and medicines I have taken in ten years combined."

At the time I began taking Tanlac my stomach had been in bad shape for at least ten years. My food would invariably sour and I would suffer for hours after meals from gas and indigestion. I was also in a badly run down condition, suffered from constipation, and my nerves were upset so I could not get sufficient sleep or rest.
