POLITICAL AND FINANCIAL RING WILL BE PROBED BY COMMITTEE

Relations Between Bankers and Politicians Will Be Looked Into By Merriam Committee—City Hall Stirred—New Lorimer Dope.

The alliance between politicians and bankers will be investigated by the council committee on city deposits, headed by Ald. Charles E. Merriam, and not merely the affairs of the LaSalle Street Bank, according to information which leaked out of the City Hall today.

The rumor has it that Ald. Charles E. Merriam in his capacity as chairman of the council on city deposits is going to expose the entire manner in which public funds are awarded to various banks.

Evidence will be sought that certain banks give up stock to political leaders so that these leaders exert their influence to land public funds.

The power of the committee, however, is limited. They have not the power to place anyone under oath and must proceed slowly.

A great deal of money in interest on public funds has been made by custodians of these funds. It is hoped by Merriam to show up the entire game.
