

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

LOCAL WAR BRIEFS

John Schiller, 1954 W. Walnut st., former German soldier, beaten by five Russians in home of Ignatz Kollnoski, 1237 S. Union st. War argument. Russians captured.

City business men say sales increasing. Trade stringency over.

English firms buying war necessities. Chicago firms get share of trade.

U. S. Bureau of Statistics points way for merchants to get South American trade. Names needed articles.

A. G. Fegert, pres. Chicago Christian Endeavor Union, says greed caused European war. Commercial fight.

Chicago to get part of South American "movie" film trade, formerly held by France.