

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Charges against William J. McCourt, superintendent of city water department dismissed by trial board.

Clark street car burned. Passengers panic-stricken. Miss Soma Buger, 24, 2432 Clybourn av., hurt.

4,450 marriage licenses issued in June. Record for month.

State's attorney may take drastic action to force Chinese firms to file tax schedule.

Bull broke from Wells-Fargo freight shed, Dearborn station. Wild West roundup took place in loop.

Edward N. Breitung, Chicago millionaire, sued for $25,000 by Max Kleist, son-in-law. Claims he alienated wife's affections.

5,703 lawyers in Chicago, according to new law directory.

George Elliott, found on C. & N. W. viaduct. Skull fractured. Died in hospital.

4,500 United States express offices closed today.

County clerk refuses to recognize petitions of candidates who formed line at door. Those received by mail to win first place on primary ballot.

Chas. Rehm, son of Police Cap't Rehm, arraigned on charge of mailing obscene letters. Bond $2,000.

Edwin Schell, 16, 1341 E. 50th, killed by I. C. train at 49th st.

Building 119 N. Canal destroyed by fire. Firemen had narrow escape when roof caved in.

Sylvester Kozlowski, 8234 Cole av., arrested for faking green crabapples. Discharged.

Mrs. Mary Bramer, 9304 Manistee av., up for keeping unmuzzled dog. Claims she bought six muzzles, but dog got away.

Mrs. Louise Cook, 10759 Burley av., stabbed six times. Antonio Velolante, boarder, sought.

$25,000 estate of Jacob Newman goes to widow.

Policeman Volquartz, who shot and killed Frank Klasta, exonerated by coroner's jury.

Police raising funds to fight new pension law. Claimed that police ethics and civil service regulations are being violated.

National Speech Art Ass'n, Northwestern University, wants every child an orator. Would teach declamation in public schools.

Higher social consciousness and new ideals urged at Sunday school convention.

Tony Markowitka couldn't find a room. Slept in box car. Arrested. Discharged.

Unidentified man, 40, initials "J. O. L." on shirt, found wandering in dazed condition. Memory gone.

Ottie Hauzie, 3721 W. 62d st., up for non-support. Earns $4 week. Wife has 6 children. Ordered to pay weekly.

Inquiry of traction lines checked by council adjournment. Mayor wants $50,000 to probe alleged unfair bookkeeping methods.

Att'y Geo. L. Schein and Harold Hirst, New York, placed on trial for receiving money to "fix" prosecution.

Five arrested in Cleveland, O. Gang operated in Chicago. Police believe they have Mandel barn murderer.

Miss Sadie Soule, Denver, met Robt. G. Lilly, River Forest. Engaged. Jilted. Wants $25,000.

Lawrence H. Carr, 123 S. Ashland av., swallowed piece of steak. Stuck in throat. Dead.

Julia Pruesser, 5, 2823 Shields av., hit by motorcycle. Dead.

Engine of Columbian flyer, C., M. & St. P. Railroad, overturned at Crawford av. Crew bruised.

Geo. Kessler, Evanston, wanted to take girl to show. Broke. "Panhandled" at Adams and Wabash. Landed in jail.

Eight Indians missing from "Tiger Bill's" Wild West show. Police seeking them. May have jumped to other circus.

Miss Emma Ott, 10811 Green Bay av., tried to attack Mrs. Mikula when