HE WANTED ONLY BIG GAME

English Warrior Bravely Describes Numerous Encounters With the Feroocious African Beasts. Once I was talking with one of those gentleman rankers of the old England, who by this time is probably somewhere in France, for he was always looking for trouble where it was thickest.

WANTS TO SHINE SHOES FOR PERSHING'S ARMY

Pueblo, Colo.—Thomas Price, twenty-seven, a legless boot-black here, wants the job of shining shoes for General Pershing's Sammies "over there." His crippled condition prevents him from entering the army, so he has written President Wilson, requesting that he be given a chance to "do his bit."

Advertisement for Calumet Baking Powder. Features an illustration of a hand holding a tin of Calumet and a child. Text includes: 'ALWAYS THE CHOICE WHERE NO CHANCES ARE TO BE TAKEN' and 'War time is no time for trifling. No time for experimenting. The best of Army and Navy equipment is demanded—the best of men to man it—and finally the best, most nutritious foods for those men.'

WAR BREAD CAUSES TROUBLE

Said to Be Responsible for Digestive Disorders Which Are Followed by Eruptions. Reports of illness through eating war bread are being received from all over the country, and the news that Lord Rhonda has instituted an inquiry into the cause will come as a relief to many, says the Dundee Advertiser.

OUR NEIGHBORS IN ILLINOIS

EASILY MADE FLOWER HOLDER

A holder for short-stemmed flowers may be made from an embroidery hoop over which netting has been stretched; place this over a bowl of water.

Gear Wheels Made of Cotton

Gears are now being made of ordinary cotton which outwear those made from the finest steel. It seems incredible, but it is true, says Popular Science Monthly. The very hardness of the metal gears causes the teeth surfaces to scrape over each other when they mesh, producing hideous screeches and groans.

COONS AND TURKEYS

They are hunting coons in Massachusetts and eating them. They are said to be a fine substitute for turkey—more than a substitute, better. That is all right—they can eat them. Our Pilgrim Fathers can eat all the coon they want. We will take a second helping to turkey, declares a writer in the Columbus State Journal.
